

Pacem in Terris Award .1980

September 25, 1980

Most Reverend Ernest Unterkoefer
114 Broad Street
Charleston, South Carolina 29401

Dear Bishop Unterkoefer:

Mr. Thomas Massion, Director of the Social Action Department of the Diocese of Davenport, has informed me that the Social Action Department desiresto give you the Pacem in Terris Award.

The Award was first instituted by the local Catholic Interracial Council. Presentation of the Award passed to the Social Action Department some years ago. Some recipients of the Award have been Archbishop Helder Camara, Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., Mother Theresa, John Howard Griffin, Reverend Jessee Jackson, and Bishop Thomas Gumbleton.

I am again delighted to invite you to the Diocese. I am very pleased to learn from Mr. Massion that you will be able to come on November 15 following the ecumenical meeting in Newton. We will be very happy to welcome you then.

With kindest regards, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald O'Keefe
Bishop of Davenport
