Dedicated to Growth in Christ and to the Challenges of Loving Service

Sixteenth Sunday of ordinary time. This Sunday's readings central theme is the redemption, reunification, and restoration of God's people. So this Sunday, the church invites us to celebrate Christ, the true king and compassionate shepherd who redeems and restores his people to the Father. Our first reading is a messianic prophecy. That is, a prophecy about the coming of Christ, the messiah. The scattering of a people is a sign that something has gone wrong. It is a sign of bad leadership and system failure. So like sheep without a shepherd, the poor masses have to scatter in search of survival. This is the image we see all over the world today. In the second reading, Paul reminds us that you that used to be so far apart have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. This simply means that Christ is the fulfillment of the messianic prophecy. He is our peace and has broken down the barrier, which is used to keep us apart. Through his sacrifice, he has reunified us with God.
