

"I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former, for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14

TODAY'S CELEBRATION: Brothers and sisters, in today's Gospel we are confronted with the self-righteous Pharisee. Self-righteousness is one of those faults that is easy to recognize in others and almost impossible to see in ourselves. And yet, this fault turns people away from the faith. Let us pray to see ourselves as God sees us and, if we are self-righteous, ask God for the grace to place Jesus in the center of our lives.

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

Luke 19:1-10 "Zacchaeus, come down! Today I eat at your house."

La administracion cristiana significa abrir nuestros corazones, calendarios, y manos a otros – disponernos de Buena voluntad para escuchar y dar nuestro tiempo y nuestro amor. Aquellos que servimos pueden ser vecinos, hermanos feligreses, y los que padecen.

Stewardship is opening our hearts, schedules, and hands to others – being available and willing to listen and give our time and our love. Those we give to can be neighbors, fellow parishioners, as well as those who are hurting.
