NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
On July 1, Dr. Lee Morrison joined the staff of the Diocese as the Superintendent of Schools. You may contact him at 563-324-1912, ext. 286 or morrison@davenportdiocese.org.

STEWARDSHIP OFFICE
Servant Leadership Institute: Begins mid-August. The Stewardship Commission of the Diocese of Davenport will launch a Servant Leadership Institute that will explore the leadership style of Jesus, St. Paul, the apostles and other people in the Bible, identify best practices for leadership in the church today and begin to apply the philosophy of servant leadership to the practice of pastoral ministry in the church.

This institute includes 8 sessions that will run over a period of 16 weeks. Most of the work will be done through individual reading and reflection, online communication with a coach, two face-to-face meetings with a coach and three diocesan gatherings (three hours each) at a site that is central to the people who register for the Institute.

The only cost of the Institute is the purchase of the book, Servant Leadership Models for your Parish, by Dan Ebener, which will be read in 8 sections during the course of the institute, and the cost of lunch at the three diocesan gatherings. The institute will run through mid-December, with a closing workshop in January 2011. To register for the institute and to purchase the book, contact Dan Ebener at ebener@davenportdiocese.org or 563-324-1912, 268.

PROTECTING GOD’S CHILDREN
Sessions are open to all adults in the Diocese of Davenport and are mandated for all employees and those volunteers who work on a regular basis with children. To schedule a session contact your deanery facilitator listed on the diocesan website, www.davenportdiocese.org (Offices, Protecting Children, Safe Environment, Protecting God’s Children) or Virginia Trujillo, trujillo@davenportdiocese.org or 563-324-1912, ext. 256.

VOCATIONS OFFICE
Holy Hours of Prayer for Vocations have started across the Diocese. You are invited and encouraged to come and pray for the gift of vocations. The schedule follows:

- August 11: Richmond: Holy Trinity Parish (7 PM)
- August 19: Blue Grass: St. Andrew (7 PM)
- August 26: Davenport: St. Paul the Apostle Parish (6:30 PM)
- September 8: Burlington: SS. John & Paul Parish ~ St. Paul Church (7 PM)
- September 28: Clinton: Prince of Peace Parish ~ Sacred Heart Chapel (10 AM)
- October 13: Davenport: St. Ambrose University ~ Christ the King Chapel (7 PM)
- October 20: Grand Mound: SS. Philip and James Parish (6 PM)

Please pray for the success of these Holy Hours. If a local parish is hosting a Holy Hour, please advertise it in your parish bulletin or newsletter using this announcement:

Are you concerned about the shortage of priests, deacons and religious vocations in our Church? What are YOU willing to do about it? A good start is for us to join together and pray! Join with other Catholics throughout the Diocese of Davenport in asking our Lord to bless us with an abundance of committed priests, deacons and religious. A Holy Hour to pray for vocations will take place on (please insert day/date) at (please insert Parish/Church and town) starting at (please put time in here). In the words of Pope John Paul: “Considering that the Eucharist is the greatest gift our Lord gives to his Church, we must ask for priests since the priesthood is a gift for the Church. We must pray insistently for this gift. We must ask for it on our knees.” Plan to attend with your children and friends.

Discernment Days: This coming fall, a day of reflection for those discerning a vocation to the priesthood, diaconate, or religious life will be held at the following parishes of our diocese:

- Saturday, September 18 St. Mary, Pella (9 a.m.-12 p.m.)
- Saturday, October 2 St. Alphonsus, Mt. Pleasant (9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.)
- Thursday, November 4 Our Lady of Victory, Davenport (6-9 p.m.)
- Sunday, November 21 St. Mary, Williamsburg (2-5 p.m.)

Each session will consist of a short presentation on vocations and discernment, prayer, and time for questions and answers. The presenters will also be available to meet individually with participants if so desired.

PASTORAL SERVICES
Social Action . . .

Iowa Institute for Social Action will be held on Saturday, October 9 at St. Mary-Holy Cross Church in Elkhart (north of Ankeny). This leadership training event will enable attendees to become better advocates on social justice and peace issues. The keynote speaker is Tina Rodousakis. She has been CRS’ Grassroots Advocacy Manager since 2002. She is responsible for engaging CRS’ U.S. constituents in advocacy efforts to promote CRS policy priorities. Previously, she worked as a consultant to various grassroots organizations advocating policy changes on issues like immigration. This is sponsored by the Iowa Catholic Conference, the Archdiocese of Dubuque, and the Dioceses of Davenport, Des Moines and Sioux City. Conference information will be available soon at http://www.iowasocialaction.org/.

Prison Ministry: If your parish is interested in learning how to promote this effort within your parish please contact Kent Ferris at ferris@davenportdiocese.org or 563-324-1912, ext. 269.

Pacem in Terris 2010 Award: On Sunday, October 31, at 2:00 p.m. Rev. John Dear will receive the 2010 Pacem in Terris Peace and Freedom award at Christ the King Chapel, St. Ambrose University, Davenport. For more information go to http://www.davenportdiocese.org/socialaction/sapaceminterris.htm.
Rev. John Dear Movie Showing Opportunity: We are looking for parishes and organizations to host a “movie showing” the week of October 18 prior to Rev. John Dear’s arrival to Davenport. If you are interested in hosting the movie, The Narrow Path please contact Kent Ferris, 563-324-1912, ext. 269 or ferris@davenportdiocese.org.

2010 Cover the Kids Day: The Department of Human Services has designated September 18 as Cover the Kids Day in Iowa. The state of Iowa offers two health care coverage programs to help families maintain coverage for their children – Healthy and Well Kids in Iowa (Hawk-i) and Medicaid. The DHS is encouraging you to participate in Cover the Kids Day, during the September 18 weekend services. Here’s how your parish can help:
1. Inform worshipers from the pulpit, church bulletins or both that Iowa offers two free or low-cost health and dental coverage programs for children;
2. Have several enrollment application packets on hand for members of the congregation to pick up; and
3. Encourage parents who might benefit to take home an application form and send it in.

Each parish will be receiving a short article to be use as bulletin inserts/announcements, and a packet of application forms that can be made available to parents. Your participation in Cover the Kids Day can make a significant difference in the lives of many Iowa families. For more information contact Bill Brewer, 515-244-4456 or bbrewer@zlrignition.com.

2011 Operation Rice Bowl Materials: The deadline for updating the diocesan list of those who receive Operation Rice Bowl Materials is August 13. If your parish or school is did not receive materials last year and would like to receive them for 2011 please contact Kathy McCoy at 563-355-6347 no later than August 13. You may also order materials without going through the Diocese by calling 800-222-0025 or online at http://www.crs.org/act/us-materials/itemlist.cfm?cat_id=1. Your order will ship in early January.

2010 Respect Life Materials: For those who ordered, parish packets will be mailed directly to the parish in August. Please e-mail Esmeralda Guerrero, guerrero@davenportdiocese.org, to confirm receipt or if your parish would like a packet. Only a small number of extras were ordered so it is first come first serve.

Also please note that USCCB will soon have a special website dedicated to the 2010-2011 Respect Life Program. You will be able to download and print materials that were once available on CD only: clip art, program models and resources.

SISTERS OF ST. FRANCIS, CLINTON
For details on the following contact Sisters of St. Francis at 563-242-761 or visit www.clintonfranciscans.com

“Celebrating the Canticle at The Canticle” – An evening with planetary poets
Thursday, August 5, 4:00 – 8:00 p.m.

The Canticle, the home of the Clinton Franciscans, is named for “The Canticle of Creation,” a mystical poem / song written by St. Francis of Assisi in the early 13th century. “Celebrating the Canticle” is an evening with Francis and contemporary poets such as Wendell Berry and Mary Oliver whose great works are dedicated to preservation of the planet. “‘The Canticle’ sings of the whole of creation as a cosmic incarnation,” says Sister Mary Smith, who will lead the discussion. “This genre of poetry offers us a vision of ‘reconciled space.’ We will explore the power of poetry to awaken us to a greater sense of our oneness with all creation and thereby transform our choices and patterns of daily life.”

Remembering Nagasaki - Reverencing the past and recognizing the urgency for a nuclear-free future
Monday, August 9, 7:00 p.m., The Canticle, Clinton

The Center for Active Nonviolence will screen the film, “Nuclear Tipping Point,” and continue the discussion of “Getting to Zero” – the need to eliminate nuclear weapons – based on the guidelines presented by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops. In 2005, the Clinton Franciscans took a corporate public stand against all use or production of nuclear weapons. The issue has been a priority of the Center’s advocacy work ever since.
BENET HOUSE RETREAT CENTER, ROCK ISLAND, IL
To register call 309-283-2108 or go online: retreats@smmsisters.org.

Retreat: Prayer of Mind, Body, and Spirit: The Holy Spirit calls all of us to prayer. This retreat will explore the different kinds of prayer: Devotional, Meditation, Centering Prayer and Contemplative Prayer. Experience which prayer, at this time in your life, brings you best into union with God. Presenter: Sr. Catherine Cleary, OSB.

Friday, Sept. 10, 7 p.m. – Saturday, Sept. 11, 7 p.m. Registration 6-7 p.m. Fee $85

The Word Among Us: Read, reflect, pray, and share with other committed Christians seeking to grow in reflecting on the challenges of Scripture for everyday life. Participants are given a guide and encouraged to read and reflect on a Scripture passage each day. Presenter: Sr. Charlotte Sonneville, OSB. Mondays-7-8:30 p.m., Aug. 30, Sept. 13 and 27. $5 per session + cost of books

A Book Club: We will focus on The Shack by Wm. Paul Young, a religious novel that made the NY Times Paperback Best Seller List for many weeks. We’ll also consider the basis of the author’s presentation of biblical mysteries: the will of God, the Trinity, human freedom, suffering and forgiveness. Facilitator: Sr. Helen Carey, OSB. Thursdays, Sept. 9, 16, 23, 30, 9:30-11 a.m. Fee: $5 per session or $25 for series of 6 sessions

Evening at the Monastery: Thurs., Sept. 23. Enjoy Vespers and dinner with the monastic community followed by reflection and sharing on Scripture and the monastic way of life. Presenter: Sr. Helen Carey, OSB. 4:45- 7:45 p.m., $15

Non-Violence in the 20th Century as Preparation for the 21st Century: Father Brian Miclot, who teaches the Ethics of Peace & Non-violence at St. Ambrose University, will provide an occasion for prayerful reflection on peace-making in the 21st century by illustrating some of the key persons of the 20th century who have paved an effective, lasting method of resolving the stickiest conflicts. Thurs. Sept. 30, 7-8:30 p.m. – Free will offering.

TWELVE-STEP SPIRITUALITY
Tuesday, August 10, 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Martin Pable, OFM Cap.
Fee: $15.00 — includes lunch

Over the years, thousands of alcoholics and other addicted persons have achieved health and sobriety through living out the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. Moreover, creative minds have seen the Twelve Steps as a program of spiritual growth for everyone, including non-addicted persons. This day will offer a model of spiritual conversion, healing, and growth based on the Twelve Steps and on Christian spirituality principles.

Target Audience: Anyone who wishes to grow spiritually

Fr. Martin Pable, OFM Cap, a Capuchin friar based in Milwaukee, holds a doctorate in Counseling Psychology and has been involved in teaching, retreat work, and spiritual direction for more than 40 years.

WEEKEND RETREAT FOR WOMEN
Friday, August 13 (7:00 p.m.) – Sunday, August 15 (10:00 a.m.)
Ramona Kaalberg, CHM
Fee: $100 (includes Saturday meals and Sunday breakfast)

An opportunity for women to come to a quiet setting to celebrate God’s presence reflected in the wonders of nature. A time to be attentive to God’s presence in the midst of ordinary daily experiences on life’s journey.

Target Audience: Women. Limit 8

Sr. Ramona Kaalberg, CHM, coordinator of formation for the Sisters of Humility of Mary, completed the Spiritual Direction Program at Creighton University in Omaha. She has given numerous “busy persons” retreats to college students and professionals.

ARE THERE GHETTOS IN OUR PARISHES?
Thursday, September 2, 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Caridad Inda, CHM, and Kathryn A. Bissell, CHM
Fee: $15.00 — includes lunch

A ghetto is caused by cultural sensitivity gone awry. It is created where immigrants in the parish live next to friends from their homeland, eat native foods, and socialize among themselves. Then the local parishioners grow agitated that their parish has been colonized by foreigners who fail to try to be part of local parish activities. We will examine what can be done to identify and offset the ghetto that is fueled by well-meaning leaders who believe immigrants should maintain their own culture while living in their new surroundings. We will propose ways to manage the evolution of multi-cultural parishes—on both sides of the divide.

Target Audience: All who are concerned about cultural sensitivity and diversity

Sr. Caridad Inda, CHM and Sr. Kathryn A. Bissell, CHM are founders and co-directors of The Center for International Resources Inc. (CIRIMEX) in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, which offers one-on-one total immersion Spanish language, cross-cultural and culture-based pastoral training for the U.S. clergy in Guadalajara.

Spirituality for Everyday
Announcing a Diocesan retreat
Offered in English and Spanish

Retreat will be held on Saturday September 18, 2010 at St Patrick Church in Iowa City. 8:30-3:00

Retreat information and registration forms follow in English and Spanish.
“Everyone is spiritual. Whether or not we are fully conscious of it, our spirits long to be untied with a greater good, a deeper meaning, a wider love than we may experience in our everyday lives. We long for intimacy, to be connected, to belong, to be part of something or someone bigger than ourselves. We long to experience the connection to all that is within our universe and with the Creator who fashioned us and that universe”

“Hemos sido creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios y de una manera consciente o inconsciente estamos siempre buscando la unión de nuestro espíritu con el Espíritu Creador. Hay una fuerza en nuestro interior que nos mueve constantemente a desear “algo más”. A veces pensamos que ese ‘algo’ es dinero, fama, mejor empleo, salud. Sin embargo, con el tiempo nos damos cuenta que ninguna de estas cosas, por buenas que sean, pueden calmar esa sed de “más”.’’

The Call to Lay Ecclesial Ministry

Within the faith community some are called to a very public ministry in the church. “Their functions of collaboration with the ordained require of lay ecclesial ministers a special level of professional competence and presence to the community. Their position often involve coordinating and directing others in the community. They are frequently employed on a full or part-time basis by parishes, or church institutions. For these reasons their roles often require academic preparation, certification, credentialing, and a formation that integrates personal, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral dimensions.”

Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord
United States Catholic Bishops
November, 2005

El Llamado al Ministro Laico

Dentro de la Fé comunitaria algunos son llamados a un ministerio de la Iglesia para el público “Sus funciones de colaboración con la ordenación require de Ministros Laicos Eclesiasticos en un nivel especial de competencia profesional y presencia para la comunidad. Su posición seguido se ve envuelta en dirigiendo, coordinando a otros en la comunidad. Ellos frecuentemente son empleados por medio tiempo o tiempo completo por las Iglesias y Parroquias. Por estas razones sus reglas requieren preparación académica, certificación, referencias, y una formación que entregue personalmente espiritualidad, intelectual y dimensiones pastorales.
