LITURGY NEWS FROM THE USCCB

From the June issue of the BCDW Newsletter

USCCB APPROVES FIRST SEGMENT OF REVISED LITURGY OF THE HOURS, SUPPLEMENTAL TEXTS FOR NEW CALENDAR ADDITIONS

The Latin Church bishops of the USCCB approved two liturgical texts at the June 2018 plenary meeting in Fort Lauderdale, Florida: the first being a collection of several segments of the Liturgy of the Hours, Second Edition, and the second comprising a short supplement of texts added to the Roman Missal and Liturgy of the Hours since 2014. Both texts will be sent to the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments for the requisite confirmation.

REPRINT EDITIONS OF THE ORDER OF CHRISTIAN FUNERALS

Liturgical publishers, working with the Secretariat of Divine Worship, have been preparing updated reprints of the Order of Christian Funerals, incorporating the newer translation of prayers that are also found in the Roman Missal, Third Edition, and likewise incorporating the revised capitalization standards of the Missal. As a matter of clarification, the Secretariat wishes to observe that there have been no changes whatsoever to any of the funeral rites, and that the updated reprint editions are not mandated for use. Currently existing versions remain perfectly acceptable for liturgical use in the United States. The International Commission on English in the Liturgy has no current plans to prepare a new translation of the Order of Christian Funerals.

OTHER UPDATES:

Members of the Committee approved the ICEL Gray Book of Ordination of a Bishop, of Priests, and of Deacons for canonical vote of the Latin Church bishops of the USCCB at the November 2018 plenary meeting. Also approved by the Committee was ICEL's translation of approximately half of the Latin hymnody for the Liturgy of the Hours, Second Edition. Finally, the draft translation (Green Book) of the Order of Penance was approved for transmission to the body of bishops. In light of the recent arrival of the ICEL Gray Book of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, the Committee directed the Secretariat to begin drafting proposals for the arrangement of the material, U.S. ritual and textual adaptations, and a revised edition of the National Statutes for the Catechuminate. Votes on these texts may take place in 2019 or 2020.

October: Domestic Violence Awareness Month

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. In 2002, the US Bishops released When I Call for Help: A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women. They began with an unequivocal condemnation of violence against women:

As pastors of the Catholic Church in the United States, we state as clearly and strongly as we can that violence against women, inside or outside the home, is never justified. Violence in any form—physical, sexual, psychological, or verbal—is sinful; often, it is a crime as well. We have called for a moral revolution to replace a culture of violence. We acknowledge that violence has many forms, many causes, and many victims—men as well as women.

In this document, they called upon the Church in the United States to reach out to both victims and perpetrators of domestic violence. Among the recommendations that they made is to use opportunities within the liturgy and in sacramental preparation programs to draw attention to violence and abuse.

Their statement, and further resources and recommendations, may be found on the USCCB website: <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/domestic-violence/>.
