We ought to speak, shout out against injustices, with confidence and without fear. We proclaim the principles of the Church, the reign of love, without forgetting that it is also a reign of justice.

Bishop Statement on Texas Shooting

“Once again our nation has been jolted by news of a mass killing. When will it end? Sunday’s appalling act of violence at a church in Texas reminds us that evil exists, and as a nation, and as good people, we must stand up to it. The forces of evil are always around us.

“The abundance of guns in our society is only part of my concern. The portrayal of violence in movies, on nightly TV shows, and in video games as something glamorous and inconsequential troubles me. The breakdown in civil discourse on social media and even in person also concerns me. I ask for your prayers for the respect of all life— for the unborn and for innocent people everywhere.

“Please also join me in praying for the victims of Sunday’s shooting, for the strength of those injured, and for those family members who have lost loved ones. Scripture teaches us that love always conquers evil. Pray for God’s guidance and for the goodness of mankind to overcome hatred and evil.”

Bishop Richard F. Stika

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Knoxville

November 19, 2017

The good news of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given us. All we need do is be faithful in "small matters." The cost of fidelity has no comparison to the reward given.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are sharing God's extravagant love.

Thanksgiving Blessing Prayer

O Lord,

Thank you for all the good gifts you have given us.
Thank you for the fine delicate balance of the natural world.
Thank you for the amazing variety of fruit seeds and grains.
Thank you for the beauty of autumn when the greens turn yellow, gold and crimson.

Lord, help us to enjoy this beautiful season,
And the wonderful food you have given us.

Amen.

Diocesan Men's Retreat: Join men from across the Diocese of Knoxville for a day of learning and reflection on Dec. 9 at All Saints' Catholic Church in Knoxville. Catholic speaker and evangelist Nic Davidson will be presenting on male Catholic identity. The culture has a message about what it means to be a man: Nothing. We disagree. It is time to claim and live your Catholic identity.

The day begins at 9 a.m. with Holy Mass with Bishop Richard F. Stika and will conclude at 2:30 p.m. Breakfast and lunch are included. The retreat is free. Donations will be accepted to help cover speaker and food costs.

For questions or to register, please contact Sister Anna Marie at srannamarie@dioknox.org or 865-862-5763.

May Our Lady of Fatima Statue Come into Your Home?

Parishioners speak of miracles, both little and large, happening when her statue has been present in their homes. Our lady has brought feelings of peace, possibilities and hope where there was confusion, chaos and despair. A beautiful novena booklet accompanies her to be prayed during each of the nine days she is in your home.

PLEASE continue to bring your aluminum cans and deposit them in the trailer out in the parking lot next to the dumpster. Please put large bags next to the garage.
