Solemnity of Corpus Christi

“I am the living bread that has come down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.” In the celebration of today’s Solemnity of Corpus Christi, or the Body and Blood of Christ, God gives us His Son to satisfy our spiritual hunger. In our Gospel, Jesus Christ Himself says it, the Bible records it very clearly, and our Church also teaches it: “Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the Flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my Blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my Flesh is true food and my Blood is true drink.”

At the Last Supper Jesus gives His first priests, the Apostles, the power to change bread and wine into His own Body and Blood when He says, “Do this in memory of me.” The words of Jesus are clear. The Holy Eucharist is the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ under the appearance of bread and wine. Since the beginning, the Catholic Church has taught this. This is what we believe as we profess that Jesus is the bread of life and the cup of eternal blessing.

In the celebration of the Holy Mass we receive the Real Presence of Christ’s Body and Blood. When the priest, in the person of Christ, says the words of consecration over the bread and wine, by the power of the Holy Spirit acting through Jesus, the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Christ. They become Christ Himself, living, glorious, and truly present. Every single bit of bread and every last drop of wine have been completely changed.

This Corpus Christi Sunday is a good time to refresh our reverence at Mass and to remember the full significance of receiving Holy Communion. It is important that we keep our attendance at Mass holy. It is our Temple of Christ’s powerful sacrifice, our table of unity around the real presence of Christ and our promise of fidelity to Christ and His Church. The Holy Eucharist is the greatest spiritual gift we can ever have on this earth. It comes from the Body and Blood of Christ Himself. Let us always keep close to the Mass and to the Holy Eucharist, wherever we are, so that we will always be close to Christ. The Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our Catholic life.

Solemnidad de Corpus Christi

"Yo soy el pan vivo bajado del cielo, dice el Señor; todo aquel que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre". En la celebración de la solemnidad de hoy de Corpus Christi, o el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, Dios nos da a Su Hijo para satisfacer nuestra hambre espiritual. En nuestro Evangelio, Jesucristo mismo lo dice, la Biblia lo dice muy claramente, y nuestra Iglesia también lo enseña: "En verdad, te digo, a menos que comas la Carne del Hijo del Hombre y bebas Su sangre, no tienes vida en el. Aquellos que comen mi carne y beben mi Sangre tienen vida eterna, y yo los resucitaré en el último día; porque mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida".

En la Última Cena, Jesús da a Sus primeros sacerdotes, los Apóstoles, el poder de cambiar el pan y el vino en Su propio Cuerpo y Sangre cuando dice: "Haced esto en memoria mía". Las palabras de Jesús son claras. La Sagrada Eucaristía es el Cuerpo y la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de Jesucristo bajo la apariencia de pan y vino. Desde el principio, la Iglesia Católica ha enseñado esto. Esto es lo que creemos al profesar que Jesús es el pan de vida y la copa de la bendición eterna.

En la celebración de la Santa Misa recibimos la Presencia Real del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Cuando el sacerdote, en la persona de Cristo, pronuncia las palabras de consagración sobre el pan y el vino, por el poder del Espíritu Santo actuando por medio de Jesús, el pan y el vino se transforman en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Se convierten en Cristo mismo, vivos, gloriosos y verdaderamente presentes. Cada pedazo de pan y cada gota de vino han sido completamente transformados.

Este domingo de Corpus Christi es un buen momento para refrescar nuestra reverencia en la Misa y recordar el significado completo de recibir la Sagrada Comunión. Es importante que mantengamos nuestra asistencia a la Santa Misa. Es nuestro sacrificio poderoso del Templo de Cristo, nuestra mesa de unidad alrededor de la presencia real de Cristo y nuestra promesa de fidelidad a Cristo y su Iglesia. La Sagrada Eucaristía es el mayor regalo espiritual que podamos tener en esta tierra. Viene del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo mismo. Sigamos siempre cerca de la Misa y de la Sagrada Eucaristía, donde sea que estemos, para estar siempre cerca de Cristo. La Sagrada Eucaristía es la fuente y la cumbre de nuestra vida católica.

Dear God,

The refuge and help of all your children,
We praise you for all you have given us,

For all you have done for us,

In our weakness, you are strength,

In our darkness, you are light,

Our sorrow, you are comfort and peace.

We cannot number your blessings,

We cannot declare your love:

For all your blessings we bless you.

May we live as in your presence,

and love the things that you love,

and serve you in our daily lives;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Message from the Bishop

Dear Friends in Christ,

As has been done for the past several years, parishes will take up a collection on Father's Day in support of seminarian education. These funds, along with the support given through the Bishop's Annual Appeal, are a tremendous help as we provide for the education of those men preparing for priestly life in our Diocese.

The Gospel reading for Father's Day compares the kingdom of God to seeds scattered on land that, over time and with proper tending, begin to bear fruit and become a bountiful harvest. With every class taken by our seminarians, they grow in their faith and understanding of the great undertaking that comes with a lifetime of service to the Church. By supporting the Father's Day collection for seminarian education, you help nurture them and encourage them in this vitally important ministry.

I ask you to please be as generous as possible when this special collection is taken up this Father's Day.

Most Reverend Arthur J. Serratelli, S.T.D., S.S.L., D.D.
Bishop of Paterson
