THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading—Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10
Responsorial Psalm—146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10 (R/.cf. Isaiah 35:4)
Second Reading—James 5:7-10
Gospel—Matthew 11:2-11

“In prison, John received word of the coming of Christ.”

(This Sunday’s readings may be found in the Missalette on pages 27—29.)
St. Genevieve Catholic Church Parish strives to be a family of Christ-centered people committed to building God’s Kingdom of Love and Justice by choosing stewardship as a way of life and joyfully nurturing spiritual growth through prayer, worship, education and service.

ADVENT REFLECTIONS

These daily reflection questions build on the themes of the candles in the Advent wreath.

Advent 1: Hope...
- is courageous. How will hope empower you to be bold today?
- is rooted in the soul, not the head. How will you tune into your heart today?
- makes us ready. How will hope prepare you to take on a challenge today?
- is sustained by glimmers of promises fulfilled. How will you celebrate progress today?
- is practical. What will hope allow you to accomplish today that hopelessness wouldn’t?
- brings light into a broken world. Where will you look for hope among despair today?
- is stoked by prayer. What spiritual discipline will you take on today to grow in hope?

Advent 2: Love...
- is patient. Who needs your patience today?
- trusts. Whom will you encourage by your trust today?
- forgives. What old hurt will you let go of today?
- sees and values people as they are. Whom will you see and appreciate today?
- moves us closer to God. How will you thank God for the love in your life today?
- is creative. In what innovative way will you show love today?
- for others is related to love for self. How will you care for yourself today?

Advent 3: Joy...
- is persistent. How will you experience joy as a result of not giving up today?
- is contagious. How will you share joy with someone else today?
- defies evil. How will you overcome malice by laying claim to joy today?
- requires openness. What new person or experience will you seek out today?
- is sometimes quiet, sometimes not. What will you revel in today?
- can sneak up on us. How will you allow yourself to be surprised by joy today?
- takes nothing for granted. What small grace are you grateful for today?

Advent 4: Peace...
- is an inner reality as well as an outer one. How will you bring peace to your spirit today?
- depends on repentance. What change toward someone else will you make today?
- is for everyone, or for no one. How will you advocate for peace for someone else today?
- is prophetic. How will you take a risk today?
- is constructive. What will you create today that will contribute to peace?
- is sown and reaped communally. With whom will you partner to bring peace today?
- must be waged. What instrument of peace will you take up today?
Christmas Novena Prayer
(December 16-24)

Hail and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born, of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold. In that hour, Oh my God, to hear my prayer and grant my desire, through the merits of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and His blessed Mother Mary. Amen.

ADVENT REFLECTION PRAYER

Heavenly Father, in perfect love, you called me first. You formed me in beauty and goodness. Let me always trust that your perfect will is working in my life.

This Advent, Lord, give me the grace to be still and listen, and that I may recognize your voice. Help me to reflect upon the many ways you speak to me each day.

Bless me with certainty that you will guide my daily decisions and open my heart to the gentle movements of your Holy Spirit. In your great faithfulness, my God, remove the distractions that I have allowed so often to keep me from hearing you.

As I prepare for the coming of your Son on Christmas, lead me to clearly discern your call to a life of deeper holiness. Amen.

MASS SCHEDULES
FOR CHRISTMAS
Third Sunday of Advent
Matthew 11:2-11

“What did you go out into the desert to see?”

After his arrest John the Baptist sent his disciples to ask Jesus, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?” John knew his time to lead them was coming to an end. Jesus simply tells them to report what they saw and heard. Jesus then proclaims the greatness of John, but assures those who acknowledge their sin and repent, who understand and have the faith to imitate what He said and did, will enter the Kingdom of God and be greater than John during his sojourn on earth. It is up to each of us who do our best to learn about Jesus, to be like Jesus, to love like Jesus, and to risk all like Jesus by loving God and our neighbor as ourselves. That is certainly something to desire. It is something to prepare for. It is something to strive for. We can do that by reading the nativity stories in Matthew and Luke before we hear them proclaimed during the Christmas Masses. Reflect on the meaning of God made Man, born in a cave, who is the Prince of Peace. Reflect on how we can be more like Jesus.

KC CORNER

CYLA AWARD TIME

The St. Genevieve Knights of Columbus announce that the application process for their Catholic Youth Leadership Award has begun. The Knights will award one senior girl and one senior boy $250.00 each. There are two other levels to the CYLA program with a $4000.00 award at the state level. The application is online and can be accessed at http://louisianakc.org/programs/cyla/. Directions and deadlines are also available on this website. Applications are due by January 24, 2020 and can be returned to the church office or to Zachary Miller at St. Genevieve School.
