We continue to refresh and update our Parish Prayer List. Please contact our Pastoral Assistant, Sharon Camier, to help us update the list to include the names of those parishioners, relatives and friends currently in need of prayer. Please remember that to have names added to the list and printed in the bulletin and/or posted online we require permission from the person(s) concerned. Thank you for your help and for your prayers of intercession.

SHARING GOD’S GIFTS

Our parish’s appeal target for 2018 is $25,720.00

As of Friday morning July 6th our parish has reached 69.07% of our target, i.e. total received to date and pledges = $17,765.00

Parishioners are asked to pick up a brochure from the narthex or the parish office and prayerfully consider making their gift or pledge to Sharing God’s Gifts 2018.

It is important that EVERY ADULT PARISHIONER do their best to offer something to the campaign in support of our Archdiocesan pastoral services. Remember that if our parish exceeds its target, donations in excess of the target are returned to the parish to be used towards local priorities.

Contributions to Sharing God’s Gifts may be forwarded through the parish office or directly to the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. Various payment options are available. If you wish to contribute via cheque, please make cheques payable to “Sharing God’s Gifts”.

We are still hoping for some volunteers to assist as Sharing God’s Gifts Campaign Workers who would be willing to phone and/or visit parishioners. If you are available to help, please contact the parish office. Thank you for your support!

Building and Maintenance Request

In 2016 we were hoping to proceed with required masonry repairs to the building envelope. This work is a continuation of the repairs to protect our investment in our 50+ year old building. As we all know, with our financial struggle, we were unable to proceed at that time. However, as these repairs are becoming more critical, the Parish Finance Council has instructed me to proceed with this work. The total cost for this work will be approximately $12,000.00. In 2016 we had received contributions towards this project totaling $7,995.00. However, monies received at the time were somewhat short of our goal. We are hopeful that there may be some additional support for this project at this time. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Respectfully, Claude Precourt
Building and Maintenance chair

If you are willing to make a special monetary contribution to assist with the required masonry repairs, please use a “DONATION (specify)” envelope available in the pamphlet rack at the south church entrance or from the parish office. Please make cheques payable to St. John XXIII Parish and specify that your donation is for “BUILDING REPAIRS”.

St. Charles Catholic School Support

In order to satisfy our obligation to support Saint Charles Catholic School (SCCS), as we near the end of the current school year and again in the fall we are making a concerted effort to solicit and encourage donations specifically earmarked to SCCS especially to help cover tuition bursaries. We are hoping to raise at least $5,000.00 to start.

If you are willing to make a special monetary contribution to the support of Saint Charles Catholic School, please use a “DONATION (specify)” envelope available in the pamphlet rack at the south church entrance or from the parish office. Please make cheques payable to St. John XXIII Parish and specify that your donation is for “ST. CHARLES SCHOOL”.

Please do NOT include donations to Sharing God’s Gifts or other special causes, i.e. as noted above, in your regular offertory envelopes. Kindly use Sharing God’s Gifts brochure envelopes for donations to the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal or parish “DONATION (specify)” envelopes for other special donations to alleviate confusion for collection counters and office staff who process and credit your donations. Thank you for your understanding and kind cooperation.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ezekiel 2.3-5

They are a rebellious house.
They shall know there has been a Prophet among them.

Psalm 123.1-2a, 2b, 3-4

Our eyes look to the Lord, until he has mercy upon us.

2 Corinthians 12.7-10

I gladly will boast of my weaknesses,
so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

Mark 6.1-6

A Prophet is not without honour, except in his hometown.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION ON LECTIONARY READINGS

The last verse in today's Gospel says of Jesus, "He was amazed at their lack of faith," in reference to the reaction and response He received from his own neighbors when He returned and preached at the synagogue. Might the Lord say the same about us? Might he be equally surprised at the lack of faith we sometimes show? Faith is based upon trust, and that trust is at the core of the readings on this Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

In the reading from the Prophet Ezekiel, our First Reading, God addresses Ezekiel in this way: "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites." It is somewhat surprising, but God calls Ezekiel the "son of man" 93 separate times in this Book. Why? It would seem that Ezekiel is truly a man among men, and he seems to represent all of humankind. Of course, the phrase "Son of man" is what Jesus was most likely to call Himself at least 80 times in the Gospels. Jesus wanted us to know that He was one of us.

God makes it clear to Ezekiel that He, the Lord, will provide Ezekiel the strength to accomplish what He is calling him to do, in spite of the challenges it presents. In the same way if God has called us to do something, He will give us the strength to do it. That is what trust really is. We understand that we cannot of our own strength and abilities accomplish what God may want us to. To trust God is to have faith in Him.

After Jesus Himself and His Blessed Mother Mary, perhaps no one in Holy Scripture trusted God any more than St. Paul. Today's Second Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians contains Paul's perspective of that. He mentions that "a thorn in the flesh was given to me...to keep me from being too elated." He is referencing the burdens he feels he must bear. When we think of a thorn, we think of something small that might cause minor pain and a minor inconvenience. It is worth knowing that the word translated as "thorn" — skolops — can also be translated as a "tent stake," more of a spike than a small thorn. Nevertheless, regardless the translation it is something that frustrates and troubles Paul.

Paul also knew, just as Ezekiel found in the First Reading, that when God calls you to do something He provides you the power to do it. Paul knew that he could not do what he felt he was called to do without assistance from the Holy Spirit. Paul also states in the reading, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me. I am content with weaknesses...for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong." Paul understood that the "grace" he received from God would be sufficient to meet Paul's every need. Perhaps each of us must accept his or her weaknesses in order to be stronger in faith.

When Jesus says in today's Gospel from the Book of Mark, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house," He is expressing another one of those passages from Scripture that has become very well known. Jesus understood, as did both Ezekiel and Paul in the first two readings, that rejection is a price that those who believe must sometimes pay. It hurt Him for sure to be rejected by people He considered friends and people who were His neighbors.

One limitation that we all face is a sense of doubt and even mistrust by some of those who are close to us. As indicated in the opening, Jesus also expresses amazement at the unbelief of those close to Him. That is a limitation and a frustration we all sometimes face. The question is, "Where is our belief?" and "Where is our trust in God?" Jesus never seemed to be amazed at what He saw in terms of the wonders of creation. What amazed Him was the lack of faith among people. In spite of the rejection He experienced, He did not hesitate to continue what He felt His ministry was. We need to have that same determination, knowing full well that God is with us always.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Amos 7.12-15

Show us your steadfast love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Psalm 85.8ab+9, 10-11, 12-13

The seed that fell on good soil produced a hundredfold.

Ephesians 1.3-14

God chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world.

Mark 6.7-13

Jesus called the twelve and sent them out two by two.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey.” When Jesus sent his Apostles out, He sent them “two by two,” and He basically commanded them to take nothing on the journey: “no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” The point of the Lord is that all they needed was to trust in God. Jesus more or less says the same thing to us.

As long as we trust in God, our needs will be met. That is easily said, but it is a bit daunting to actually do it. Yet, people have been doing that since Jesus’ time. It is one of the reasons that the Church has thrived for such a long time.

There is a secondary reason for Jesus’ instructions though, one with which we may not be familiar. At that time there was a ruled that you could not enter a temple area with shoes or a moneybag, because you were there to serve the Lord, nothing else and no one else. The Apostles understood that preaching the Gospel and healing in God’s name was holy work. Jesus did not want them to exemplify any other motive either.

One of the foundational elements of stewardship is trusting God. What enables us to be good stewards and to think of giving to God first, of ourselves and what we have, is that we truly believe that God will take care of us. God has a plan for each of us, and it is better than our own plan may be.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 23.1-6

I myself will gather the remnant of my flock and raise up shepherds over them.

Psalm 23.1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

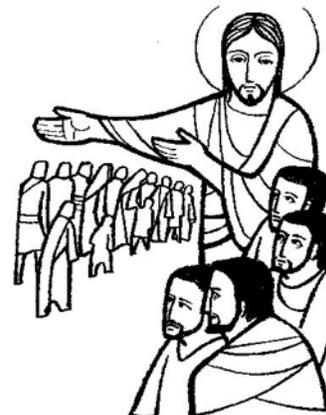

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Ephesians 2.13-18

Christ is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one.

Mark 6.30-34

They were like sheep without a shepherd.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Most are familiar with the scriptural quote from Psalm 23, “The Lord is my shepherd. There is nothing I shall want.” This passage serves as the Responsorial Psalm on this 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time because it supports the other readings with two key ideas: that we must place our trust in the Lord, and that we inherit life from our Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

At the time St. Paul was writing his Letter to the Ephesians (our Second Reading), Paul was under house arrest in Rome and awaiting trial. He was allegedly accused by the Jews of taking a Gentile into a temple. Therefore, part of Paul’s statement, “For he (Christ) is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims,” is saying essentially the Lordship of Jesus is not greater than any difference you may feel you have with others — that Jesus is our Savior and our Shepherd.

In the Gospel Reading from Mark, the idea of shepherding lies at the heart. “When he (Jesus) disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” In other words, He began to feed them with the Word of God. That is what we do during this part of our Mass; we hear Holy Scripture. These are the Words of the Lord. He is our shepherd. We are His sheep.

As always, Jesus teaches us a valuable lesson about stewardship through today's readings. To the Lord, the needs of others were more important than His own. When we share our time, our talents, and our treasure, we are not only following our Good Shepherd, we are also living His Gospel call to shepherd others by giving of ourselves.

“When we wake up each morning, if praise of the Risen Christ were to fill our hearts ... then in the monotony of daily life, an inner surge of vitality would reveal our hidden longing.”

— Brother Roger of Taizé

In 2018, the Catholic Church in western and northern Canada is celebrating a momentous anniversary, the 200th anniversary of the establishment of the Roman Catholic Church in this wide and beautiful, yet also challenging and even at times forbidding land. From the plains of the southern prairies and parklands, and then beyond the mountains to the Pacific Ocean, from the northern forest, rivers, lakes and then beyond the barrens of the Hudson Bay and the Arctic Ocean, the Gospel of Jesus Christ has been preached and lived.
