DEACON FORMATION OFFICE
Inquiry for Deacon Formation Class VIII: The application and formation process for Deacon Class VIII will begin this fall. During this inquiry phase, those discerning a possible call to the diaconate begin a period of purposeful reflection on this calling.

To help them in this process, we will host "information days" in each of the six deaneries. The purpose of these inquiry sessions is to introduce men to the diaconate, explain our formation program, and answer any questions that they or their wives might have. The application forms will be distributed only to those who attend one of these sessions.

Once the written application is completed an interview with the Director of Deacon Formation will be arranged. If all is in order, an interview with the Admissions and Scrutinies Committee will then be scheduled.

Those who may be interested in the Diaconate are reminded that completing one year in our diocese's lay Ministry Formation Program is a prerequisite. For more information on the lay ministry program, please contact Mr. John Valenti in the Faith Formation Office (563-888-4244) or click here for more information: http://www.davenportdiocese.org/faithform/Lay%20Ministry%20MFP.htm.

The table below lists the dates, times, and locations for these Inquiry Sessions. Please call the office (563-888-4257) or e-mail the Director (agnoli@davenportdiocese.org) to reserve a place at one of these meetings.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

657. Jan. 4: Epiphany: The 3 Magi (kings or wise men) recognized power in the unlikely person of a baby. Indeed it is wisdom that helps us see the Godliness within the ordinary people in our lives. Our beloved may seem pretty ordinary today. Look for the Godliness within.

658. Jan. 11: I'm very neat. My wife is messy. I cured myself from my annoyance with her by imagining that she had died and then asking myself, "If you could bring her back to life but she'd still be messy, would you still want her back?" "Yes, for sure!" It cured me. Whenever I get annoyed with her mess, I rerun the script. (Sam Bradley) This could work with many annoyances.

659. Jan. 18: Spiritual Gifts include: wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, accomplishments, prophecy, good judgement, communication skills, understanding... (1 Cor 12:4-11) Which of these gifts is your beloved especially good at?

660. Jan. 25: Does a typical date night in your marriage start with, "What do you want to do tonight?" "I don't know. What do you want to do?" "I don't know..." Repeat. Try something besides a dinner and a movie. Google Making Love On A Budget for ideas.

PARENTING POINTERS

657. Jan. 1: New Year's Day: Consider making a "clean break" with the start of the new year. Ask if everyone in the family would be willing to clean one space - a drawer, a shelf, a toy box? Start with taking everything out. Then put back only those items you really want. Give away or throw away the rest. See my January 1 blog, The Beauty of Empty for ideas.

658. Jan. 8: "You are my beloved child; with you I am well pleased." (Luke 3:22) Such words are music to a child’s ears. Find an authentic way to say this to your own child today.

659. Jan. 15: "How, in this materialistic, competitive world, can I raise kind children?" ...Begin by being a kind adult. When your child sees you go the extra mile to help a friend, carry someone's groceries, or invite people in to your life who aren't exactly like you, your child will see loving kindness as the natural way to live." (Mimi Doe)

660. Jan. 22: The body is one, though it has many parts. (1 Cor 12:12) Each part of our body is important and connected. So too, is each member of the human family. Remember today the value of each life, born/unborn, neighbor/refugee, friend - even enemy. Let us march to protect all human lives.
