Come and pray that many more will follow the Lord’s call to preach the Word of God and celebrate the Sacraments. Without YOU, this might not be possible. A Holy Hour to pray for vocations will take place on (please insert day/date) at (please insert parish/church and town) starting at (please put time in here). In the words of Pope Benedict: “Do not be afraid to give your life to Christ! Nothing will ever replace the ministry of priests at the heart of the Church! Nothing will ever replace a Mass for the salvation of the world! Dear young and not so young who are listening to me, do not leave Christ's call unanswered.” Plan to attend with your children and friends.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

KITCHEN TABLE SPIRITUALITY
Friday, June 17 (7 p.m.) – Sunday, June 19 (10 a.m.)
Alice Ann Byrne, OP
Fee: $200.00

God is revealed in the ordinary. There is nothing more ordinary than the kitchen table. But it is rich in meanings: when guests are welcomed, people share with one another, and when food and conversations invite forgiveness and love.

Come to this Table weekend to reflect on the Table ways of Jesus. How can we, in our homes and churches, create tables of hospitality and renewal? What can we learn about our Gospel tradition and commitment to a Table of Love? Bring your Bible and journal.

Target Audience: Women of all ages. Limit 8.

Sr. Alice Ann Byrne, OP, is a Sinsinawa Dominican educator and parish minister. For twenty years she gave retreats and spiritual direction in Montana and Washington. She now delights in the wonder of the New Universe Story and the Oneness of all people and life.

WHERE TWO OR THREE ARE GATHERED:
Finding ways to live the call to community in today’s world
Wednesday, July 13, 9:30 a.m. – 2 p.m.
Dr. Corinne Winter
Fee $15.00—includes lunch

Created by God for relationship, we find ourselves drawn by our very nature to form community where we are. At one time extended families, small towns, and neighborhoods may have provided more obvious ways to share our lives, to make human connections. Today’s world seems to offer a much more fragmented model for human life, leading many to search for some form of community. Through presentations and personal and shared reflections, we will explore the concept of intentional community and a number of practical ideas for its implementation.

Target Audience: Any adult who views community as an essential aspect of a truly human life.

Dr. Corinne Winter, with a doctorate in Systematic Theology from the University of Notre Dame, has taught theology at St. Ambrose University since 1994, and has been a frequent instructor in the Davenport diocesan ministry formation program since 1997. She also teaches in the Master of Pastoral Theology program which serves, among others, the candidates for permanent diaconate of the Davenport Diocese.

Great Expectations
Coaching Parents to Form Their Own Children

If the parents aren’t involved, the child’s faith will always be lukewarm

The task of passing on the faith to children belongs undeniably to their parents. In fact, no matter how hard we try at the parish to substitute ourselves for them, if the parents aren’t involved, the child’s faith will always be lukewarm.

In this workshop, we’ll learn how to engage the parents by coaching them to form their own children. This process can be implemented in various ways, including Sacrament Prep, with your textbook series, or even for Confirmation Preparation.

Parents become engaged with parish life and faith
And their children receive formation that lasts a lifetime! You’ll add this method to your entire parish Faith Formation or Catholic School program, to make a difference in the lives of parents and their children.

Formation that lasts a lifetime

“Our parish sees adults and children learning their faith together in many ways. It makes for stronger families and a more energetic and vibrant parish. Coaching is a great way to improve what we are already doing.”

Msgr. Drake Shafer, pastor, St. Ann’s in Long Grove, Iowa

Leisa Anslinger will introduce us to the principles as well as the nuts and bolts of succeeding in coaching parents to form their own children. Participants will receive excellent free links to online support and follow-up.
Leisa Anslinger holds Masters Degrees from Purdue University and the Athenaeum of Ohio. She served as a parish leader of faith formation for many years and now serves as Director of Growing Up Catholic. In this capacity, Leisa continues her work of developing ways to re-engage Catholics with their faith and their parish. A frequent presenter at conferences and in-service days, Leisa speaks on topics of catechesis, pastoral leadership and stewardship.

She contributes regularly to ministerial publications and is the author of Here Comes Everybody! And co-author of Desires of the Heart and Forming Generous Hearts: Stewardship Planning for Lifelong Faith Formation.

Her most recent work with Growing Up Catholic: Sacramental Formation that Lasts a Lifetime is available from GrowingUpCatholic.com. It is a sacramental prep process in which we coach parents to form their own children, in the context of a parish event. (Y es disponible en español también).
