GROUP 23. THE FRANCISCAN PROVINCE OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

Based out of Albuquerque, NM. Composed of professed Priest and Brothers serving primarily among the Native American and Hispanic communities in the Southwestern area of the United States. Currently serving twenty one missions.

The work that our friars carry out in mission territory consist primary in evangelization. Tend to the sacramental needs of the people serve and are looking for assistance in that area. These missions and the people who staff them depend heavily on the financial support to continue their work.

The funds received from the Mission Appeals:

- Will go mainly to keep the support the work of our missionaries.
- Building maintenance, payment of utilities, vehicle maintenance, staff salaries, support of Religious Education Programs, Sacramental Ministry, etc.
- The most important program that be supported by these funds is the help that we give. To families who qualify with tuition so that their children can receive a Catholic Education.
