OFFICE OF THE VICAR GENERAL, FR. TONY HEROLD
The 2017 annual meeting of the Parish Corporate Boards will be held on Sunday, October 8 at 2 p.m. and Thursday, October 12 at 7 p.m. at sites in each deanery. Pastors and lay directors are required to attend one of the dates in order to have a quorum. More details will be coming by email soon.

SOCIAL ACTION OFFICE
Mottet Leadership Institute: Father Marvin Mottet believed that action on behalf of social justice is a necessary part of a moral life. Charity and justice are the two steps in his “two feet” approach. Too many people walk on one foot, but it takes both feet to walk in the footsteps of justice. Stepping for justice is something that requires training. That is the goal of the Mottet Leadership Institute. See the attached fliers, English and Spanish, for complete details. Information in Spanish can be found at http://www.davenportdiocese.org/social-action

The Diocesan Immigration Program is a non-profit program that provides immigration counseling to help reunite families split by immigration, and assists immigrants in adjusting their status and advocates on their behalf. The Immigration Program focuses on family reunification cases. Our diocesan immigration counselors are certified by the Department of Justice. They work in close conjunction with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Please see the attached updated brochure for more information and feel free to distribute to those who might be interested.

CLINIC - Emergency Planning for Immigrant Families: CLINIC has released a new web-based resource to help guide immigrant parents and their representatives as they put legal protections in place for families in case parents are detained or deported. To learn about those resource that might be helpful to your community go here.

St. Vincent’s Home Corporation Grant Deadline September 15: For consideration at the November board meeting applications must be postmarked by September 15. Applicants are to be located within the 22 counties of the Diocese of Davenport or serve children within the Diocese of Davenport. Also, if your organization received a grant in the past you must submit a progress report along with your application. The grant criteria, application and progress report can be found here.

October is Respect Life Month: Please remember to use and display your Respect Life month packet materials at your parish and in your bulletin. This year’s theme is Be Not Afraid. Shipping has begun therefore materials should start arriving by early September. If your parish missed the notice to order materials, please contact Esmeralda Guerrero. USCCB is working on updating its website materials and they will soon be available at http://www.usccb.org/about/pro-life-activities/respect-life-program/index.cfm. USCCB Respect Life designs may not be altered in any way other than size. (Alterations include, but are not limited to, cropping, changing the shape, changing color, adding a special effect, etc.)

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection: Help Catholics “take poverty off the map” by encouraging them to begin planning now for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development collection! This year’s collection will be held November 18 – 19. Please click here to learn more about the collection.

Promotional materials will be mailed to your parish in October, including posters, envelopes and bulletin inserts adapted to our diocese. If your parish materials don’t arrive by mid-October, you need more materials, have any questions, or would like a speaker at your Mass on or before collection day please contact Loxi Hopkins, hopkins@davenportdiocese.org or 563-488-4212. Please use the insert for your parish bulletin the weekend of November 11-12 and display the poster.

FAITH FORMATION OFFICE
Want your middle school youth to know and understand the Mass more deeply? Then be sure you and they Come to the Feast! Junior High Rally 2017.5 (there already was a Rally 2017 last March) will explore the awesomeness and the power of the Table in our lives. The day will begin with Mass celebrated by Bishop Zinkula, and the three breakout sessions will delve into the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and Mission. Bishop Zinkula will be interviewed by members of the DYMC, take questions from participants, and talk to participants about their important role in the Church. Mathias Michael will share his music and his witness in a keynote session. Participants will also discover a little bit more about some of our Saints as they move through the day in their Saints Squad. All participants are asked to bring 1-2 food items to be donated to Iowa City area food pantries/food banks to share the Feast with those in need. Junior High Rally is open to all 6th-8th graders and their adult leaders, and takes place on Sunday, October 15, 2017, at Regina Educational Center in Iowa City. Publicity materials, participant forms, and registration materials are now available on the Junior High Rally webpage. For more information, contact the Office of Faith Formation at 563-888-4240.

The FORUM for Catholic Youth Leaders: Watch your inbox during September for more information on this exciting congress-style event that will help shape the future of adolescent faith formation in our diocese. The event will take place February 16-18, 2018, at St. Ann parish in Long Grove. Each parish and high school are invited to send a delegation consisting of 2-4 high school youth, 1 parent, and 1 adult leader in youth ministry/religious education to attend this event. Mike Patin, a well-known and highly respected speaker and “faith horticulturalist,” will serve as the event’s chief motivator and keynote speaker. More details coming soon.

Preparing GenZ for Confirmation: As we move forward in our re-visioning adolescent faith formation process, Confirmation looms large in the scope of our ministry. On November 7 at St. Patrick’s in Iowa City, join Tom East from the Center for Ministry Development for an exploration of Generation Z and how to effectively shape our preparation for Confirmation for this generation of youth. All those involved in adolescent faith formation (DREs/CREs, CYMs, youth ministry volunteers, catechists, parents, etc.) are invited. All details and instructions on how to register can be found on the workshop webpage here (https://www.davenportdiocese.org/genz).
Living as Missionary Disciples - Catechetical Sunday is September 17. This is the US Bishops’ annual celebration of Catechetical Sunday. It is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate those individuals who will serve as catechists in the parish for the next year. Resources to aid in the celebration, including a Commissioning Service, Prayer Cards and Certificates are available here.

Understanding How Kids Learn: Multiple Intelligences and Faith Formation: September 23, 9:30 a.m. -12:30 p.m., St. Patrick Parish Hall, Ottumwa. Each child learns differently, yet we often teach only one way. Come explore different ways of teaching and learning to be more effective in sharing the faith with our students. Based on the research of Howard Gardner, the session will discuss the theory of Multiple Intelligences, as well as provide time to practice and examine different activities that help everyone be engaged in faith formation. For a flyer and to register by September 21 click here. For more information, contact Rosina Hendrickson, 563-888-4244.

Engaging the Family in Faith Workshop: September 30, 9 a.m. – 1 p.m., St. Anthony, Davenport. Combined with an in-service on the Pflaum Gospel Weekly Faith Formation materials, catechist and educator Sue Grenough will offer insights on how to engage the family in faith and bring faith into the home. For more information or to register, contact Rosina Hendrickson, 563-888-4244.

Reimagining Faith Formation with Children and Youth: Join Faith Formation leaders from across the country to explore, imagine and apply information about Faith Formation with Children and Youth in a three-day symposium dedicated to this topic. Held October 26-28 at the Park Plaza Hotel in Bloomington, MN, the Symposium will bring together leaders to explore new ways of handing on the faith to our children and youth. For more information, contact Rosina Hendrickson, 563-888-4244 or go here.

Vibrant Faith University: It’s time to rethink and revision our Faith Formation/Youth Ministry efforts. The Certificate in Lifelong Faith Formation from Vibrant Faith University is an opportunity to engage with your colleagues to examine, explore and put into practice new ways of approaching faith formation, so that it reaches our 21st Century families. Beginning in January 2018, the Diocese will support a cohort for this formation opportunity. Delivered online, this formation is designed for the experienced DRE/Youth Minister who wants to engage with others in re-visioning formation and strengthen/adapt their programming. For more information, contact Rosina Hendrickson, 563-888-4244 or go here.

Certificate in Ministry Studies: All DREs, youth ministers, catechists and youth ministry team members are invited to join the Office of Faith Formation in a formation process to discover more deeply the practices and foundations of ministry. Sponsored by the Center for Ministry Development, the Certificate in Ministry Studies offers 8 courses to deepen our understanding of ministry. Courses will begin in January 2018. For more information contact Rosina Hendrickson, 563-888-4244.

ADULT FORMATION COURSES
Courses are held at the Chancery in Davenport from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. For information regarding the courses contact Rosina Hendrickson, 563-888-4244.

Diocesan Marriage Preparation Policies and Procedures: The new diocesan marriage preparation policies were promulgated on December 30, 2016 and apply to all couples beginning marriage preparation in the diocese after December 31, 2016. This policy is available on the diocesan website here. Note that the diocesan Prenuptial Investigation form has been revised to reflect the new marriage preparation requirements. Access a fillable PDF form in English here and the Spanish fillable form here.

Marriage Preparation: In the hope of helping to build a solid foundation for an enriching life-long marriage, engaged couples beginning preparation for the Sacrament of Matrimony in the Diocese of Davenport after December 31, 2016 will participate in the following preparation activities:

1. Initial personal interview with the priest, deacon or pastoral minister
2. Completion of an approved Premarital Inventory: FOCCUS, REFOCCUS or PREPARE/ENRICH
3. Follow-up meetings as determined by the minister.
4. Participation in a Marriage Preparation Instructional Program:
   - Sponsor Couple (preferred option)
   - Approved Diocesan Marriage Preparation Day/Weekend - see dates below
   - Approved Online option (only under special circumstance – requires parish approval)
5. Participation in an approved Introductory Natural Family Planning Instruction-see options below
6. Completion of the pre-nuptial investigation form.
7. Post-wedding couple contact plan.

Marriage Preparation Instructional Programs: The Diocese of Davenport offers several marriage preparation program formats: Sponsor Couple (through your parish), One-day, Weekend (two-day), and Online (under special circumstances-with parish approval).

   Sponsor Couple: It is preferred that those preparing for marriage meet with a trained parish Sponsor Couple. Contact Marianne Agnoli to schedule a training in your parish to serve in this important ministry with couples preparing for marriage.

   Online: Go here – to be used only under special circumstance with parish approval.

   Marriage and Parenting Resource: Attached is the September issue of “Marriage Moments and Parenting Pointers.” These may be used in parish bulletins or as links on parish websites.

   Natural Family Planning: Participation in a diocesan approved Introductory NFP Instruction is required for all engaged or civilly married couples of child bearing age preparing for marriage in the diocese. General information as well as method specific content is available in a variety of formats in both English and Spanish. A listing of diocesan approved NFP online and local instructional resources can be found here.

Engaged couples are encouraged to begin NFP instruction at least four months prior to their wedding date and may select to participate in one or more of the options based on their individual level of interest or particular life circumstance. All diocesan NFP instructional resources are updated regularly with the latest version accessible through this diocesan website. This link will also provide a list of any upcoming NFP instruction opportunities scheduled in the diocese. A current listing of these opportunities can also be found below.

Introduction to NFP: This free instruction is held at the Chancery, 780 West Central Park Ave., Davenport. All sessions are from 1:30-2:30 p.m. on October 1 and December 3. Couples may register to attend one of these sessions by contacting Marianne Agnoli at 563-888-4242 or agnolim@davenportdiocese.org.

NFP Postpartum Instruction: CCL now offers the Postpartum Class in a self-paced online option. Teaching couple is Dr. Matt and Franchelle Jaeger, of Little Rock, Arkansas. Postpartum Class was transformed into a series of video modules. There are mini-quizzes after each module to test for comprehension, as well as sample charts that the students interpret. All students also have access to a Teaching Couple for assistance. Questions? Contact Director of Promotion & Enrollment Angela Exner at 800-745-8252, ext. 1050.

Expressing the Psalms With Music and Writing: Fri., Sept. 8 (Arrival: 6:15-6:45 pm) 7-8:30 pm – Sat. Sept. 9, 9 am–3:30 pm. Take time to more deeply appreciate the Book of Psalms in a creative way. This retreat begins with a reflection on the Psalms and how they can touch our life experiences. Then you will have the opportunity to work with a writer and a musician to express your Psalm in a prayerful manner. Maybe one specific line, verse or Psalm touches your heart and you can create a melody for it. Maybe you would find writing your own Psalm a prayer for your life. Let loose your creative side and deepen your prayer with the Psalms. Writing material provided or bring your own. Keyboards available or bring your musical instrument. No writing or music skill required!! Presenter: Sr. Bobbi Bussan, OSB; Artists: Misty Urban and Lori Carroll, St. Mary Monastery Oblate. Fee: $118 (single), $111 (double), $65 (commuter). Commuter fee includes Saturday lunch.

Celebrating Four Gifts of Autumn: Beauty, Harvest, Letting Go, and Hope: Fri., Sept. 15 (Registration: 4:30-5:15pm; Soup Supper: 5:30; Opening of Retreat: 7pm) – Sun. We can learn much about our spiritual life from the four seasons of the year. This weekend retreat, nestled in mid-September, celebrates four gifts the season of autumn wishes to give us: beauty, harvest, letting go, and hope. Using scripture, nature, videos, music, stories, and humor, Sister Melannie will lead us in exploring ways this beautiful season can enrich our love for God and others. Presenter: Sr. Melannie Svoboda, Sister of Notre Dame, teacher, student, author, speaker, listen, friend, poet and farm girl.

"The Way, The Truth, The Life" (John 14:6): A Workshop for All Who Preach: Sept. 26, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm. Christian preaching continues the ministry of Jesus. The challenge for the preacher is to preach the WAY Jesus preached, to preach the TRUTH Jesus preached and to call people to live the LIFE that Jesus lived. Thus, listeners are challenged to embrace Jesus as their way, truth and life. All of this is the work of God’s Spirit. Join Fr. R. Michael Schaab, STL, DMin. and other preachers to pause, reflect and more deeply connect with the ministry of Jesus Christ. Fee: $70.

Friday Night in Color: Oct 6, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM. Looking for a relaxing activity at the end of a busy week? Bring your coloring supplies and join others for fun and sharing. Colorful stories of faith will be shared as participants fill their evening with all kinds of color! Families and individuals of all ages welcome. Coloring leaders: Deacon Steve and Kathy MacDonald. Fri. Oct. 6 (Soup supper: 5:30–6:15 pm) 6:30-8:30 pm color time. Fee: $9 (supper); free will donation for color time.

Catholic Social Teaching and the Current State of U.S. Politics: Oct 11, 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM. (Arrival: 6:15-6:45 pm) Catholic Social Teaching has been called “our best kept secret.” Last year’s election completely upended U.S. politics. What does Catholic Social Teaching have to say about the current U.S. budget and social justice issues? How can many Catholics support the current administration, while others are part of the resistance? Presenter: As part of his sabbatical last year, Dr. Keith Soko traveled to and interviewed religious organizations working for social justice in Washington, D.C. and Davenport and Des Moines, Iowa, including the USCCB, Network: A Catholic Social Justice Lobby, the Iowa Catholic Conference, and Quad-Cities Interfaith. He will share with us his experience of Catholics and other people of faith working for social justice, his impression of the current political climate, and his concern for the violation of human rights in the U.S. Fee: $15.
The Mandala: A Pathway to One's Center: Oct 27, 6:30 PM - Oct 29 1:00 PM. Mandala is the Sanskrit word for circle. Today, the word mandala is used for sacred artworks in the form of a circle. Create your own mandalas and tap into the holiness of deep listening within you and in the world around you. Creating a mandala will help you gain access to the “soul-light,” the divine Spirit within. You will add luminous color effects to your mandala and learn to pray with it. This is a great opportunity for those interested in learning this form of prayer or are experienced and want to renew their art and connect with others. Supplies will be provided, but you may want to bring your own compass, ruler or black/gel/Micron pens. No experience is necessary. Presenter: Sr. Joellen Price, PBVM. Fee: Register and pay in full by Sept 28: $225 (private room), $210 (shared room). $160 includes all meals (commuter). Registration and payment after Sept. 24, $240 (private room), $225 (shared room); $175 includes all meals (commuter).

Days of Quiet & Prayer: A 4-Session Series: Wednesdays, 9:30am-2:45pm September 13, October 18, November 15, December 13. Facilitator: Eileen Miller OSF. Each session will begin with coffee and rolls at 9:30am. We will begin with prayer, and each participant will be given a booklet to aid personal reflection throughout the day. Faith-sharing and prayer will conclude each session. Book: The Divine Dance by Richard Rohr, with Mike Morrell. Drawing from Scripture, theology, and the deepest thoughts of mystics, philosophers and sages throughout history, Rohr presents a compelling alternative to aloof and fairytale versions of God as well as an insight into the ancient mystery of the Trinity. The Divine Dance makes accessible and practicable the Christian tradition’s most surprising gift: God as Community... as Friendship... as Dance. Offering: $90 for series. Includes: book, program materials, coffee & rolls, lunch, a private room. Register and Prepay by Tuesday, September 5 to ensure you have a copy by the first session.

Lovers of Place & Pilgrimage: A Celtic Day of Reflection: Saturday, September 30, 9:00am-4:00pm. Celtic Spirituality lives in an in-between space, where both the love of hearth and the call to journey, can exist simultaneously. Reflecting on the stories of wandering saints and the rooted communities they founded, we will ponder how these twin aspects of life can find expression and integration in our own experience. Through art and text, silence and discussion, the day’s activities will offer gentle invitations to rest, reflect, and pray within the beauty of this ancient tradition. Presenter: Susan Forshey, Assistant Professor, Discipleship & Christian Formation, University Of Dubuque. A retreat leader and spiritual director, Susan leads summer trips to Ireland with Museum Without Walls, focusing on religious reconciliation and Celtic spirituality. Offering: $40, INCLUDES lunch. Register and prepay no later than Wednesday, September 27.

Father Marvin Mottet believed that action on behalf of social justice is a necessary part of a moral life. Charity and justice are the two steps in his “two feet” approach. Too many people walk on one foot, but it takes both feet to walk in the footsteps of justice. Stepping for justice is something that requires training. That is the goal of the Mottet Leadership Institute.

Father Mottet looked to the Gamaliel Foundation of Chicago and Quad Cities Interfaith to provide leadership training. He sent many people from the Quad Cities to the weeklong training in Chicago. The Mottet Leadership Institute brings this same training to the Quad Cities in an 8-week format. This training is funded through the generous support of the Regional Development Authority.

The eight sessions of the training will be held from 10 am to 4 pm on eight Saturdays:

- Week One: Sept. 23 - Public life, power, values and self-interest.
- Week Two: October 28 - Public relationships, one-on-ones, building a public life.
- Week Three: November 18 - Qualities of a leader, building a team, power analysis.
- Week Four: December 16 - Cutting issues, doing actions, how to enter the public arena.
- Week Five: January 28, 2018 - How to run and organize a meeting, power one-on-ones.
- Week Six: February 17, 2018 - Media and social media as part of a change campaign.
- Week Seven: March 24, 2018 - Organized money and people.
- Week Eight: April 28, 2018 - Pathway to power.

All eight sessions will be taught by the Gamaliel Foundation.

Registration Limited to the first 50 people

El padre Marvin Mottet creía que la acción en favor de la justicia social es parte necesaria de una vida moral. La caridad y la justicia son los dos pasos en su enfoque de los "dos pies". Demasiadas personas caminan sobre un pie, pero son necesarios ambos pies para caminar los pasos de la justicia. Caminar por la justicia es algo que requiere preparación. Ese es el objetivo del Instituto de Liderazgo Mottet.

El Padre Mottet se comunicó con la Fundación Gamaliel de Chicago y Quad Cities Interfaith para proporcionar capacitación de liderazgo. Varias personas de los Quad Cities viajaron a Chicago para recibir capacitación por una semana. El Instituto de Liderazgo de Mottet trae este mismo entrenamiento a los Quad Cities en un formato de 8 semanas.

Las ocho sesiones de capacitación se llevarán acabo de 10 am to 4 pm por ocho sábados:

- Semana Uno: Septiembre 23 – Vida pública, poder, valores y interés propio.
- Semana Dos: Octubre 28 – Relaciones públicas, trabajando uno a uno, construcción de una vida pública
- Semana Tres: Noviembre 18 – Cualidades de un líder, formando un equipo, analista de poder.
- Semana Cuatro: Diciembre 16 — Cortar los problemas, tomar acciones, cómo entrar en la arena pública.
- Semana Cinco: Enero 28, 2018 - Cómo organizar una reunión, trabajando uno a uno
- Semana Seis: Febrero 17, 2018 – Medios de comunicación y sociales como parte de una campaña de cambio.
- Semana Siete: Marzo 28, 2018 - Organizacion de dinero y gente.

Las ocho sesiones serán impartidas por la Fundación Gamaliel.
St. Ambrose University otorgará un certificado a todos los que se graduen del programa.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS
745. Sep. 4: Infidelity is not always physical. A more subtle form is Emotional Infidelity. It can start when one spouse feels under-appreciated and gets affirmation from someone outside the marriage. Sometimes work (paid or volunteer) or even the needs of one's own children can be the source. Giving time and attention now can prevent an emotional affair later.

746. Sep. 11: Which of the 10 commandments is hardest for you (or your spouse) to keep? Do you know your beloved well enough to predict their answer? Of course there's always the Great Commandment, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Your spouse is your closest neighbor.

747. Sep. 18: An "Emotional Affair" prevention strategy is to put your spouse on your calendar. Schedule a weekly date and/or an annual enrichment day or weekend.

748. Sep. 25: What is fair? In marriage sometimes one partner gives more than the other (makes more money, does more chores - especially the unwanted ones, etc.) Recently I broke my arm and my husband became St. Jim to me. When has your beloved carried the bigger part of life's burdens for you?

PARENTING POINTERS
744. Sep. 1: "You duped me, O Lord, and I let myself be duped." (Jeremiah 20: 7) Sometimes each of us makes a fool of ourselves. Share a time that you did something foolish and how you recovered. It will give your child hope that they too can recover.

745. Sep. 8: With all the violence in the news and perhaps in your neighborhood or your child's school, kids can feel afraid or pick up the fears of their parents. Help your child become a peacemaker. Taking The Pledge of Nonviolence (http://www.ipj-ppj.org/Children%20&%20Youth.htm) can be a practical start.

746. Sep. 15: "How often must I forgive?" (Mt 18:21) Kids make mistakes, are selfish, or sometimes just plain mean. Forgiveness does not mean there is no consequence for bad behavior. Don't fear to give a punishment, but wrap it in love and a way to earn forgiveness.

747. Sep. 22: Next Monday (September 25) is National Eat Dinner Together Day (https://www.informedfamilies.org/). Maybe you always eat dinner together. If not, make a special effort to eat together on this day. Tell stories of your day. What was the high? What was the low?

748. Sep. 29: What is fair? Children often complain that a parent, a sibling, or playmate is not being fair - and it may be true. Life is not always fair. Talk with your child about a time when they had an advantage or disadvantage. Share how you cope when something unfair happens.

A Hmong family fleeing to Thailand. A Sudanese man thrown into prison. A Dutch boy, dressed as a cowboy, who put the flag of the Netherlands through the paper shredder and declared, “I am an American.” These are some of the characters brought to life in this drama about recent immigrant farmers.
