Introduction

Welcome to Year 5 in the Diocese of Davenport’s Deacon Formation Program. According to the National Directory for the Formation, Life, and Ministry of Permanent Deacons in the United States, “The candidate path in diaconal formation is the occasion for continued discernment of a diaconal vocation and immediate preparation for ordination. Throughout this path in formation, the candidate himself assumes the primary responsibility for his discernment and development” (§204).

The goal of Candidacy is to further prepare the candidate—intellectually, spiritually, and pastorally—for the ministry of Deacon. In addition, Candidacy is also a period of ongoing discernment and evaluation. As the Directory states, “Readiness for ordination is assessed annually by both the candidate and formation personnel to ascertain what level of achievement the candidate has reached in his understanding of the diaconal vocation, its responsibilities, and its obligations; his growth in the spiritual life; his competency in required diaconal knowledge and skills; his practical experience in pastoral ministry; and his witness of human and affective maturity. If he is married, an appraisal of his wife’s readiness and consent is also to be made” (§205).

During this year, a great deal of time and energy will be spent on the academic study of theology. However, such study is not an end in itself but is considered to be an integral part of formation for ministry. Therefore, you will continue to explore diaconal spirituality, be challenged to grow in self-awareness, and take part in supervised pastoral experiences as part of Candidacy. Discernment and the testing of your call to the diaconate are intended to be ongoing. Discernment takes place in community: your family, your parish, the diocese and the wider Church are all part of the process. In addition, the community that we form together—with its own cycle of gathering and prayer—is an essential component of your listening to the voice of God. We are all here to support and assist one another in our journey; this is not a competition. Certain attitudes and approaches that may have served you well in academia or business have no place here.

Please know that as you begin this year of Candidacy that our prayers are with you. We look forward to this journey together as we listen to the voice of God, the promptings of the Spirit, in community.

The Formation Team

The Diocesan Bishop

As Chief Shepherd of this local Church, Bishop Amos oversees all our ministries and programs. He will make the final decisions regarding the admission of an aspirant to candidacy, continuation in candidacy, installation into the ministries of lector and acolyte, and ordination. As the Directory states:

In the formation of deacons, “the first sign and instrument of the Spirit of Christ is the proper Bishop. . . . He is the one ultimately responsible for the discernment and formation” of aspirants and candidates, as well as the pastoral care of deacons. He discharges this responsibility personally, as well as through “suitable associates” who assist him—the director of deacon formation and the director of deacon personnel (§266).

Of course, the Bishop cannot be everywhere at the same time, so he has appointed the following to help him in the ministry of forming men for the ministry of Deacon:
Director of Formation

The Director of Formation “is ultimately responsible for both aspirant and candidate formation… [he] oversees the implementation of the formation program…supervises the formation team, faculty, and mentors; and maintains contact with the aspirants’ and candidates’ pastors” (§271). The director for our diocese is Deacon Frank Agnoli, who is also the diocesan Director of Liturgy. He received the Master of Divinity and the Master of Arts in Theology degrees from the St. John’s University School of Theology and Seminary, and the Doctor of Ministry in Preaching Degree from the Aquinas Institute of Theology. He also has a Certificate in Homiletic Supervision from the St. Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology. He was ordained for the Diocese of Lexington, KY, and served there as a team member in both the Lay Ministry and Deacon Formation Programs.

Director of Field Education

Deacon David Montgomery has the task of directing the pastoral field placement portion of deacon formation. He works with deacons in the six deaneries to help arrange appropriate ministry opportunities for the candidates and assists the field supervisors in their work of helping to form and evaluate the aspirants (§275). Deacon Montgomery was ordained for this diocese in 2002 (Class V) and has completed graduate work in theology, including the MPTh from St. Ambrose. He also serves as the diocesan Chancellor and Director of Communication. He is the past Director of Deacon Personnel.

Coordinator for Mentors

Ordained in 1992 (Class IV), Deacon Bob McCoy directed the deacon formation program for Class V and has served as the Deacon Personnel Director. Therefore, he brings a wealth of wisdom and experience to the team. Given his knowledge of the diaconate in the diocese, he is charged with coordinating the mentor program. Deacon McCoy has also completed graduate work in theology, including the MPTh from St. Ambrose, and is a certified spiritual director.

Our Wives

Marianne Agnoli, Michelle Montgomery, and Pat McCoy are also integral members of the formation team and a great resource for the wives of candidates; please see them with your questions and concerns as they arise. Marianne is instrumental behind the scenes on our formation weekends, and also serves as the Diocese’s coordinator of Marriage and Family Life ministries.

Spiritual Director

The spiritual director is responsible for coordinating the spiritual formation program, arranging for spiritual directors for the candidates, and serving as chaplain to the formation community (§273). Our spiritual director is Fr. Thom Hennen, who also serves as the vocations director for the diocese. Fr. Hennen studied in Rome, earning his S.T.B. from the Pontifical Gregorian University and his S.T.L. in moral theology from the Alphonsian Academy of the Pontifical Lateran University.

Others

In addition to all those listed above, a number of other persons are also integral to the formation process: the faculty that will teach the Candidacy sessions, the mentors and spiritual directors, your pastors and pastoral field placement supervisors, and Deacon Terry Starns, Director of Deacon Personnel.
Methodology / Program Components

MONTHLY SESSIONS

During our monthly sessions, activities will focus on specific topics that are drawn from the prescribed model standards in the USCCB Directory for the Candidacy path. Various instructional methods and models may be used. The teaching points of the session may be accomplished through experiential activities, presentations, group activities, and practical exercise methods. Time for prayer, reflection, group bonding, and relaxation (breaks & meals) will be provided. These weekend sessions will include 12 hours of academic study of theology and another two hours of spiritual and pastoral formation.

Candidacy Formation Sessions will take place at the St. Vincent Center, the chancery of the Diocese of Davenport, located at: 780 W. Central Park Avenue, Davenport, IA 52804.

Schedule for the Year

We will meet once per month, July through May (except in August). The sessions will begin at 7:45 a.m. on Saturday and conclude at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday. The pre-ordination (canonical) retreat is scheduled in June and Ordination will be celebrated in July. Here is the calendar for 2016-17 (* = attendance by spouses required):

Participation of Wives in Candidacy Sessions

The wives of Candidates are encouraged to take part in all of our formation sessions, not only for the sake of their own individual formation as adult Christians but also to help foster the growth of the couple and their relationship during this time of discernment and preparation.

Of course, we understand that not everyone will be able to make it to every session. However, because of the nature of formation for ordained ministry, and because of the consent that we will ask the wives to give, we are requiring that the wives attend two sessions during the year as well as the year-end retreat. The sessions are marked with an asterisk (*) in the table above. Difficulties with fulfilling this requirement should be brought to the attention of the Director as soon as possible.

Wives enrolled in the MPTh Program, or taking the classes for certification through the Diocesan Ministry Formation Program, are required to attend all classes.

Children and Candidacy Sessions

Formation for ordained ministry affects not only the candidate and his wife, but their children as well. It is important that formation, and ministry, be placed in a familial context. Families are therefore invited to join us for meals and liturgy; childcare during the weekend is arranged among the families involved.

Weekend Sessions: Overnight Accommodations

Those who live outside of the Davenport area may choose to arrange for overnight accommodations. Candidates from the local area are asked to offer this hospitality to their classmates. In addition, deacons in the area will be asked to open their homes to candidates and their families. If you will need assistance in this matter, please let the Director of Formation know as soon as possible so arrangements can be made. In addition, if you are from the local area and wish to open your home to one (or more) of your classmates, please let the Director know as soon as possible.

¹ One of the two-hour time slots will be dedicated to formation each weekend. It is proposed that this usually be the 3pm to 5pm slot – in order to give the faculty and the students a break. However, the availability of the one presenting the formation session may require a change in schedule on occasion.
List of Texts

In addition to a Bible and the Catechism, some general texts will be used throughout the year (and all of formation); there are also texts that will be assigned for specific classes. It is the responsibility of each candidate to purchase his own materials—either directly from the publisher, from an on-line supplier (such as Amazon.com or Barnes & Noble), or from a local religious supply store. Part of preparing for ministry is learning how to access resources for your continuing formation and service.

REQUIRED (unless otherwise noted)

Liturgy & Spiritual Theology (MPTH 523)

Moral Theology II (MPTH 531)

Sacramental Theology II & Liturgy Practicum II (MPTH 529, 563B)

Ritual Books:

The Rites of the Catholic Church, Volume I – 1990. Note that many rites have been updated since this collection was published. Many of the rites that we will cover are included here; for some, you will need to purchase the updated ritual editions (these are the rites that you will likely use in pastoral ministry). ISBN-13: 978-0814660157 (make sure you get the 1990 third edition: ASIN: B00BSZTJ8K).

The Rite of Baptism for Children – 2012 bilingual version from Catholic Book Publishing. (a new English version will be coming out in a few years) ISBN-13: 978-0899421438

Pastoral Care of the Sick (PCS) – bilingual pocket (abridged) edition from Catholic Book Publishing; will be provided.

Canon Law for Ministry (MPTh 560)

New Testament Letters (MPTh 503) & Johannine Literature (MPTh 506)

RETREAT

In preparation for ordination, the candidates (and their wives) will take part in a required canonical retreat. The retreat is scheduled for June 16-21, 2017, and will be held at the American Martyrs Retreat House. The candidates are required to be present the entire five days; the wives will take part Friday-Sunday.

TESTING: Profiles of Ministry (PoM)

We will continue to work with the PoM, as described under Tab 6. Background checks will be repeated this year in anticipation of ordination.

PREACHING AND PRESIDING

The candidate assigned to lead the Liturgy of the Hours will also preach. The primary texts used for preaching will be the Mass readings of the day, as noted below. Approximately seven minutes in length, these reflections should follow a homiletic form of preaching and be addressed to the preacher’s parish community.

A transcript of the preaching (with bibliography) should be submitted on the day of the preaching event. The homily will be reviewed at the end of prayer, and both the Formation Team and class members will provide written feedback. Presiders and lectors are to vest in an alb for the Hours; lectors and acolytes for Mass.

As part of their preparation for preaching, preachers are to gather with a group of parishioners to form a “homily preparation group” (to include group lectio divina) in the spirit of Fulfilled in Your Hearing. The write-up (what you hand in after preaching) should include a report of that experience.

Finally, practicing chant will be part of presiding and reading at the Hours this year, as noted in the table.

PASTORAL SPANISH / MULTICULTURAL COMPETENCY

In order to best serve our increasingly diverse diocesan church, it is important for those who are preparing for diaconal ministry to develop basic skills in pastoral Spanish, including being able to preside at the sacraments and sacramentals in Spanish. Even if a candidate is already conversant in Spanish, the emphasis on the pastoral context in these courses will be beneficial.

For those who are interested, we will make a home-study course (on CD) available for their use. In addition, those who do the home study version will need to arrange time to practice speaking the language with someone
Deacon Formation Program: Candidacy III Handbook for Class VII

(e.g. local Spanish teacher, pastoral minister, etc.). Candidates are free to propose another method to the Director of Formation for approval. For example, one might choose to take a Spanish class at a local college.

All men enrolled in the Deacon Formation Program are required to spend one field education experience or immersion in the Hispanic (or another non-Anglo) community; depending on the experience, this may be used to fulfill the language requirement.

THE DIACONAL COMMUNITY

At this point, the candidates should be participating in activities with the wider diaconal community. Each candidate should plan on attending at least one gathering of the diaconal community (fall convocation or spring retreat) before ordination.

OTHER COMPONENTS

There are a number of other key components of candidate formation, each described more fully behind the appropriate tab:

1. Spiritual Direction – Tab 2
2. Mentoring – Tab 3
3. Pastoral Field Placement – Tab 4
4. Parish Liturgical Ministry – Tab 5

In addition, candidates and wives are strongly encouraged to attend and/or participate in all diocesan Liturgical events. Examples of these events include the Rite of Election, Chrism Mass, and ordinations.

The Dimensions of Formation

Formation is about preparing the whole person for diaconal ministry. Therefore, in attending to formation, we must focus on five particular dimensions, each with its own principal goal:

Human Dimension
To foster a high degree of self-knowledge and self-esteem while assessing the quality of the marriage relationship or commitment to celibacy.

Spiritual Dimension
To grow progressively in personal relationship with Christ while “putting on the mind of Christ.”

Intellectual Dimension
To communicate a deeper knowledge of the faith and Church tradition than the candidate has already attained while developing the ability to think critically.

Pastoral Dimension
To introduce the candidate to the practical ministerial life of the Church while providing mentors and pastoral placements that explore the core issues of charity and social justice in the Diocese of Davenport.

Diaconal Dimension
To discern the candidate’s gifts for the threefold ministry of the word, liturgy, and charity while the wife and family assess their readiness to give consent and support to the vocation and ministry.
Considerations in Formation

While we can provide the basic framework for formation, only you can fully engage the process. Our program presumes an adult model of learning: you are the one with primary responsibility for your formation. That being the case, particular consideration should be given to developing competencies in these areas:

A Family Life Perspective
A commitment to a family perspective is crucial for both married and unmarried candidates, for persons do not enter into formation alone. This perspective includes consideration of the family as the “domestic church,” and the important task of appropriately balancing ministerial responsibilities with family life. While the focus of the program is the formation of the candidate, it is also true that wife’s participation in formation offers her an opportunity to further discern her own call from God and grow in her own call to holiness. Just as for a married candidate, the role of family is critical to the unmarried candidate (never married, widowed, divorced) and the same inclusiveness is encouraged. Additionally, the unmarried candidate must discern a clear and realistic understanding and internalization of the value of celibate chastity and its connection to diaconal ministry.

Multicultural Diversity
The cultures and traditions of those in diaconal formation are to be respected, valued, and understood. Formation methods and objectives are formulated to be sensitive and responsive to various cultural circumstances. Candidate formation experiences pay heed to both the multicultural makeup of the formation community itself and also emphasize the ethnic and racial diversity of our Diocesan population.

Social Justice (The Practical Aspects of Charity)
The deacon, “as a living icon of Christ the Servant within the church,” has a special attentiveness to the concept of a “preferential option for the poor.” The methods used in the candidate path help the participant grow in an awareness of the Church’s teaching and tradition of social justice. Also fostered are opportunities that include deepening reflection upon the candidate’s experience and his growing commitment to the Church’s social teaching.

A Spirit of Ecumenism and Inter-religious Dialogue
In acknowledgement of the Second Vatican Council teaching that full visible communion among all Christians is the will of Christ, candidate path methods strive to integrate an ecumenical spirit into all aspects of formation with the goal of creating “an authentically ecumenical disposition.”

Standards and Expectations

The content and processes associated with the candidate path are based on the “Demonstrated Standards of Readiness” recommended by the Directory, which provides the minimum standards for successful completion of the candidate path.

It is expected that you will fully participate in the communal sessions (including group discussions and completing all assigned reading and writing assignments on time), in the field placement assignments, in spiritual direction, and in meetings with your mentor. It is also expected that the work that you do will be your own. Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and are grounds for immediate dismissal from the program.
Petition for Ordination

This binder is part of your petition for ordination. Please keep it neat and orderly; do not change the locations of the materials or the numbering of the tabs. Only what is requested should be kept in this binder. Please remove all staples and paper clips. Class notes, handouts, and related materials should be kept in a separate place. Please follow the directions included in this binder carefully and see the Director if you have any questions. The Diocese reserves the right to make any necessary changes to this manual or to the application process at any point during the year.

Recommendations and Decisions

At the end of year, candidates and their wives will be interviewed by the Director of Formation and Bishop, and by the Admissions and Scrutinies Committee. In addition, specific evaluations will be solicited from parish leadership, field experience supervisors, and the mentor couple.

In addition, each candidate will complete a brief evaluation form on each of his classmates. The Director will collate these evaluations and present a summary to each candidate. The individual evaluations are not seen by the candidates. See Tab 9D.

Interviews with the Bishop and the Director of Formation will take place at the chancery on the following Saturdays in March:

- April 22: Interviews at 8, 9, 10, and 11am - for 4 total slots
- April 29: Interviews at 8, 9, 10, 11am, and 1pm - for 5 total slots

Interviews with the Admissions and Scrutinies Committee will take place on the following Sundays: June 4 and June 11. Couples will schedule 45 minute (approx.) appointments, with starting times of 1:30, 2:15, 3:00, 3:45, and 4:30pm. The sessions will be held at St. Mary in Riverside.

The director, on behalf of the committee, prepares a declaration for the Bishop that “outlines the profile of the candidate’s personality and a judgment of suitability.” The Bishop selects those who will be called to the Order of Deacon. Please remember that continued “enrollment among the candidates for the Diaconate does not constitute any right necessarily to receive diaconal ordination.”
Letter from the Academic Faculty:

To: Students seeking the MPTh in connection with the Deacon Formation Program

From: St. Ambrose Theology faculty

Re: Studying theology in the context of vocation preparation

First of all, we want to welcome you to the MPTh program. Whether you are taking the courses for Graduate credit or for professional and vocational development, we hope that you will find the scholarly exploration of our faith tradition and its significance both exciting and challenging. As we begin our work together, we want to remind you of several principles that we consider vital. In putting these principles on paper, we hope not to burden you but to facilitate our relationships as colleagues in an academic enterprise.

Because Theology is an academic discipline, it should challenge us intellectually. Because it is a discipline grounded in faith, it should challenge us spiritually. Because in the Catholic tradition, theology is engaged in the community as a whole, we should be able to both support and challenge one another in order that we might learn together.

In that spirit, we remind you that we will expect all students in the program

- To come to each session fully prepared. That involves significant reading and writing assignments each month. It will not be unusual for assignments from one meeting to another to include reading a book-length work, and to write a paper that requires a substantial amount of time.

- To recognize that there are important challenges to current positions of the Church and that these challenges bear studying. The presentation of an idea does not mean that the faculty member presenting it agrees with it or that students are expected to agree with it.

- To be willing to learn to state ideas more precisely than you might be accustomed to doing and to make distinctions that are vital to the precision required by the discipline of theology even though they might not be necessary in every pastoral or spiritual exercise.

- To ask questions and to offer ideas freely and to respect the questions and comments presented by others. Some risk is essential to learning.

In return, we believe that you have a right to expect that we will

- Represent clearly the teaching of the church and make clear distinctions between official teaching and theological opinion. Those distinctions will include the levels of authority that accrue to different kinds of magisterial documents.

- Both challenge you to grow intellectually and support you in your efforts.

- Respect your questions and comments and answer your questions to the best of our ability. That might include returning to you with more information after some research of our own.

- Provide timely and constructive feedback on your coursework.

Thank you for your interest in serving the church. We look forward to our work together.
Process for Homily Preparation & Feedback Groups (Partners in Preaching, adapted)

All baptized Christians share in the priesthood of Christ. All are called to share in the proclamation of the Good News—to hear the Word, proclaim the Word, live the Word. Partners in Preaching is a faith-sharing opportunity for members of the congregation.

Input Sessions
A homily preparation group or a group of five to eight parishioners meets early in the process to discuss and inquire about the readings. The process for group lectio divina is followed. The preacher is not obliged to pursue the direction established in the discussion.

Follow-up Sessions
The preacher arranges to meet with the group prior to preaching the homily at Formation.

The purpose of this meeting is threefold: for the preacher to get feedback, for the hearer to articulate a response to the Word of God, and for the church to be strengthened by the faith-sharing of its members.

After someone has proclaimed the readings in a prayerful context, the candidate preaches his homily.

Afterwards, a member of the group (not the preacher) acts as the facilitator. The preacher listens to the feedback without comment. It would be better not to take notes but to listen (ask permission to record the session; otherwise, write up notes after the meeting).

The facilitator leads the group in discussing three questions:
- How did God’s Word and the preaching touch your life today? or, What did you experience in hearing God’s Word in today’s preaching?
- What difference will God’s Word and the preaching make in your week?
- Are the ways in which today’s preacher might have improved in communicating the message?

The facilitator keeps discussion to these questions, assuring that no one dominates the discussion. The facilitator stops the discussion after no more than thirty minutes.

The preacher includes the insights from the input session as well as the feedback from the follow-up session in the homily write-up presented to the Formation Director.

You may use the same group each time you preach or adjust the membership each time. A diverse membership is recommended.
Tab 1: Formation Sessions

Behind this tab you will find a listing of the formation sessions that we will be offering this year. Each session is described on its own page.

Behind each page, you will find a space to jot down any notes that you might find helpful in formulating your formation plan.

In addition, if you have any assignments due that day, they should also go behind that page.

Attendance Policy

Candidates are expected to attend all scheduled formation sessions unless excused by the Director of Formation. Candidates are responsible for the material covered in that session and for the work due or assigned that day; specific arrangements are to be made with the Director.

Unexcused or excessive (two or more) absences may be a cause for dismissal from the program.

The wives of candidates are expected to attend the required formation sessions. If a spouse is unable to attend the required sessions, the matter is to be discussed with the Director of Formation. Failure to do so, or evidence that the lack of attendance is due to lack of support for the candidate’s formation, may constitute grounds for dismissal.

If in the case of inclement weather (or for some other reason) a formation session must be cancelled, candidates will be notified by phone if at all possible. Work will either need to be made up independently or an alternate session will be scheduled.

Even if the formation session is not cancelled due to inclement weather, candidates should use good judgment in deciding whether or not to drive to Davenport.

Those working towards the MPTh degree through St. Ambrose are responsible for meeting all attendance requirements of that program.
1. Liturgy and Spiritual Theology

Date: July 9-10

Faculty: Fr. Joseph DeFrancisco, PhD

Description: This course focuses on two areas of Christian prayer. The first traces a history of the development of Christian prayer as it has evolved and been formed by Church tradition and practice. The second area centers on the theology of Christian prayer from the experience of discursive, through contemplative and culminating in the Christian mystical tradition. The practical application of this course is a challenge to situate a meaningful prayer-life into the larger experience of spiritual-sacramental growth as a Christian journey.

Needed Materials: You should always have your Candidacy Binder, Liturgy of the Hours, Bible, and Catechism with you. Bring a separate binder for class notes and handouts. Make sure you have what you need to take notes. Bring any assigned texts and homework.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:

Sign 9A (today).

Review liturgical assignments and sign up for liturgical ministries.

Make contact with your Mentor and Spiritual Director and schedule your first meeting of the year.

Begin planning your pastoral placement(s).

A Note on the Liturgy of the Hours and Mass:

It is expected that you are celebrating Morning and Evening Prayer each day. This pattern of prayer for the Church and the world is one of the responsibilities that comes with ordination. As part of your discernment, it is important to test whether or not you are able to commit to such a pattern.

Candidates will be responsible for leading (and preaching at) our praying of the Hours in common and in ministering at our weekend Mass together.

Even if the student does not preach from a manuscript, a manuscript (including bibliography) is to be handed in on the day of the preaching event. The staff and candidates will provide written feedback.

It is strongly recommended that each candidate purchase an Ordo specific for our diocese.
Formation Session

Date: July 9, 2016
Topic: The Eastern Catholic Tradition(s)
Presenter: Adam Kemner

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
2. Moral Theology II

Date: September 10-11, 2016

Faculty: Fr. Robert (Bud) Grant, PhD

Description: This course surveys Catholic thought on social and biomedical ethics. Catholic teaching on social justice principles and documents will be discussed, examining some key national and global issues. An overview of the Catholic tradition regarding medical ethics and health care will be presented along with basic principles. Official Catholic teaching and current theological discussion on topics including beginning of life and end of life issues, genetics, and the health care system in the U.S. will be examined. A pastoral approach to these issues will be emphasized.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:
Formation Session

Date: September 10, 2016
Topic: Marriage Preparation / Natural Family Planning
Presenter: Marianne Agnoli, MPH, MPTh

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
3. Sacramental Theology II

Date: October 8-9, 2016

Faculty: Deacon Frank Agnoli, MD, DMin and Dr. Corinne Winter, PhD

Description: This course examines the sacraments of healing and vocation: Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick, Orders, and Matrimony. Special attention is given to the ministry of the permanent deacon in the sacramental life of the church. The sacraments of vocation will be covered this weekend and the sacraments of healing in December.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:
Formation Session

Date: October 9, 2016 (Sunday afternoon)
Topic: FOCCUS Training
Presenter: Fr. Jeff Belger

Given the nature of this formation session, the Sunday afternoon session will need to be extended.

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
4. Moral Theology II

Date: November 12-13, 2016

Faculty: Fr. Robert (Bud) Grant, PhD

Description: See the September entry.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:
Formation Session

Date: November 12, 2016
Topic: Support for Troubled Marriages
Presenter: Linda Manternach, M.A.

6. Canon Law for Ministry

Date: January 14-15, 2017

Faculty: Fr. Paul Appel, JCL

Description: This course provides an introduction to the Code of Canon Law in preparation for ministry in the Church. Areas of consideration include the structure and history of canon law, general norms, sacramental law, diocesan and parish structures, marriage law, and the rights and obligations of the Christian faithful, with special emphasis on those related to the ministry of the permanent deacon. Discussion of diaconal faculties in the diocese.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:

Schedule interviews with Bishop and Director (if not already done).
Formation Session

Date: January 14, 2017
Topic: Marriage Preparation: The Prenuptial Investigation
Presenter: Tribunal Staff

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
7. Canon Law for Ministry

Date: February 11-12, 2017

Faculty: Fr. Paul Appel, JCL

Description: See the January entry.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:

Schedule interviews with Bishop and Director (if not already done).

Schedule interviews with Admissions and Scrutinies Committee.

Distribute evaluation forms to pastor, parish council president, mentor, spiritual director, etc.
Formation Session

Date: February 11, 2017
Topic: Annulment Procedures
Presenter: Tribunal Staff

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.

Date: March 11-12, 2017

Faculty: Dr. Micah Kiel, PhD

Description: This course is an introduction to the epistolary discourse in the New Testament, with (1) a focus on Paul, the communities to which he writes, and the theology and rhetoric of his letters; (2) the theology and context of the Deutero-Pauline letters and the Pastoral letters, and (3) an exploration of the “Catholic” Letters.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:

Interviews with Director.

Schedule interviews with Admissions and Scrutinies Committee (if not already done).

Evaluation forms are due March 15 (except mentor and spiritual director forms, which are due by April 15).
Formation Session

Date: March 11, 2017
Topic: Youth Ministry
Presenter: Don Boucher

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
9. Johannine Literature

Date: April 8-9, 2017

Faculty: Dr. Micah Kiel, PhD

Description: This course will offer an exploration of the unique voice offered by John in the New Testament canon. It will examine the specific theological argument made by this author, and analyze the place of Johannine Christianity within the diversity of Christianities in the first and second century, especially as traced into the Johannine Epistles.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:

Schedule interviews with Admissions and Scrutinies Committee (if not already done).

Evaluation forms are due; follow-up as necessary.

Prepare binder to be turned in next month.
Formation Session

Date: April 9, 2017 (1-3pm)
Topic: Islam and Interreligious Relations
Presenter: Imam Saad Baig

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
10. Liturgy Practicum II

Date: May 14-15, 2016

Faculty: Dc. Francis L. Agnoli, MD, DMin

Description: The liturgical practica are designed to acquaint the permanent deacon candidate with the basic skills and a level of comfort needed to perform liturgical ministry in different circumstances. This formation includes use of liturgical books, planning and executing liturgies, liturgical norms and guidelines for the diocese and use of vessels and vesture. Specific ritual actions addressed include: liturgical proclamation, assisting at Eucharist, baptism, R.C.I.A., marriage, wakes, and funeral services. Introductory material, Eucharist outside of Mass, and Funeral liturgies will be covered in Part I and the Deacon at Mass, Baptisms, and Weddings will be covered in Part II.

Tasks to be accomplished before next session:

Complete interviews with Admissions and Scrutinies Committee (if not already done).

Hand in binder today.

Summer Schedule:

Friday-Wednesday, June 16-21: Canonical Retreat

Saturday, July 8: Ordination
Formation Session

None. Time will be used for Liturgy Practicum II.

This space is for taking down any notes that you might find helpful later in formulating your formation plan (Tab 7). You may want to note down what particularly struck you about this session or of what area of possible growth the presentation made you aware.
Integration Paper (for MPTh students)

Date: Spring 2017

Faculty: Corinne Winter, PhD.

Course Description: The paper is intended to demonstrate the ability of the student to integrate ideas from courses in various theological disciplines with one another as well as with the student’s own ministry. The topic is selected in dialogue with a faculty member who will serve as director for the paper. The final copy of the Integration thesis must be completed and approved at least 2 weeks before the student’s graduation.

Course Outcome: The Student will write a reflective paper demonstrating through specific examples and/or applications the integration of course learning with the student’s spiritual and pastoral activity.

Details and Logistics

- For Spring 2017, Corinne Winter will be the main faculty advisor for the final paper. Students should collaborate with one other faculty member whose specialties are appropriate for the chosen topic.

- The topic of the paper is open, but should be crafted in consultation with the faculty members, first with the main instructor for the course, and subsequently with the second reader. If you want help with ideas early in the process, please do not hesitate to be in contact with a faculty member.

- Due dates for Spring 2017:
  - Proposal and initial outline (Feb. 1)
  - Full initial draft of Paper (March 22)
  - Presentation to MPTh class (weekend of April 8/9)
  - Final Draft of paper (May 1)
  - Commencement (May 13)

Required Elements

The integration thesis is a reflective and integrative paper in which the student uses a selected theme to tie together ideas from at least 4 courses in different areas of the curriculum (Scripture, Systematics, Liturgy/Spirituality, Moral, Historical, Pastoral Skills) and relates them to one another as well as the student’s area of pastoral ministry.

- Proposal and initial outline should include:
  - Short paragraph stating the theme and its significance for the student and his or her ministry
  - A list of 3 courses with specific statements about how the theme was addressed in that course and a list of materials or texts from the course that the student will use in developing the paper.
  - Initial contact with a second reader from among the theology department faculty (special permission is required to secure a second reader from outside this constituency).

- Final paper should be 10-15 pages in length (12 pt. font; double spaced).
  - Details about citation style TBA
Tab 2: Spiritual Direction

Spiritual Direction is an integral component of formation for ministry, lay and ordained. It is also a crucial practice once someone is in ministry. As the Directory notes:

Throughout his formation, the candidate is “to secure the assistance of a . . . [priest spiritual director], to cultivate regular patterns of prayer and sacramental participation, and . . . to reflect spiritually on [his] ministry.” It would also be useful for small groups of candidates to engage together in theological reflection “on the challenges and opportunities of their ministries” in relationship to the Gospel and magisterial teaching. Further, throughout the formation process, it is expedient that the candidate’s spiritual director and those responsible for his formation ascertain the candidate’s understanding, willingness, and capacity to accept the Church’s discipline regarding perpetual celibacy not merely among those who are not married but, also, among married men who will be required to embrace this ecclesiastical discipline in widowhood or divorce (even with a subsequent annulment) (§216).

The Director of Formation and/or the Spiritual Director will communicate any concerns regarding the candidate to the spiritual director, so the matters may be discussed as part of ongoing discernment. However, the conversation between the spiritual director and the candidate is confidential. Nothing will be reported from the spiritual director back to the formation team.

Any problems that may develop in the course of direction—should be taken to the program Spiritual Director (Fr. Hennen).

Candidates are asked to give the following form to their Spiritual Director for completion by April 15.
Spiritual Direction Statement

Name of Candidate: ________________________________

Name of Director: ________________________________

Dear Reverend Father:

Your assistance in helping to form men for diaconal ministry in our diocese is deeply appreciated. Without violating the confidentiality of spiritual direction, would you please complete this form and return it to the Director of Deacon Formation by April 15? Thank you very much.

By my signature, I attest that over the past year I have met with the above-named candidate on a regular basis and with sufficient frequency to meet his needs and spiritual growth. The Deacon Formation Program presumes that “sufficient frequency” would be about once per month.

Tab 3: Mentoring

In the Diocese of Davenport, Mentoring is a process by which the deacon mentor and spouse, observe, reflect, suggest, encourage and challenge the candidate and his wife in their discernment. The mentor couple actively listens to the events in the candidate’s and wife’s life, challenges their theological assumptions, encourages their prayer life and family life, and encourages their growth as a minister of justice and love in their family, workplace, and parish community. The mentor couple also provides an opportunity to discuss freely and frankly difficulties in ministry and the ups and downs of formation. As the Directory notes:

The community of Deacons can be a precious support in the discernment of a vocation, in human growth, in the initiation to the spiritual life, in theological study and pastoral experience. Scheduled opportunities for conversation and shared ministerial experiences between a candidate and deacon, as well as between the wife of a candidate and the wife of a deacon can mutually sustain their enthusiasm and realism about the deaconate. Some members from the community of deacons can be appointed by the bishop to serve as mentors to individual candidates or a small group of candidates (§210).

The process and guidelines above are described for married candidates. The same process and guidelines apply for unmarried candidates.

MENTORING GUIDELINES

1. Mentors will be paired with couples for Aspirancy, and remain paired during the entire formation process.
2. Mentors and candidate couples are to meet a minimum of three times a semester, though monthly meetings are encouraged.
3. Meetings are expected to be 1-2 hrs in length.
4. Sessions should be casual, but not just casual social conversation. There should be a focus on the candidate’s formation experience for discussion and reflection. The sessions are not to be for mutual commiseration.
5. The mentor couple is not to be a “counselor” or “spiritual director”. The role is that of a fellow traveler, and a provider of suggestions for making the formation journey a more meaningful experience.
6. Candidates are encouraged to “shadow” their mentor as he ministers in the parish, participates in the liturgical celebrations of the Church and as he prepares himself and others for these different liturgical celebrations.
7. Mentors will assist the Formation Team in assessing the readiness for continuing formation and ultimately ordination of the candidate by completing the Recommendation Form that follows. The form is due on April 15.

While the process and guidelines above are described for married candidates, it is important to note that the same process and guidelines apply for unmarried candidates as well.
Mentor Recommendation Form

Instructions:
Please give this to your mentor and ask him to fill it out and return it to the Director of Formation by April 15.

Tab 4: Pastoral Field Education

Field education provides deacon aspirants and candidates opportunities to experience and reflect on aspects of ministry within and outside of the parish setting under varying degrees of supervision in order to assist them in discerning their call to the diaconate and to develop skills in ministry.

At the beginning of the academic year each student confers with the director of field education and his local field supervisor in determining the experiences that would benefit him in his formation. In this process, the student prepares a learning agreement that guides the student through each assignment. During each field experience, the student will make regular entries into his journal to assist him in his theological reflection. At the conclusion of each assignment, the student will complete a self evaluation. He will also be evaluated by the local field supervisor. The evaluations will be forwarded to the director of field education and then to the director of formation for review.

Field Education Matrix

Students bring to formation a variety of ministry experiences. In the field education process, each student is encouraged to pursue assignments that will provide new experiences or experiences that will expand an area of ministry already explored. As he progresses through the process, he will experience assignments inside and outside of a parish with greater degrees of difficulty under progressively less direct supervision.
By the end of the formation program, he will have experienced a multicultural assignment, an ecumenical assignment, and will have started a new program of ministry that he will pass on to staff or volunteers whom he trains to continue. Students in aspirancy and candidacy are required to successfully complete two field assignments that total at least 50 hours each year. A mix of parish, community, and diocesan assignments should be experienced during formation.

In consultation with his deanery field supervisor and the director of field education, students may select field experiences from the list below or create other assignments. The availability of assignments varies between deaneries. Not all assignments will be available in all deaneries.

Field Experience Opportunities

A table of possible field experience opportunities follows at the end of this document. Please use this table to assist you with planning and keeping track of your field experiences. Check off the boxes that apply. It is intended that the table be cumulative; in other words, keep track of all your ministries (field placement, parish involvements, etc.) so you can see what areas need attention. NOTE: The specific field education experiences should be marked with an asterisk.

Supervisors

The following team of individuals provides supervision of the field experiences:

Local Field Supervisor

The local field supervisor provides on-site supervision by guiding and assisting the student in the integration of experiences and formation to the needs of the particular ministry being explored. The supervisor assists the student in developing and following the learning agreement for the field experience which documents the student’s goals and objectives and outlines his ministerial assignments. An evaluation is completed by the supervisor according to the learning agreement at the completion of the field experience and sent to the director of field education.

Deanery Field Supervisor

The deanery field supervisor is a deacon who assists the director of field education in identifying potential field experiences for their deanery. He is a resource to the students by assisting them, as needed, in selecting suitable experiences, creating learning agreements, providing guidance in connecting theological reflection with experiences, and (as applicable) evaluating students at the conclusion of their assignments.

Director of Field Education

The director of field education is a deacon or priest who administers and coordinates the program of field education for the aspirant and candidate paths of formation in consultation with the director of formation and others responsible for formation. He arranges for the pastoral field placement of each participant, orients and trains those who assist him in field placement, systematically introduces the aspirants and candidates into suitable pastoral experiences that provide practical skills for pastoral and diaconal ministry, and provides an assessment of the participant’s pastoral field education experience to the director of formation following an interview with the student at the conclusion of the assignment.
Steps in Completing a Field Education Experience

Step 1: Determining a Project

Complete the Field Education Opportunities Table. What are some areas that need attention? Consult the Director of Field Education and your Deanery Field Supervisor to come up with some possible ideas. Meet with your potential local supervisor to discuss the possibility of doing your placement with them.

Step 2: Learning Agreement

Once you have an idea of what it is that you want to do, and you have a basic outline of possible duties from your potential local supervisor, go ahead and write up your Learning Agreement. The learning agreement is found behind the table of possible field experiences. The agreement needs to be signed by both the local supervisor and the Director of Field Education.

Step 3: Journaling

Each student must purchase a 7” x 5” journal book. Books are available at department and office supply stores. Completed journal pages are to be copied and added to the student handbook. Please place these copied pages at the end of this section, behind the evaluations.

You should log your hours and make brief notations of what you did on a particular day. Keep track of your emotional reactions to events, insights that you have gained, connections to what you are learning in the classroom or to what you have read elsewhere, and what you have learned.

You should choose two events for each placement for deeper reflection. These reflections need to be more substantial and must include the following:

1. Background: State the pertinent details leading up to the situation being described.
2. Description: Give a brief statement of the incident.
3. Theological Reflection: Describe how the theological issues raised by this incident are connected to Church teaching and tradition.
4. Integration: Summarize what has been learned from this experience.

These four reflections should be typed and placed at the end of this section rather than being handwritten in the journals themselves (for ease of reading).

Step 4: Evaluations

At the end of each field experience, the student will meet with his local supervisor and complete an evaluation form. The student completes his portion of the form on his own and gives the local supervisor his or her portion to complete as well. The two then meet to discuss the results of the evaluation. Both sign the form and the completed form is placed in the binder. Please copy the forms as needed.

Note: please follow the above steps carefully. Make sure that you review your idea for a field experience with the Director of Field Education before you pursue it. It is especially important that a field education experience be approved by the Director of Field Education (the Learning Agreement countersigned) before the experience actually begins.
GUIDANCE REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY ISSUES

General Principles

The first principle is that the right of confidentiality in clerical privilege belongs to the client (person being served). This is the only protection in the law, and only the client may waive the privilege. The cleric can invoke the privilege if called upon to testify.

Two important factors need also be considered:
1. The privilege applies only to conversations within the professional context of the cleric’s ministry.
2. If a person comes to you and has someone with them that they expect to participate in the conversation, that conversation is not protected. If the third person is an employee of the cleric necessary to the communication the conversation remains protected (e.g., a translator or someone present to protect yourself).

Specific Applications

Prayers of Intercession and Related Matters

While the HIPPA laws do not specifically apply to parishes and church ministers, it is important to be aware that any personal information published in parish bulletins (and websites) or announced from the pulpit (or sent by e-mail) can be misused. Therefore, in order to protect our people, we recommend the following:

1. Do not presume consent for publishing personal information. For example, if you are going to publish a directory make sure that you have permission to list any and all information. If you are in the practice of publishing ministry schedules, make sure people know that that is part of volunteering… This issue is especially important when it comes to children… Be especially careful with publishing addresses and phone numbers.

2. If you are going to publish a “prayer list,” do NOT list the reasons for the prayer request—even in a generic way. Even to say that someone is “sick” can lead to problems; better to simply state that they have requested prayer.

What if someone requests that specifics be mentioned? If they are speaking for themselves, and understand the risks, then please use your best judgment. I would think that the safest course would be to have a set practice to not include specifics; that way, there is no differentiation between persons or an impression given that someone is getting “special” treatment.

The parish has control over what goes in the bulletin and what is prayed at the prayer of the faithful; inclusion can be monitored both for appropriateness of content as well as for consent (see below). We lose that control and oversight if we have a “book of intentions” that anyone can write in… or if we open up the intentions for anyone to speak. For that reason, among others, we would recommend staying away from such practices.

Likewise, listing someone as hospitalized could lead to them becoming a target for burglary; thieves can easily find their address and then access the empty house.

3. Consent is an important issue. Who can request inclusion on a prayer list? Certainly the person him- or herself is able to do so. The consensus of those we consulted is that immediate family can give permission, especially if the ill person is a member of the parish. It becomes fuzzy if someone is requesting prayers for a non-parishioner. It would be prudent to ask any person making a request for inclusion: Does the person you are asking us to pray for know that you are making this request? Did you get permission?
4. Death terminates any privacy rights, so listing the deceased should be OK. However, do not list addresses – it is like giving an invitation to thieves who know when the house will be empty for a funeral. A caveat here: while privacy rights are terminated after death, to our knowledge privilege communications are not (we will research this matter further).

Mandatory Reporting

Child Abuse
Clergy are not mandated reporters of child abuse under Iowa Law. However, clergy are mandated reporters in our neighboring states (IL, MN, MO, WI), and case law is ever-developing. More importantly, our own diocesan policy creates an expectation that clergy will report child abuse; in other words, reporting child abuse is mandatory for clergy of our diocese according to our own policies.

Dependant Adult Abuse
Here, as in regards to child abuse, clergy are not mandated reporters. However, the IA Code says that any “outreach worker” is a mandated reporter. There is no specific case law yet testing if a cleric visiting someone in a nursing home or in their homes would be treated as such. More importantly, as with child abuse, there is a moral responsibility incumbent on the cleric in these situations, although there is no specific treatment of this issue in diocesan policy.

Domestic Violence
At this point, we are not aware of a mandatory reporting requirement in terms of domestic violence. This will be researched and you will be updated later.

Someone who is a Danger to Self or Others.

In cases where someone has expressed a desire or plan to harm themselves or others, the minister is not required to keep such information confidential. The minister ought to arrange for whatever is necessary to ensure the safety of the individual and any potential victims, including the summoning of law enforcement.

Formation Programs

The formation of ministers requires that those in formation have the opportunity to reflect on their ministerial experiences with their supervisors.

At the same time, as both supervisors and students, we have a responsibility to protect the privacy and confidentiality of those we minister to and with.

In reporting ministerial encounters, it is important to distinguish between intra-agency and inter-agency sharing of information. In the typical Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program, individuals see patients/clients and then report to supervisors within the same agency. Such intra-agency sharing of information (for example, in the form of a verbatim) is permissible. However, Inter-agency sharing of that same information is not.

On the one hand, it can be argued that students in formation are acting as part of the diocese (not as part of individual parishes or agencies). As such, any reporting back in the context of formation would be intra-agency communication and protected. On the other hand, given the current climate in which the Church operates, and the strenuous argument put forth by the Diocese in claiming that parishes are entities separate from the Diocese, there is a risk involved that the courts will consider such reporting to be inter-agency communication.

That risk is lessened if, in the case a verbatim is used, the student obtains the consent of the one receiving pastoral care. (Oral consent is sufficient; written would afford more protection but not absolutely so.) That risk is also lessened if a different form of reporting the event is used, such as a narrative. In all cases, any identifying information must be removed.
Therefore, the following will be required for reports of ministerial encounters:

1. All identifying information must be removed from the account.
   a. Clearly, those specific items that identify someone such as name and address and specific place of work cannot be included.
   b. Facts not relevant to the discussion but that might help identify the person should not be included. For example, that the person is one of 10 children may have nothing to do with the conversation or it may be a critical factor. The type of work that the person does may or may not be relevant. The specific diagnosis may or may not be important, while the fact that the diagnosis carries a terminal prognosis certainly is. Age and gender usually are and ought to be included.
   c. In other words, limiting the number of facts means that the confidence is more secure, of course common sense needs to be used since limiting all facts would mean no verbatim.
   d. Special care should be used in caring for the reports. Accidental disclosure could be caused by a lost notebook or a draft of a report being placed in the recycling bin instead shredding it.
   e. Please keep in mind that in a small community very few facts are needed to identify someone, and you don't always know what information your potential audience may already have.

2. If a verbatim format is used, the consent of the patient/client must be obtained. Oral consent suffices. A note at the bottom of the report that such consent was obtained must be included with the report. Alternatively, written consent can be obtained – using a form separate from the verbatim and then kept in the student’s permanent file at the diaconate office.

3. All verbatim reports are to be destroyed once they are returned by the professor.

4. Specific consent for using a narrative account is not required (for example, in the case of theological reflection).

5. These materials are not to be transmitted electronically.

6. Even though such experiences are often the most fruitful in terms of learning, if the encounter with the patient/client is in any way contentious (or if it deals with particularly sensitive or controversial matters – for example, a past abortion) it should not be used for a verbatim in this context.

Sample Script:

At the beginning of the visit, make sure that as you introduce yourself you inform the patient/client that you are in the deacon formation program. At the end of the pastoral visit, you can say to the patient/client something like this: “Thank you for the opportunity to visit with you. Since I am learning to be a deacon, it would be very helpful for me to share what we talked about with my teacher and fellow students. I would not identify you or anyone else that we have talked about in any way. Anything I write would be destroyed at the end of class, so no record would be kept. Would that be OK?” You could then add at the bottom of the paper: “The patient/client gave his/her verbal consent to sharing this material in the context of the Deacon Formation Program of the Diocese of Davenport.”

Sample Written Consent

I, ________________, agree to allow the conversation that I have had with [NAME OF STUDENT] to be shared with others in the context of the Deacon Formation Program. I understand that any identifying information will be removed from the account and that, otherwise, this material will be kept confidential. I understand that the written report submitted by [STUDENT] will be destroyed at the conclusion of the class.

A Note on Electronic Communications

One must treat any document transmitted electronically as potentially public. Therefore particular caution is called for when sending requests for prayer or class assignments that reflect ministerial encounters via the internet.

Deacon Formation Program: Candidacy III Handbook for Class VII

DEACON FORMATION FIELD EDUCATION
SUPERVISED FIELD EXPERIENCE LEARNING AGREEMENT

Name _________________________________ Year _________ Semester _________

At the beginning of the academic year each student confers with the director of field education and his local field supervisor in determining the experiences that would benefit him in his formation. In developing the learning agreement students should assess themselves in a number of ways. They should take an honest look at their previous experience, their current skills and abilities, and their need for further development. Objectives are predictive behavioral statements. The students’ objectives should detail what they want to be able to do when they finish their field education experience. Objectives indicate what skills and behaviors students need to learn in order to achieve their goals. The learning agreement is to be turned in to the director of field education by the end of the academic semester.

Tab 5: Parish Ministry

Candidates and wives are expected to maintain and deepen their relationships with their parish pastors, staffs, deacons, and congregations. They are encouraged to be a growing presence in the parish and expand their lay ministry visibility in ways consistent with their family, job, and candidacy formation priorities.

During each year of formation, aspirants and candidates will be asked to focus on a particular liturgical ministry. This year, candidates are asked to volunteer to serve as instituted acolytes in their home communities. This ministry can be carried out in addition to whichever other ministries in which the candidate is already engaged (whether liturgical, catechetical, or in outreach). It is expected that when the candidate serves as acolyte he assists at the altar, assists with the distribution of communion (preferably the chalice), and assists with the purification of the vessels. Please note the following from the USCCB:

Instituted Acolytes

“The acolyte is instituted for service at the altar and to assist the Priest and Deacon. It is his place principally to prepare the altar and the sacred vessels and, if necessary, to distribute the Eucharist to the faithful as an extraordinary minister” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], no. 98). In the absence of a priest or deacon, he may also be delegated to expose the Blessed Sacrament for adoration and replace it in the tabernacle afterward, although he may neither bless the people with the Eucharist, nor incense the Eucharist (see Introduction to Order for the Solemn Exposition of the Holy Eucharist, no. 26). Acolytes may also instruct other members of the faithful (such as altar servers) to help assist the priest and deacon by carrying the processional cross, candles, Missal, etc. (see MQ, art. 6). On a deeper level, through their attentiveness and constant study of the matters of divine worship, acolytes are called to foster “a sincere love for Christ’s Mystical Body, God’s holy people, and especially for the weak and the sick” to whom they bring the Holy Eucharist when illness prevents the sick from coming to the church themselves (Institution of Acolytes, no. 4; see MQ, art. 6).

At Mass, the acolyte may carry the cross in procession; he then either places it on or near the altar as the proper altar cross, or otherwise puts it away in an appropriate place. Since the acolyte’s principal duty is to assist the priest and deacon in any way required, he should be seated in the sanctuary where he may easily approach them (see GIRM, nos. 188-189). After the Universal Prayer, it is for the acolyte to prepare the altar with the Missal, chalice, and other vessels; to assist the priest in receiving the gifts of bread and wine; and to hand the thurible to the priest if incense is used, and afterward to incense the priest and the assembled faithful (see GIRM, no. 190).

The instituted acolyte may be designated as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, should there not be enough priests and deacons to distribute the Eucharist. If Communion is given under both kinds, the acolyte may minister the Precious Blood in the absence of a deacon (see GIRM, no. 191).

Following the distribution of Holy Communion, he may assist the priest or deacon in purifying the sacred vessels. In the absence of a deacon, the acolyte may be designated to purify the vessels himself, though this is done at the credence table, not at the altar. At the end of Mass, the acolyte processes with the priest and other ministers in the same order and manner as at the entrance (see GIRM, nos. 192-193).

Vesture

When serving in the liturgy, not only acolytes but also instituted lectors wear the alb, the “sacred garment common to all ordained and instituted ministers of any rank” (GIRM, no. 336). An often-overlooked provision from the Introduction to the Lectionary for Mass even suggests a possible distinction in vesture between instituted and non-instituted readers: “During the celebration of Mass with a congregation, a second priest, a deacon, and an instituted [lector] must wear the distinctive vestment of their office when they go up to the ambo to read the word of God. Those who carry out the ministry of reader just for the occasion or even regularly may go to the ambo in ordinary attire, but this should be in keeping with the customs of the different regions” (no. 54).
If you have not yet done so, part of your ministry this year ought to be to bring Communion to those who cannot be at Mass (shut-ins, nursing home residents, and/or those in hospital).

Pastors/PLCs and parish council presidents will be asked for an annual evaluation, due on March 15.

Assignment:

1. Please list the parish ministries in which you are involved on the Ministry Table of Tab 4 (pp.51-54).

2. Briefly reflect on your experiences as an instituted acolyte. What did you learn about the ministry and its place in parish life? What did you learn about yourself? What does this ministry have to do with the diaconate? Answer these questions in writing and place the paper behind this page.

Place reflection paper here.

Profiles of Ministry (PoM)

1. Please place a copy of your PoM results behind this page.

2. Last year, you completed an Intentional Growth Form (IGF) as part of your work with the PoM. Please place a copy of your Form behind this page as well.

3. Please complete the following Intentional Growth Form for next year.
PROFILES OF MINISTRY: INTENTIONAL GROWTH FORM

A. Personal Characteristics
   1. Responsible and Caring
   2. Family Perspective
   3. Personal Faith

   Examine your scores in these three areas. First, list three strengths which your profile indicates you bring to ministry.

   3.

   Next, select an area for growth indicated by your profile. Be specific about how you plan to work on that area during the year. What resources are available to help you?

B. Special Concern
   1. Potentially Negative Characteristics

   Examine your scores in this area. Which score concerns you most? Be both concrete and realistic about what you intend to do in this area this year. What resources are available to you?

C. Perceptions of Ministry
   1. Ecclesial Ministry
   2. Conversionist Ministry
   3. Social Justice Ministry
   4. Community and Congregational Ministry

   Examine your scores in these four areas. List three strengths which your profile revealed.

Are there one or two characteristics you want to work on this year? Be specific. What resources are available to help you? What is it that you plan to do?

Ministry of the Word

For example: To prepare a proper exegesis and contemporary application of the biblical text(s); apply the biblical text(s) with the Tradition and teaching of the Church to issues confronting the community today; To preach on matters of faith and morals, Christ’s initiation, and our response, expressing himself clearly and easily in a manner appropriate to the occasion; to be sensitive to the varied cultural, ethnic, racial, and gender

6 to be recognized at the altar as the sacrament of Jesus, the Deacon-Servant, in the midst of the community, and as herald of the word, sanctifier in liturgy, and advocate for the poor as minister of charity and justice
| Dynamics of the text and the message; To utilize the skills for an effective homiletic or catechetical presentation through frequent social gospel preaching; to inform the community of their obligation to respond to the needs of the poor and to serve as Jesus did; to give personal witness; to speak the Gospel in his place of employment and in the marketplace with boldness, linking the sanctuary to the neighborhood, as well as the needs of the neighborhood to the sanctuary; to organize business leaders and neighbors around the Gospel, even on an ecumenical basis; To evangelize, drawing from the U.S. bishops’ statement Go and Make Disciples, as well as from the writings of Pope Paul VI and Pope John Paul II on evangelization.

| Ministry of Liturgy
For example: To lead and/or provide for Baptisms, communion services, burial services, weddings, nonsacramental reconciliation rites, devotions, and Sunday celebrations in the absence of a priest as a liturgical presider; To exercise the ministry of deacon in Eucharistic celebrations; to identify the table of Eucharist with the table of the poor, bringing their needs to the common prayers of intercession; To exercise his role in conformity with the Church’s liturgical directives; To collaborate with the pastor, other priests and deacons, worship committees, and liturgical ministers in planning and implementing the liturgy; to provide effective baptismal and marriage preparations in accordance with canonical norms and directives of the diocesan Church; to guide liturgical planning; to coordinate liturgical ministers or enable others to exercise that role.

| Ministry of Charity/Justice
For example: To serve in charitable care the needs of the poor, homeless, elderly, imprisoned, ill (including people with AIDS), and the marginalized of any kind; To create an environment of hospitality toward all people, especially the stranger and the marginalized; to join in coalition with other religious and secular groups for common political and community-based action; to integrate justice themes into his life and ministry; To provide educational programs that will assist the parish in understanding social justice as constitutive of the Gospel; to promote just parish.
structures; to situate study, reflection, and decision-making in the context of a responsibility to his world, especially to those in need; to participate in local debates and community action on behalf of those who are homeless, unemployed, suffering from AIDS, abused, etc.; To model and encourage simple living and environmental values; to preach justice by example and word; to demonstrate familiarity with the needs of the people in the community; to participate in charitable organizations; to be an advocate and servant of the poor; to promote justice and human development in local socio-economic situations; to minister to migrant and immigrant communities

Instructions for Formation Plan

First, write one paragraph summarizing how you met (or didn’t meet) your formation goals for the year you are completing. You will want to refer to the notes you took after each formation session, to your Intentional Growth Form (IGF), and to the essay you wrote as part of Tab 7 in last year’s handbook—as well as to any issues identified by the formation team or director for attention.

Next, address what your formation goals for the first year after ordination. You should refer to the notes you took after each formation session, to your conversations with your mentor, to your new IGF, and to your answers and comments above—as well as to any feedback that you have received from your pastor, field placement supervisors, or others. Be specific and concrete; set measurable and attainable goals.

You may find it helpful to take notes as the year progresses rather than waiting to the last minute to put this all together.

Please keep in mind that formal formation sessions will continue post-ordination. The schedule and content are to be determined by the Director of Deacon Personnel.
Tab 8: Safe Environment

As part of your VIRTUS training, you should have registered on the VIRTUS website. As a “volunteer,” you were not required to do the monthly continuing education modules. Now that you are in deacon formation, that has changed. You should be sent a reminder each month to do your continuing formation. However, some spam filters will not let the message through—so you ought to get in the habit of checking the website monthly for updates.

When you hand in this binder at the end of the year for review, please print out a record of your VIRTUS activity. You access your records as follows:

1. Log in to your account (left side of screen).
2. Click on the “My Training” Tab.
4. Click on the “Click here to see your complete report” link.
5. Print this page:
   a. Begin by clicking on the printer icon in the upper right-hand corner. This opens a “printer-friendly” version of the page.
   b. Go to the toolbar at the top of the page. Click “File” – which opens up a menu – and then click “Print.”

Place this form behind this page.

The Diocese has now moved to a web-based system of tracking compliance with these policies. Further information on the diocese’s Safe Environment Program is found on the diocesan website.

Background checks (abuse, criminal and financial) will be required again this year. You will be notified this year via VIRTUS when it is time to request the search. Include copies here.
Tab 9: Ordination

Introduction

After ordination, formation will continue under the auspices of the Director of the Diaconate.

Academics

It is the responsibility of those enrolled in the MPTh Program to ensure that they have completed all requirements for the degree. Questions may be directed to Dr. Corinne Winter at 563-333-6442.

Completing the Application

The petition for Ordination includes the following:

1. Completing the application request (following this page; section 9A)
2. Completion of the written work assigned in this Handbook and of all the requirements of the Program. All documentation regarding spiritual direction, the mentor program, and field placement—as well as all written assignments—must be in their proper place in the binder.
3. Interview with the Bishop and Director
4. Interview with the Admissions and Scrutinies Committee
5. Recommendation from Pastor (and PLC) – the form follows (9B)
6. Recommendation from the Parish Council President – the form follows (9C)
7. Summary of Peer Evaluations (9D)
8. Handwritten letters from the Candidate and spouse (if applicable), addressed to the Bishop:
   “The candidate submits a written request to be admitted to the Order of Deacons. This request must be composed by the candidate personally, written out in his own hand; it ‘may not be copied formulary, or worse, a photocopied text’ (CL, Enclosure II, 1).” In the letter, in addition to asking to receive the order, the candidate must attest that he is about to receive the sacred order freely and of his own accord and will devote himself permanently to the ecclesiastical ministry.

   “The candidate’s wife writes and signs a statement in which she declares her consent to the ordination petition of her husband and makes clear her own understanding of the meaning of diaconal ministry (CL, Enclosure II, 8).”

   In other words, in some form, the petitioner’s letter should include the following points:
   - He is asking to receive the Order of Deacon;
   - He is making the request freely and of his own accord;
   - He understands what diaconal ministry entails and accepts the responsibilities that accompany it (such as praying the Liturgy of the Hours and the requirement of celibacy should the appropriate set of circumstances arise), and that he is devoting himself permanently to it.

Please give the recommendation forms (9B and 9C) to the appropriate individuals and ask that they be returned directly to the Director of Deacon Formation by March 15.

In addition, all documentation regarding spiritual direction, the mentor program, and field placement—as well as all written assignments—must be in their proper place in the binder.
Ordination to the Diaconate

Prior to ordination, the Elect will be asked to make a public Profession of Faith and take the Oath of Fidelity.

If called to Holy Orders, the Elect will be ordained at Sacred Heart Cathedral in Davenport on Saturday, July 8, 2017, at 10:00 a.m. A reception will follow.

In preparation for the Ordination Mass, the candidates will be asked to assist in one of the following areas:

1. Invitations
2. Preparing the liturgy
3. Preparing the reception

A certificate indicating the ordination, the date and place of celebration, and the name of the presiding prelate will be prepared and signed by the chancellor, sealed, placed in the candidate’s file, and recorded in the diocesan book on ministries and ordinations.

Notification of the Ordination will be sent to the ordinand’s parish of baptism.

Diaconal assignments will be made public after ordination.
SECTION 9A: CERTIFICATION AND AUTHORIZATION FOR RELEASE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Please read the following statements and sign the form below before returning this application to the Office of the Permanent Diaconate:

I, the undersigned applicant for the Deacon Formation Program of the Diocese of Davenport, certify that the information provided in my application for ordination (including all materials that are part of this handbook) and the accompanying application materials are true and complete to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, and may be verified by the Diocese of Davenport.

I understand that my application materials include, but are not limited to, confidential information such as medical records (including HIV and Hepatitis B test results), mental health records (including psychological test results), educational records (including transcripts), criminal background information (including fingerprints), financial information, application form, and letters of reference, whether this information is provided by me or is received from another source.

I understand that information requested by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Davenport will be provided in confidence and will become the property of the Diocese of Davenport. This understanding applies to any information that I may supply or that third parties may supply to the Diocese of Davenport at my request and with my permission.

I understand that the decision for me to be accepted or not accepted for study in the formation program will be made at the discretion of the Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Davenport after consultation with the Director for Deacon Formation and others as the Bishop deems appropriate. Although the Diocese of Davenport may wish to report the reasoning behind any or all decisions regarding my acceptance or non-acceptance, there is no obligation on the part of the Diocese of Davenport to report to me the reasoning.

I understand that there are a limited number of positions available in the formation class, that I am expected to take part in all the required activities and complete the assigned work, and that my wife is required to attend specific sessions and encouraged to participate in the entire program.

I understand that I might not be selected for candidacy, for institution into the ministries of Acolyte and/or Lector, or for ordination to the Diaconate, and that the Bishop retains the right to remove me from formation at any time. Although the Diocese of Davenport may wish to report the reasoning behind any or all decisions regarding my continuation in or removal from the program, there is no obligation on the part of the Diocese of Davenport to report to me the reasoning. Likewise, I am free to withdraw at any time from the formation process.

I fully understand the canonical regulations regarding celibacy of deacons – i.e. if not married at the time of ordination I agree to the celibate lifestyle and if married and my wife predeceases me (or if we separate in any way), I understand that I may not marry again, unless dispensed from this prohibition.

I hereby authorize the Diocese of Davenport, its agents, employees, and anyone else acting on its behalf (including but not limited to the Bishop of Davenport, the Director of Deacon Formation, the Admissions and Scrutinies Committee, and their delegates) to have access to and use any and all of my application and application materials. I understand that the purpose of the application and application materials is to evaluate my fitness for the deacon formation program and the diaconate and to assist the Bishop in acting for the good of the Church. Application materials as the term is used in this Section 9A refers to the responses to any questions on this application, to any material I may supply in response to the application or which I may supply voluntarily as I make this application (either for initial admission or continuation in the program). It also applies to any material supplied by any third person (legal or individual) made at my request or made at the request of the Diocese of Davenport, or anyone acting on behalf of the Diocese of Davenport but with my permission. I understand that the term “application materials” will be construed liberally by the Diocese of Davenport and me to include rather than exclude materials should any question arise as to the definition of the term.

I hereby authorize the Diocese of Davenport to release copies of my application and application materials to any entity conducting a diaconal formation program designated by the Diocese of Davenport and to discuss my diaconal formation with the officials of such program. I also authorize the Diocese of Davenport to release my application and application materials to any diocese or religious congregation to which I may, in the future, apply for priesthood, the diaconate or consecrated religious life.

I further release and agree to hold harmless the Diocese of Davenport, its employees, volunteers, agents, and all those who receive my application or application materials hereunder from any and all liability which the Diocese of Davenport, its employees, volunteers, agents and any other person acting on behalf of the Diocese of Davenport may incur as a result of its or their use of such application and application materials.

I further testify that I make this application of my own free will.

I also agree to the [provisions of] (Section 9A) and that I consent to my husband’s application of my own free will. I further agree to and give my consent to the provisions of Section 13 of my husband’s application to the extent that those provisions may apply to information in the application which applies to me personally or to any application materials, as defined in Section 9A, to the extent that such materials may apply to me personally.

9D: Peer Review Form – Instructions

Please make enough copies of the Peer Review Form so you can complete one for each of your classmates.

We are not asking for an extensive evaluation; rather, give your impression of whether or not you think this individual would make a good deacon or not (#1) and then give a brief listing of what you think this person’s strengths (#2) are and where this person needs to grow (#3). These answers should be no more than 1-2 lines long.

The completed forms need to be returned to the Director by April 15.

The Director will collate the results and return them to each candidate. The original forms will not be seen by the candidates.

It is imperative that you are completely honest in your evaluations; constructive criticism is an important part of formation for any ministry. After all, each deacon reflects on all deacons.
9D: Peer Review Form

Instructions:
Please complete one for each member of the class. The results will be kept anonymous and shared with the candidate only as a composite of all responses.

Consent form for child care

If you are planning on having your children accompany you to formation sessions, please complete the form that follows this page. Please provide a separate form for each child.

Evaluation Form

This formation program is a new venture for us, so please complete the evaluation form and help us learn and grow as well! You may find it helpful to fill out your reactions as we go along rather than waiting for the end.

A note to those admitted conditionally to Candidacy III

If you were admitted conditionally to Candidacy III, you were to have developed an initial learning contract to address the areas of concern identified by the Admissions and Scrutinies Committee. Please place a copy of that initial plan after this page.

Finally, please describe what you have done to meet the conditions of the plan and how you have grown or changed as a result. Please place this paper behind the original plan.
PROFESSION OF FAITH

I, N., with firm faith believe and profess each and everything that is contained in the Symbol of faith, namely:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

With firm faith, I also believe everything contained in the word of God, whether written or handed down in Tradition, which the Church, either by a solemn judgment or by the ordinary and universal Magisterium, sets forth to be believed as divinely revealed.

I also firmly accept and hold each and everything definitively proposed by the Church regarding teaching on faith and morals.

Moreover, I adhere with religious submission of will and intellect to the teachings which either the Roman Pontiff or the College of Bishops enunciate when they exercise their authentic Magisterium, even if they do not intend to proclaim these teachings by a definitive act.

OATH OF FIDELITY

I, N., in assuming the office of Deacon, promise that in my words and in my actions I shall always preserve communion with the Catholic Church.

With great care and fidelity I shall carry out the duties incumbent on me toward the Church, both universal and particular, in which, according to the provisions of the law, I have been called to exercise my service.

In fulfilling the charge entrusted to me in the name of the Church, I shall hold fast to the deposit of faith in its entirety; I shall faithfully hand it on and explain it, and I shall avoid any teachings contrary to it.

I shall follow and foster the common discipline of the entire Church and I shall maintain the observance of all ecclesiastical laws, especially those contained in the Code of Canon Law.

With Christian obedience I shall follow what the Bishops, as authentic doctors and teachers of the faith, declare, or what they, as those who govern the Church, establish. I shall also faithfully assist the diocesan Bishops, so that the apostolic activity, exercised in the name and by mandate of the Church, may be carried out in communion with the Church.

So help me God, and God’s Holy Gospels on which I place my hand.
DIOCESE OF DAVENPORT PARENTAL PERMISSION AND MEDICAL RELEASE FORM

I, ____________________________, give permission for my son/daughter, ________________________, to participate in CHILD CARE / YOUTH MINISTRY ACTIVITIES as sponsored by the Diocese of Davenport, to be held DURING DEACON FORMATION SESSIONS at St. VINCENT CENTER (or at whatever site the deacon formation program is meeting or children are being cared for) in DAVENPORT (or city of alternative site).

In the event of sickness or accident, the adults supervising the Child Care / Youth Ministry program have my permission to secure medical care for my child.

I understand that, depending on planned activities, my child may be transported by an adult from the program to another site. I understand that I will be informed of such plans and may choose not to allow my child(ren) to participate in such outings. In such a case, I will be responsible for providing care for my child during that time.

I hereby release the Diocese of Davenport and all adult sponsors from any and all claims arising out of or from any accident or other occurrence, causing injury to any person or property, during this event.
