Liturgy News

The USCCB has made available a “pastoral resource” for the observation of Labor Day. See:

Resources for Troubled Times

“We stand against the evil of racism, white supremacy and neo-Nazism. We stand with our sisters and brothers united in the sacrifice of Jesus, by which love’s victory over every form of evil is assured. At Mass, let us offer a special prayer of gratitude for the brave souls who sought to protect us from the violent ideology displayed yesterday. Let us especially remember those who lost their lives. Let us join their witness and stand against every form of oppression.” (USCCB, 8/13/17)

The Roman Missal

There are a number of Masses for Various Needs and Occasions that may be suitable for use in the wake of racist incidents and the rise of white supremacy/nationalism in our country:

15. For promoting Harmony
16. For Reconciliation
21. For the Nation or State
29. For the Progress of Peoples
30. For the Preservation of Peace and Justice
31. In Time of War or Civil Disturbance
38. For the Forgiveness of Sins – making the connection to the sin of racism
42. For our Oppressors

GIA Music

In troubling times, music provides inspiration like nothing else. GIA is very proud to offer three downloadable hymns free of charge through November 1, 2017: https://giamusic.com/store/music-for-troubled-times.

The Church and Racism

SAINTS

These upcoming memorials offer particular opportunities to pray and work for racial justice:
   September 9 (Saturday): St. Peter Claver
   November 3 (Friday): St. Martin de Porres

INTERCESSIONS

For victims of bigotry and racism; for those in our communities who are afraid; for the conversion of those who hate. We pray.

For the courage to resist evil, and overcome hatred with love; for the defeat of death in all its forms; for the grace to live into God’s promised future with hope. We pray.

For hearts open enough to face our own biases and blind spots; for the healing of our prejudices; for forgiveness for the sin of racism. We pray.

More intercessions from the USCCB:

    Presider: Having professed our faith, we now confess the need of our nation, the need in our neighborhoods, the need in our own hearts for mercy, forgiveness and healing.

    1) We pray for our Church, that the Holy Spirit give us a fresh outpouring of His Gifts that we may stand up to protect our sisters and brothers threatened by the evil ideology of racism. We pray to the Lord...

    2) We pray for our Government and its leaders, that they may have the strength and determination to reject all forms of racism, division and violence. We pray to the Lord...

    3) We pray for all people of different races and of nationalities who know the pain of rejection, prejudice and discrimination. May they be delivered from hatred by our unrelenting embrace of solidarity and unity. We pray to the Lord...

    4) We pray for those who harbor hate in their hearts, in their attitudes and in their actions. May the light of Christ cast out their aggression and fear. We pray to the Lord...

    5) We pray that a spirit of nonviolence and calm may prevail in our cities and in our hearts. We pray to the Lord...

    6) We pray for our children. May they be healed of the violence and terrible words they have heard these days. May the Word of life replace words of fear and intimidation. We pray to the Lord...

    7) We pray for those injured in Charlottesville, may the healing hand of Christ renew their strength and deepen their peace. We pray to the Lord...

Liturgy Preparation

Liturgy Calendar

Wednesday, November 1: All Saints

November 1 is a Holy Day of Obligation. Only the Mass of the Day is permitted. Ritual Masses and Funeral Masses may not be celebrated.

Sunday, November 26 (Christ the King): Day of Prayer for Persecuted Christians

The USCCB has asked us to observe a Week of Awareness (11/26-12/2) and Day of Prayer for Christians around the world who are being persecuted. Materials will be forthcoming from the USCCB and its partners (CRS, CNEWA, Knights of Columbus, Aid to the Church in Need).

Advent

1. With the new liturgical year, we begin the use of Cycle B in the Sunday Lectionary and Year II in the Weekday Lectionary. For more information, especially in regards to the Missal and Advent, please see our webpage on the liturgical seasons (http://www.davenportdiocese.org/liturgical-seasons) or go directly to http://www.davenportdiocese.org/documents/2016/6/FDLC7-Navigating_RM01_Advent.pdf.

2. The color of Advent is a bluer shade of violet, to distinguish it from the purple of penitence in Lent. Blue is not an allowed color in the U.S. Rose is an optional color for the vesture on the Third Sunday of Advent, signaling that the full joy of Christmas is drawing near. The vestments worn should not have a cross, nails, etc. on them – they should not be Lenten.

3. The Advent wreath is blessed only at the first mass, after the intercessions. See the Book of Blessings, #1509ff, chapter 47. On the other Sundays of Advent, it is lit before Mass begins and no additional prayers are said. The traditional wreath is a circle of evergreen branches that bears four candles. The dominant tradition calls for three violet and one rose candle, but four violet or four white candles may also be used. Some communities add a fifth candle, white, for Christmas. The wreath should be large enough for all to see, but not obstruct the view of the altar, ambo or chair.
4. A good Penitential Act to use would be the third form, #1 (Appendix VI of the Missal).

5. Don’t anticipate Christmas with music and environment. Rather, make use of a full spectrum of Advent music.

6. Don’t make believe Jesus never came – focus on the second coming. Even though we aren’t using this as a memorial acclamation at Mass anymore, it is still true: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

7. Giving trees should not be in the sanctuary. Remember you can transform them for Christmas. They are better placed in the entryway or some location other than the sanctuary, lest the simplicity of Advent decor be compromised. Likewise, while Jesse trees are good for religious education they should not be in the church.

8. The Gloria is omitted (though there are exceptions when it comes to certain ritual Masses).

9. This season should reflect quiet and a subdued peace, as well as a sense of anticipation.

10. Remember that Advent and Christmas are the perfect times to remember Mary, our ultimate model for discipleship. The following Marian feasts and solemnities are observed during Advent:
    a. The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception (Friday, Dec. 8) is a Holy Day of obligation.
    b. The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe is observed on Tuesday, December 12. It may not be anticipated on the previous evening.

The Advent Lectionary and Judaism

The lectionary readings from the prophets are selected to bring out the ancient Christian theme that Jesus is the "fulfillment" of the biblical message of hope and promise, the inauguration of the "days to come" described, for example, by the daily Advent Masses, and on Sundays by Isaiah in cycle A and Jeremiah in cycle C for the First Sunday of Advent. This truth needs to be framed very carefully. (11) Christians proclaim that the Messiah has indeed come and that God's Reign is "at hand." With the Jewish people, we await the complete realization of the messianic age. In underlining the eschatological dimension of Christianity, we shall reach a greater awareness that the people of God of the Old and the New Testament are tending toward a like end in the future: the coming or return of the Messiah—even if they start from two different points of view (1985 Notes, nos. 18-19). (12) Other difficulties may be less theologically momentous but can still be troublesome. For example, the reading from Baruch in cycle C or from Isaiah in cycle A for the Second Sunday of Advent can leave the impression that pre-Jesus Israel was wholly guilt-ridden and in mourning (*see next page), and Judaism virtually moribund. In fact, in their original historical settings, such passages reveal Judaism's remarkable capacity for self-criticism.... (13)

*So perhaps we may also need to rethink the use of “O Come, O Come Emmanuel” as one of our Advent Hymns – especially the first verse. Some authors concerned with Jewish-Christian relations have suggested alternative verses:

_Come, O come, Immanuel_
And bless the place your people dwell,
Protect and keep us day and night.
And bring the blessing of your Light

_Come, Tree of Life from tender shoot,*
_Come from the past, from Jesse’s root,*
_Break through the stone in every heart,*
Bring hope and joy, new life impart.

_Come, blest Dayspring, come and cheer*
Our spirits by your advent here;
Bless ev’ry people, ev’ry race,
Embrace us, young and old, within your grace.

From: _Has God Only One Blessing?_ By Mary C. Boys (Paulist, 2000). The lyricist is Professor Barbara Lundblad, who has produced other alternative verses as well, including a set keyed to the Advent Cycle A readings from Isaiah in the Revised Common Lectionary; see http://easternsynod.org/ministries/worship/2013/11/27/o-come-o-come-immanuel-yr-a-verses/.
