SOCIAL ACTION OFFICE

Catholic Charities Good Samaritans Needed: Recently, the revelation of the horrible conditions under which immigrant children seeking asylum were kept have brought new focus on the people involved. All along the border, the Church has been responding to Jesus’ example of the Good Samaritan. We have heard that story so often that we tend to forget that compassion, unquestioning, bestowed by someone who had every reason to ignore the misery of another, is the message. Unquestioning compassion is being shown by many people along the border, and often the focal point of such compassionate assistance is through the work of Catholic Charities in the states along the border.

Attached is a list of the Charities that would be grateful for your being with them in their efforts to be Good Samaritans.

2019 Clare Award: July 14, 2:00 p.m., Tuscany Special Events Center, Clinton. Sister Simone Campbell, SSS past Pacem in Terris award recipient will receive this award. Jail and Prison Ministry Gathering: July 22, 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m., St. Thomas More, Coralville. Included will be Bishop Zinkula sharing his impressions of the state of the ministry across our diocese. For more information go here.
