Do not be afraid; the Lord will calm your Storm!

Today is the twelfth Sunday of the church's ordinary time. In it, the holy mother church reminds and encourages us her children that Christ is with us even in the midst of all the storms of this life. Therefore, this is a worthy cause for celebration and thanksgiving because we are so glad that Jesus cares for us. Both the first reading from Job and the Gospel of Mark today remind us that God is the world's creator. Hence, he has the power to control and regulate all the natural, physical and spiritual forces or activities going on in this world. God has the whole world in his hands. So, he directs the course of our life and the history of this world. He knows when best to intervene both in our personal life and in the history of our entire world. This is evident in his timely response to Job and, intervention in the situation of his disciples. According to our second reading, when God intervenes, he does so out of love for us his children and world. This was what he did when he allowed his only son Jesus Christ to die at the appropriate time in order to save and renew us.
