TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
First Reading: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10
 Jeremiah urged the people of Jerusalem to surrender to the enemy. This angered the princes, who then requested that Jeremiah be put to death. The king allowed the princes to leave him in a cistern without food or water. But after Ebed Melech pleaded for Jeremiah's life, the king decided to free him.
Second Reading: Hebrews 12:1-4
 This letter to the Hebrews inspires all Christians to persevere, in spite of the trials they may face. Jesus endured much suffering and was rewarded by God. Despite our struggles, we must remember Jesus' ability to endure and maintain strong faith in him.
Gospel: Luke 12:49-53
 Jesus tells his disciples that his message will not bring peace to the earth. Instead, even families will become sharply divided because some members will embrace him, while others condemn him.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 10/11, 2019

“Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen... for those who speak thus show that they are seeking a homeland.” “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom.”

Remember the flamboyant congressman and minister known for his mantra ‘Keep the faith baby’? It is faith in God, belief in His word which gives meaning to life. I ask myself what do I hope for and what is the evidence not seen.

My life in the church is one of faith, which must continue to grow daily. Even when I have disappointments, I keep my eyes fixed on Jesus. I look to the Lord and the fulfillment of His promises. His kingdom has already begun in my living the faith found in the church, in my life of prayer and the sacraments. The Father has given me the kingdom already. I ask that I may see the kingdom now in the church and pray, ‘Thy kingdom come.’

Parish Mission Weekend Aug. 10/11

Fr. Arnel Barrameda who comes from the Philippines will speak about the mission needs of the Diocese of Legazpi. The newest formed ministry called “Harong Paglaom” (means House of Hope) a community drug rehab program. Priests and special ministries help street children and the mentally challenged as well as other programs to help families, youth and the poorest of the poor. Whatever help you can give is greatly appreciated.
