FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT
First Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5
 The words of Isaiah urge all people to forsake war and to live in peace forever. The tone reaches a climax in the words, "One nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again."
Second Reading: Romans 13:11-14
 Paul invites us to put away all the things of darkness and sin and to prepare for the coming of Christ.
Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44
 A comparison is made between the destruction caused by the flood in Noah's time and the need to be prepared for the second coming of Christ. "You must be prepared in the same way. The Son of Man is coming at the time you least expect."

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

November 23/24, 2019

“As they approached to offer him wine, they called out, ‘If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.’ Above him there was an inscription, ‘This is the King of the Jews...’...Then he said, ‘Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.’ He replied to him, ‘Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise.’”

Luke 25:35-43

The unforgettable word of forgiveness spoken on Calvary is a response for everyone who repents. As eyes close in death, may they open to the glory of His eternal kingdom.

How often people ask about the INRI written on the top of the cross. They are the artist's gift to remind us that it was Jesus who died, that He established the kingdom, the church, and that He is savior for all humankind.

Jesus taught us to pray ‘your kingdom come’. We find that kingdom on earth in the church, and one day the fullness of His kingdom in glory. Today I am part of that kingdom, as I too have been anointed on the day of my baptism with Jesus - priest, prophet and king.
