If you or your parish group would like to help locally with Humble Angel Honey please contact Esmeralda Guerrero, 563-888-4210.

FAITH FORMATION

August Gathering – Forming Family Faith – Parish Vision and Practice for Being a Family of Families:
Friday, August 28, 8:30 a.m. (check-in), program 9-3:00 p.m., St. Patrick, Iowa City. This workshop will provide strategies for reaching out to this new breed of parents, ways to support parents in deepening their own faith, strategies for engaging families through technology and much more. This workshop is part of the 2015 National Workshop Series from the Center for Ministry Development, and registration is through CMD. See the attached brochure for registration and more information.

In recognition that the cost for this workshop is a bit higher than what we are accustomed, we have decided to offer a $10 voucher for any future workshop offered by the Office of Faith Formation through June 30, 2016. This voucher will be transferable to anyone in your parish.
Diocesan Orientation Day for New DREs, CREs, and Coordinators/Leaders of Youth Ministry: Tuesday, September 15, 10 AM – 3 PM. All new parish staff in Faith Formation and Youth Ministry are invited to the Chancery for a day that will provide new staff an opportunity to meet others in similar roles in the diocese, discover a bit more about the responsibilities of their position in a larger Church context, become familiar with the various offices and services of the diocese that can support and resource their ministry, and meet many of the chancery staff. Bishop Amos will open the day with a welcome and lead the opening prayer. If you have a new staff member in any of these roles, please send their name and contact information to Barb Butterworth, butterworthb@davenportdiocese.org by August 10 so that a personal invitation can be sent directly to them. NOTE: The day is also open to “not-so-new” DREs/CREs/CYMs who would like to get a refresher, but reservations are needed. Call Barb, 563-888-4240 to reserve your spot.

Want strong Catholic families in your parish? The Office of Faith Formation is beginning a new multi-year initiative focused on helping parishes change their relationship with parents to support and form strong Catholic families. The Initiative kicks-off October 7-8 at St. Anthony’s parish in Knoxville. To find out more, visit the NEW Strong Catholic Families, Strong Catholic Youth Initiative webpage, http://www.davenportdiocese.org/faithform/SCF.htm or contact Don Boucher, boucher@davenportdiocese.org or 563-888-4243.

People experiencing great, tragic and unanticipated loss can be overwhelmed. So too, can members of a faith community figuring out how to respond with care and compassion. But there is hope knowing that sometimes other members of our greater community are prepared, qualified to provide focused support.

The Horizons Survivors' Program addresses the needs of families of homicide and vehicular homicide victims. The program serves 21 counties in Southeast Iowa. This independent program addresses the immediate and long-term needs of those impacted in felony death cases (whether or not charges are filed), such as murder suicides, unsolved, or acquitted cases.

The Survivors' Program employees are certified through the Iowa Organization for Victim Assistance and members of the Linn County Child Death Review Team, the Iowa Death Investigators Association (IHIA) and the International Homicide Investigators Association.

Please join us in person or via webinar for this presentation by members of the Horizons Survivors’ Program.

Pope Francis, July 26, 2014 Angelus

2015 NATIONAL WORKSHOP SERIES FROM THE CENTER FOR MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT

Today’s Catholic parents are unique and very different from preceding generations. Brought up in the post-Vatican II Church, they view faith, Church and spirituality in new ways. Yet studies show that parents are still the most crucial influence on the faith of their children. Our Church has made family faith formation a priority, as witnessed by the Synod on the Family which Pope Francis convened in the fall of 2014. The Center for Ministry Development is excited to announce our new workshop series for 2015: Engaging Today’s Parents—Forming Family Faith. This workshop will share effective ways in which parish communities are engaging parents and helping families grow in faith together.

CPR: A Great Way to Support, Motivate, and Revive the Faith of Parents

Parents, grandparents and guardians from across the country are invited to participate together either onsite or online this September to revive their faith and support their vocation as parents.

Two separate Catholic Parent Revivals are being hosted on the evenings of September 23 and 24 during the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia and will be open to all parents, grandparents and ministry leaders free of charge whether you are participating onsite or online (via a free Live Stream sponsored by OCP/SpiritandSong.com). Each CPR runs from 7 pm – 9:30 pm ET. (6 pm to 8:30 pm Central Time)

The Catholic Parent Revival has been created to allow time for parents to talk with one another in small groups and a Call to Prayer to conclude the evening. Steve and Jenni Angrisano, serving as emcees, will guide both onsite and virtual groups through this process as the event unfolds.

Spread the word using the CPR flyers and encourage groups of parents to gather together in homes and parishes to participate together. A facilitator’s guide for online groups will be available at the CPR website in September. http://www.strongcatholicfamilies.org/cpr/index.htm

The Catholic Parent Revival is part of the Strong Catholic Families Initiative presented in partnership with NFCYM, NACFLM, NCCL and NCEA.

Marriage Moments & Parenting Pointers

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

635. Aug. 3: "The whole Israelite community grumbled..." (Ex16:2) "Put away the old self of your former way of life..." (Ephesians 4: 22) It's easy to slip into the habit of grumbling to your spouse. Although occasional venting can be cathartic, this week focus on putting away your grumbling self and balance it with renewed gratefulness. It'll make both of you happier.

636. Aug. 10: Reinventing Date Night. "Novelty is more important than just doing the familiar." (Arthur Aron) Dinner, a movie, the usual aren't bad, but often a quirky, weird date can bring pleasure because it's different. Take turns surprising each other.

637. Aug. 17: "...Live not as foolish persons, but as wise." (Ephesians 5:15) Dare you share with your beloved a foolish thing you've done during your life? More importantly, share one way that you see your beloved as wise (other than marrying you).

638. Aug. 24: Since we're in baseball season, consider tip #1 from Becoming An All-Star Team in the Major League of Marriage by Jack & Jane Katenkamp: "They accept the idea of the sacrifice fly (making sacrifices for your mate)." Is there a sacrifice you can make today?"

639. Aug. 31: Baseball marriage tip #2 from Becoming An All-Star Team in the Major League of Marriage by Jack & Jane Katenkamp: Healthy couples "sometimes bunt vs swinging for the fences (sometimes it's the little things that count)." Do a little favor today.

PARENTING POINTERS

636. Aug. 7: "God doesn't ask us to be successful, only faithful." (Mother Teresa) Share with your child a time you had a success, a failure, and a time that it was hard to keep a commitment. I wonder what your child will share.

637. Aug. 14: Have a memory party. Pull out old photographs or songs from your youth. Enjoy. Maybe even organize those loose photos or digital files.

638. Aug. 21: "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." (Joshua 24:15) As children grow older they often balk at doing "religious" stuff with their family. Be creative about inviting your children into faith experiences. Ask what THEY think would be a meaningful way to "serve the Lord." It might seem crazy, but try it once.

639. Aug. 28: When life seems to go wrong for your child, reflect on the problems you've faced in your own life. Often it is the mistakes or failures that form us into the person we are. How have you grown from a mistake?

Prayer of Pope Francis for the Synod on the Family

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendor of true love, to you we turn with trust. Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic Churches. Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division: may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing. Holy Family of Nazareth, may the approaching Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God’s plan. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer.

La Oración del Santo Padre a la Sagrada Familia de Nazaret

“Jesús, María y José, en ustedes contemplamos el esplendor del amor verdadero, a ustedes nos dirigimos con confianza. Sagrada Familia de Nazaret, haz que también nuestras familias sean lugares de comunión y cenáculos de oración, auténticas escuelas del Evangelio y pequeñas Iglesias domésticas. Sagrada Familia de Nazaret, que nunca más en las familias se vivan experiencias de violencia, cerrazón y división: que todo el que haya sido herido o escandalizado conozca pronto el consuelo y la sanación. Sagrada Familia de Nazaret, que el próximo Sínodo de los Obispos pueda despertar en todos la conciencia del carácter sagrado e inviolable de la familia, su belleza en el proyecto de Dios. Jesús, María y José, escuchen y atiendan nuestra súplica. Amén.”

Pope Francis provided this prayer for the Synod of Bishops on the Family in his Angelus address on the Feast of the Holy Family (Dec. 29, 2013)
