THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 11:22-12:2

In this reading, we are reminded of the love God feels toward every creature, or else he would not have created them. God shows mercy on our sins and hopes we will repent and have faith in him.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

Paul tells the Thessalonians that God will make them worthy of his call, so that they can be glorified in Christ. Paul also tells them he is unsure when Christ will come again, but urges them not to believe people who falsely state that Jesus has returned.

Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Zacchaeus, the wealthy chief tax collector in Jericho, was very excited when Jesus came to town and asked to stay with him.

People were angry that Jesus would go to a sinner's home.

Zacchaeus then told Jesus he planned to give half of his belongings to the poor, and repay any person he had cheated. Jesus was delighted since his mission was "to search out and save what was lost."

2019 Bishop's Annual Appeal

"For I Was Hungry..."

The Bishop's Annual Appeal helps support the significant cost associated with the education our seminarians for the priesthood in our Diocese—such as years of room, board, tuition and other related expenses. Your gift today helps prepare our seminarians for the future. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2019appeal.org. May God bless you for your support!

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 26/27, 2019

“The Lord is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial to the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard, his petition reaches the heavens.... Oh God, be merciful to me a sinner.”

Sirach 35:12—14, 16—18

The parable of Jesus provides a clear and poignant teaching. We can identify only with one of the two persons. The writer from the Jewish scriptures provides us with the oppressed or the one who serves God willingly. I too can identify as one of them.

If God hears the cry of the poor, can I as a willing servant hear and listen to their voice? Christians throughout the world are suffering great hardship, precisely because of their faith. Do I respond to their need? I may not know them, their language, or culture, but they are victims of oppression and neglect. From earliest times the bible responds to the widows and orphans.

Those detained at our border are sufferers and seekers of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Can I see them as us? Pope Francis stated that God’s last name is ‘Mercy’. Does the word of God today call me to compassion and action?

Tree of Life

The word “memorial” derives from the Latin “memos” which literally means mindful. Thus, with memorials the memories associated with the death of a person always remain with us in so many ways. Memorials are an important part of every culture. They allow people to remember a deceased loved one. Your loved one deserves to be remembered. Our Lady of the Lake Parish has developed an opportunity for you to memorialize your loved one. The initial funds for the Tree of Life were raised in honor of Father Desmond O’Connor. Over the next few weeks, you will hear more about the Tree of Life and how you can purchase a leaf in remembrance of your loved one.

Sanctuary Flowers

If you would like to donate altar flowers in memory of a loved one, or in honor of an occasion, please call the Rectory 973-398-0240. $50.

The Ladies of the Lake invites parishioners interested in a trip to see the Nutcracker in New York City on Wed., Dec. 11, at 2:00pm, please call Jeri Del Vecchio at 862 246 4431 by

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28TH

There have been some important repairs made to the campus of Our Lady of the Lake Church. The potholes at the Rectory driveway have been refilled. The retaining wall has been repaired. The “berm” at the end of the driveway has been replaced. We would like to “thank” Bob O’Donnell and Joe Zaccarino for their donation of time, labor and materials for the swift completion of these jobs.

Thank You!
