NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 18:6-9

In this excerpt, the Israelites are reminded that they were warned before God sent an angel to slay the first born of the Egyptians. God called on them to have courage, and then rewarded them by punishing their enemies and leading them from captivity.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Faith is described as true belief even toward things we cannot see. Abram's faith in God was so deep that he wandered through a foreign land, convinced God's promise of a homeland was sincere. God honored his promise to give Abram many descendants, and was proud of the deep faith Abram and his people possessed.

Gospel: Luke 12:32-48

Jesus encourages us to be prepared for his return at all times, for he will come when we least expect him. He tells of a master who entrusts his home to his servants, and fully expects them to be awaiting his return. In the same manner, Jesus can arrive at any moment and expects us to be prepared for his return.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 3/4, 2019

GROW
 RICH
 IN THE SPIRIT

“Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, ‘Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.’ He replied to him, ‘Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?’ Then he said to the crowd, ‘Take care to guard against all greed, for though a man may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.’”

Luke 12:13—21

Without being fully aware, it is easy to fall into the trap of greed or avarice. Like the tiny squirrel, we gather and collect, thinking we are in need, cannot do without, and even forget what we have accumulated. The gospel teaching is a gentle reminder.

Consider all possessions as gift. I was not born with them and when the Lord calls me, they will be left behind. Our consumer society measures and praises what one possesses.

A good lesson for us is to look at the gift of health, of family, of service, as the riches I have. It is not what I have that counts, but what I do with the gifts I have been given. To see my children and grandchildren, their joy and accomplishments as treasures. Where my heart is, there is my treasure.

CCD NEWS

CCD Registration for next year has begun. Any families new to the parish, or those who have Kindergarten or First Grade students to register, should call the CCD office at 973-770-0291 for additional information or to obtain forms. Please note that Diocesan Policy requires that children must attend CCD classes for two years before making First Reconciliation and First Communion.

Parish Mission Weekend Aug. 10/11

Fr. Arnel Barrameda who comes from the Philippines will speak about the mission needs of the Diocese of Legazpi. The newest formed ministry called “Harong Paglaom” (means House of Hope) a community drug rehab program. Priests and special ministries help street children and the mentally challenged as well as other programs to help families, youth and the poorest of the poor. Whatever help you can give is greatly appreciated.

Parish Picnic
 The Parish Picnic had a gathering of parishioners who enjoyed food, fun and perfect weather. Special thanks to The Schaefer’s, The Korovich’s, the cooks, bakers and all who attended and contributed to make this day a great success.
