The Holy Family of Jesus Mary and Joseph

First Reading: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

This passage from Sirach details the duties children owe to father and mother. Their life-long devotion will not be forgotten and "will take lasting root."

Second Reading: Colossians 3:12-21

Paul urges Christians particularly in the setting of the family, to "clothe" themselves with kindness, patience, humility, and mercy; to forgive; and, above all, to love!

Gospel: Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

An angel of the Lord, appearing in a dream to Joseph, urges him to flee with Jesus and Mary to Egypt to escape the murderous schemes of Herod. Later, in another dream, an angel tells Joseph to go with Jesus and Mary to a town called Nazareth in the region of Galilee, thus fulfilling the Scriptures: "He shall be called a Nazarean."

Christmas Message from Fr. Paul,

The Christmas season is not just the time for shopping but rather a time to accept the Christ Child into your life. His coming brings hope and light into a world shadowed by despair and darkness. Jesus invites us and empowers us with the power of the Gospel, not just at Christmas but throughout the year. He teaches we are all brothers and sisters, without discrimination or prejudice and He calls us to gather as a family not just once or twice a year but faithfully each week in His name.
