1. Let all mortal flesh keep silence, And with fear and trembling stand; Ponder nothing earthly-minded, For with blessing in his hand Christ, our God, to earth descend ed, Our full homage to demand.

2. King of kings, yet born of Mary, As of old on earth stood; Lord of lords in human vesture, In the body and the blood He will give to all the faithful His own self for heav’nly food.

3. Rank on rank, the host of heaven Spreads its vanguard on the way, As the light of light descend ed From the realms of endless day, That the pow’rs of hell may vanish As the darkness clears a way.

4. At his feet the six-wing’d seraph, Cherubim with sleep-less eye, Veil their faces to the presence, As with cease-less voice they cry, “Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Lord most high!”

Hail Glorious Saint Patrick

1. Hail, glorious Saint Patrick! dear saint of our isle.
   On us thy poor children bestow a sweet smile.
   And now thou art high in the mansions above.
   On Erin's green vales look down in thy love.

2. Hail, glorious Saint Patrick! thy words once were strong.
   Against Satan's wiles, and a heretic throng.
   Not less in thy might now in heaven thou art.
   Oh, come to our aid, in our battle take part.

3. The fight against sin, in the fight for our faith.
   Dear Saint, may thy children resist to the death.
   May their strength be in meekness, penance, and pray'r.
   Their banner the cross, which they glory to bear.

4. Thy people, now exiles on man'y a shore.
   Shall love and revere thee till time be no more.
   And the fire thou kindled shall ever burn bright.
   Its warmth undiminished, undying its light.
