THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

God is just and does not show favoritism, but hears the prayers of everyone. Anyone who serves God, no matter how lowly his position here on earth, will be heard and answered.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Paul writes to Timothy that he thinks his mission is near the end, and he is glad his faith is still strong. Paul hopes that all nations will hear the gospel. But, if he is executed as he anticipates, he is sure he will live forever in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee who went to the temple, and offered up a prayer of thanks because he was not a sinner like the tax collector who was also there to pray. The tax collector was far humbler, acknowledging his sins, and asking forgiveness for them. Jesus said the tax collector's prayer would be heard because, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, while he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 19/20, 2019

“Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you have learned it, and from infancy you have known the sacred scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scriptures are inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction and for training in righteousness, so that those who belong to Jesus may be competent, equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:14–4:2

When is the last time you opened your bible at home, or listened with great attention as the scriptures were proclaimed at mass? When did you reflect on God’s word, during the week after hearing it at liturgy, or heard a text which was familiar to you? When did you think it might be helpful to attend a bible study?

The words above which Paul wrote to Timothy are invitations to us, so we can grow in our faith. The teaching reminds us of growing after first communion, confirmation or our marriage. We continue to grow older, are we growing in holiness? Pope Francis’ exhortation offers us the beatitudes as the path for holiness. The bible in your living room has allergies. It is allergic to dust. Please open it read it and heed it!

Joan Mackey

If you would like to donate altar flowers in memory of a loved one, or in honor of an occasion, please call the Rectory 973-398-0240. $50.

Tree of Life

The word “memorial” derives from the Latin “memos” which literally means mindful. Thus, with memorials the memories associated with the death of a person always remain with us in so many ways. Memorials are an important part of every culture. They allow people to remember a deceased loved one. Your loved one deserves to be remembered. Our Lady of the Lake Parish has developed an opportunity for you to memorialize your loved one. The initial funds for the Tree of Life were raised in honor of Father Desmond O’Connor. Over the next few weeks, you will hear more about the Tree of Life and how you can purchase a leaf in remembrance of your loved one.

All are welcome to pray the rosary with the “Ladies of the Lake”, in Church at 7pm, Fri., Nov. 15th. The Rosary will be prayed every third Friday of the month.
