Called to serve!

A famous comedian was asked what he would like people to say about him in 100 years - and he answered, "I'd like them to say, He looks pretty good for his age."

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, as we look back over the past 99 years of ministry to Saint Anthony of Padua. As we look at the wonderful people who have served so faithfully down through the years. As we look at the spiritual victory that has been won around this altar. As we look at the lives that have been changed. As we look at the marriages that have been saved. As we look at the prodigal children that have come home. As we look at the bad habits that have been broken by the power of Christ.

We can only say, "To God be the Glory...Great Things He Has Done"!! We have to admit. We look pretty good for our age...all glory to God!

Today's liturgy reminds us of what Christian leadership means, and our call to service. Our Guide and Model is Jesus. He not only comes as one who serves, but he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness, He humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, Even death on the cross."

How does the servant, Jesus, touch our service and our life? In the first place, service involves obedience. In essence, to be obedient means to be open. Open to what God might ask of us, might ask of us now - God who calls in unexpected ways, to unexpected service.

We will hardly be a servant of Christ if we are not open, if our tomorrows are so programmed that there is no room for the unexpected. No, to be Christ's servant is to be as he was: "Not my will but thine be done." Only in this way will we be open to the men and women who need the gifts God has given we, need our hands or our heart, our wisdom or our strength, our love and our compassion.

Today, we ask to be restored to that season of hope. We ask that our hearts be touched with the fire of God's saving love.

Llamado a servir!

Se le preguntó a un famoso comediante qué le gustaría que dijeran las personas sobre él en 100 años, y él respondió: "Me gustaría que dijeran, se ve bastante bien para su edad."

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, al recordar los últimos 99 años de ministerio en San Antonio de Padua. Mientras observamos a las personas maravillosas que han servido tan fielmente a través de los años. Al observar la victoria espiritual que se ha ganado alrededor de este altar. Al mirar las vidas que han sido cambiadas. Al mirar los matrimonios que se han salvado. Al mirar a los hijos pródigos que han vuelto a casa. Al mirar los malos hábitos que han sido quebrantados por el poder de Cristo.

Solo podemos decir: "¡A Dios sea la Gloria ... Grandes cosas ÉL ha hecho!" Tenemos que admitirlo. Nos vemos muy bien para nuestra edad ... ¡toda la gloria para Dios!

La liturgia de hoy nos recuerda lo que significa el liderazgo cristiano y nuestro llamado al servicio. Nuestra guía y modelo es Jesús. "No solo viene como uno que sirve, sino que se vació a sí mismo, tomando la forma de un esclavo, se hizo humano, se humilló a sí mismo, se hizo obediente hasta la muerte, incluso la muerte en la cruz."

¿Cómo el siervo, Jesús, toca nuestro servicio y nuestra vida? En primer lugar, el servicio implica obediencia. En esencia, ser obediente significa estar abierto. Abierto a lo que Dios nos pida, pídanos ahora: Dios que llama de manera inesperada, al servicio inesperado.

Difícilmente seremos siervos de Cristo si no estamos abiertos, si nuestro mañana están tan programadas que no hay lugar para lo inesperado. No, ser el siervo de Cristo es ser como él fue: "No se haga mi voluntad, sino la tuya". Solo de esta manera estaremos abiertos a los hombres y mujeres que necesitan los dones que Dios nos ha dado, necesitan nuestras manos o nuestro corazón, nuestra sabiduría o nuestra fuerza, nuestro amor y nuestra compasión.

Hoy, pedimos que seamos restaurados a esa época de esperanza. Pedimos que nuestros corazones sean tocados con el fuego del amor salvador de Dios.

Cancer Prevention

Some people live with the fear of Cancer
 But I say Prevention is the only answer,
 Indeed many cures exist from A to Z
 But why wait for cancer to make your cells go crazy,
 You are in charge of your cell rejuvenation
 You could change your cells with good nutrition,
 All your cells renew themselves every nine months or so
 So you could change your body from head to toe,
 Work from within to create your own physiology
 Strengthen your immune system, make your own immunotherapy,

A healthy immune system will destroy cancer cells if they enter your body

Eat plant-based foods, drink filtered water, exercise daily

Beware of hot food in plastic containers, because BPA is the enemy,

Beware of preservatives, fresh food is not cheap, but absolutely necessary

5 steps to create a habit of health, go to morethanfriendscares.org website,

Try the free 7-day active living workout to maintain a healthy lifestyle

But you know that everything in this world is temporary
 So don't forget your spirituality, check with God regularly.
