The Congregation was founded on November 28, 1887, by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrin. A religious congregation of Missionaries whose specific purpose is the assistance of migrants and refugees of different cultures, religions and ethnicities in 32 countries and on five continents.

The Scalabrinians care for migrants and refugees in a variety of ways: socially, culturally and spiritually. Provide education in schools, local organization for cultural activities, care for the sick, counseling and legal referral, advocacy and care for the elderly.

In Tijuana assist more than 10,000 people per year. Have open the door to new refugees arriving from Haiti, Africa and the Middle East, caravans from Central America. In Nuevo Laredo, Tamps, Mexico assist more than 10,000 people for year.

In cooperation with the Government of Mexico have set up schools in which we train the migrants in skills needed for employment. Upon completing the courses, the Government provides authorization for the work visa that is necessary for the migrants to gain employment.
