TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos expressed disgust over people who take advantage of the poor. He describes businessmen scheming to cheat the poor, then declares that God will "never forget the things they have done."

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul urges the Christians to pray for all people, especially those in authority. Paul even asked them to pray for the kings who denounced Christ's teachings, because God wants all people to be saved through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a servant who tries to cheat his employer. The owner is impressed because he would do the same thing himself. Jesus then describes the importance of being trustworthy in small matters, as well as in greater ones. He then states that no one can serve two masters faithfully, so people cannot give themselves completely to both God and money.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 14/15, 2019

"I am grateful to him who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy in appointing me to the ministry...Indeed, the grace of our Lord has been abundant, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Of these I am the foremost. But for that reason I was mercifully treated..."

1 Timothy 1:12—17

The pastoral letter of Paul to Timothy should have a notation at the end stating 'cc. to the reader today.' He offers us the opportunity to express our gratitude to God, as we too have been entrusted with the ministry of service to others. Paul encourages Timothy and awakens me to the reason of Jesus' coming and the reason for our church. Jesus came and comes as savior, granting forgiveness, empowering me to bring this message to others.

The gospel passage, the 15th chapter of mercy of Luke, then reminds me of Jesus looking for the one lost sheep, the woman searching for the lost coin and the familiar parable of the loving Father. Finding the wayward son. As we connect these two passages, we are ready for action.
