Put Out Into Deep Water

When I was at the seminary, I had to have an evaluation interview once a year. Imagine yourselves sitting in front of the archbishop, the rector and vice rector, and the formation team and answering their questions. Many of you had similar experience as you had an interview for a new job.

In today’s Gospel, Saint Peter had an unexpected job interview - an interview for being Jesus’s disciple - an interview for a unique position: the first pope. Peter was an unlikely candidate. He was a fisherman and probably uneducated. Jesus knew that later Peter would deny and leave Him. What did Jesus see in Peter that we cannot see? We often see and evaluate others based on their appearance but the Lord look right into the heart. Jesus saw in Peter’s heart two things: faith and obedience.

Jesus steps into Peter’s boat. A carpenter steps into the fisherman’s boat and tells him how to fish. "Go out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." If you and I were Peter, what would we do? Would we try one more time after wasting the whole night catching nothing? For sure Peter was tired, sleepy, and probably frustrated after working in vain the entire night. Peter could have said to Jesus: "Leave me alone. I had a rough night. You know nothing about fishing." Instead, Peter answered: "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets."

"We have worked hard all night and have caught nothing." What does it mean? It means Peter worked hard with his own power, his own experience, and his own strength. By his own, Peter worked in vain, catching no fish. Bishop Robert Barron says: "Relying on ourselves, we will never catch the life that God wants us to have." But when Peter obeyed the Lord lowering his nets for a catch, he caught "a great number of fish." When we accept the Lord’s invitation, He will provide for us much more than we expect.

Jesus steps into our life like the way He stepped into Peter’s boat. Bishop Barron calls this moment the invasion of grace. Let the grace and peace of the Lord permeate every corner of our being. Without Christ, we would waste not only the entire night but the entire life, catching nothing. Without Him, we will get lost while searching for the meaning of life. But with Christ in our life, our net will be filled with fish. We find the meaning of life in Jesus the source of life.

Peter fell at the knees of Jesus, saying: "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." But the Lord says to him: "Do not be afraid, from now on you will be catching men." The phrase "Do not be afraid" often reminds us of Pope John Paul II. Time and again, the Holy Father told us: "Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors to Christ." Many of us still have vivid memories of the World Youth Day in Denver in 1993. In his visit, the pope told the young people: "Do not be afraid to go out on the streets and into public places, like the first Apostles who preached Christ and the Good News of salvation in the squares of cities, towns and villages. This is no time to be ashamed of the Gospel (Cfr. Rom 1,16). It is the time to preach it from the rooftops (Cfr. Mt 10,27)."

Peter got the job. He and his friends left everything and became fishers of souls. We will be like Peter when we open wide the doors for Christ and do whatever He tells us.

Generally, a qualified charitable contribution is an otherwise taxable distribution from an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) owned by an individual who is age 70 1/2 or over that is paid DIRECTLY from the IRA to a qualified charity. Many of our parishioners have inquired about this and several are already taking advantage of this possible tax-free opportunity. Of course, discuss this with your CPA or tax accountant to confirm the benefits of this program.

Greg and Julie Alexander thought divorce was the only way out of their lifeless, loveless marriage. Quite unexpectedly, a faithful priest guided them back to the truths of the church, and as they began to incorporate these truths into their lives, they were able to restore the love they once had for each other. Marriage 911 chronicles their journey back from the brink of divorce to marital happiness built on a strong Catholic faith.

Told from both spouses’ perspectives, their very personal story shares: three key questions every married couple should answer; practical, real-life tips for getting a marriage back on track; and hope for all married couples on the brink.
