THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today's Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn't mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means following Jesus' way of service, even if it requires giving one's livelihood (or life). The scribes show us by their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God's care to those who are most in need.

In our reading from the book of Kings another widow and her son are close to death. They too give what little they have, but they are rewarded by Elijah with food enough for a year. And the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus sacrificed his life "to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him" (Hebrews 9:28).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the "Great War") on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures.

Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier's cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or "chapel," the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostella, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as "Saint Martin's Lent" or "Martinmas," that later developed into the season of Advent.

Note from Pastor:

November is the month of Thanksgiving! I want to take a moment to say how thankful I am to serve as your pastor. We have two great communities of faith at Infant Jesus and St. Mark's. For me, over the past years, they have become like family.

We support each other in our struggles and we rejoice with each other in our blessings. I see the love that you have for your parish every day. Many of you are involved in our ministries, you are part of our youth ministry and religious education programs, you pray with and for those in need, and you receive with joy those prayers in return.

You are also faithful in your financial stewardship. In your weekly offerings, your annual BFA pledges, and in support for our diocesan ministries and parish organizations, you show your faith. Once again this year we have surpassed our BFA goal at both parishes, which is a major financial burden lifted from us on a parish level. You have also showed your generosity this week at our Infant Jesus Autumn Fest and in the Capital Campaign 4-wheeler raffle at St. Mark's.

To say I am thankful to be your pastor is an understatement. The foundation, or course, is our faith in the One whose generous love calls us together in Him. May the Eucharistic Lord continue to fill our hearts with gratitude, and strengthen us for every good work in His Most Holy Name.
