WEEKLY REFLECTIONS ON THE GOLDEN RULE

“Reach out to others as you would have them reach out to you ...”

“Be just in your dealing with others as you would have them be just with you ...”

“Be generous in helping others as you would like them to be generous to you ...”

Summertime Reflection

The Parable of the Rich Fool

Today's Gospel is the Parable of the Rich Fool. What causes disputes and what's the best means for settling them? In Jesus' time, it was customary for people to take their disputes to the rabbis for settlement. Jesus refuses such a case and instead gives the disputant a parable to "mull over". How would you react if Jesus refused to settle your dispute, but gave you a parable instead? What is the point of Jesus' story about a wealthy landowner and why does he call him a fool?

Jesus does not fault him for his industriousness, but for his egoism and selfishness. Like the rich man and Lazarus, he had lost the capacity to be concerned for others. His life was consumed with his possessions and his only interests were in himself. His death was the final loss. In the parable of the rich fool, Jesus gives us a lesson on using material possessions. His lesson contains a warning to beware of all covetousness. To covet is to wish to get wrongfully what another possesses or to begrudge what God gave him. Jesus restates the commandment do not covet, but he also states that a person's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions. In this little parable, Jesus probes the heart -- where is your treasure? Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will and focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. What do you treasure most?

"Lord, free me from all covetousness and from attachment to possessions. May I wholly desire you as my treasure and portion. Help me to make good use of the material blessings you give me that I may use them generously for your glory and for the good of others. Thank you for all that you have given to me."

God doesn't love you because you are good.
God loves you because God is good!

"LA FESTA ITALIANA"

Our Lady of Mount Virgin in Garfield (MacArthur Avenue and Frederick Street) is honoring its Italian Heritage with their Annual "La Festa Italiana", on the Church grounds. This traditional Italian Street Feast runs nightly from Thursday to Sunday, August 18 - 21. On hand will be a large selection of Italian and other ethnic foods. Free entertainment will be on hand nightly.

The first reading today talks of the perils of Vanity—the quality of people who have too much pride in their own appearance, abilities, or achievements or something (such as a belief or a way of behaving) which shows that you have too much pride in yourself, or your social status.

The opposite quality is the virtue of humility.

Church Stewardship

Our stewardship commitment to support the work of the parish and its ministries shows our appreciation to God for the gifts we have been provided and our willingness to share those gifts.

A Summer Blessing

May our loving God watch over you and keep you. Keep your mind on God by praying often at home and at Mass with your family. Keep your faith in God as you let all the joys of summer remind you of God's goodness. Never forget that God is always with you, no matter what. May the God of all creation, keep you safe, happy and holy this summer. Amen

Gospel Today

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Luke 12:13-21

Jesus tells us it is more important to grow rich in the spirit than rich in earthly possessions.

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."
