For a Mother's heart, a Mother's faith and a Mother's steadfast love were fashioned by the Angels and sent from God above.

Are you being called to serve through foster care?

There are over 700 children in state's custody in Knox County alone. There is a great need for homes to foster children of all ages. Current DCS foster parent, Cassie, shares her journey:

"Being a foster parent is a direct response to God's command to "look after orphans and widows in their distress." (James 1:27) As a disciple of Christ we are mandated to follow His command to do this. God called our family into this ministry 3 years ago. I am now able to share the Gospel in the tenderest ways in which I wasn't able to do before. I not only minister to the needs of children but to their families and am able to share my testimony to mothers who are struggling. God has given me the opportunity to hold tiny babies, sing to them and pray over them. We have been able to care for older children who have never been consistently taken to church where they learn about God as our Healer. Through us, they see God as their Provider. Our act of obedience will change the lives of children, families and possibly generations. I have grown closer to the Lord during this time as I walk with Him daily in this journey. I encourage you, if you are being called, to step out. Jesus will meet you just as He did Peter when He called him out to the water. If our eyes remain focused on Him we will find Him to be all we need. To God be the glory in all that I do" Consider being a foster parent for a child in need.
