GROUP 6. CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF RULENGE-NGARA

The diocese is located in a remote and rural area in the Northwestern part of Tanzania, East Africa. Close to Lake Victoria. It serves a total population of 1,090,669. 332,501 are Catholic. The Diocese consist of 27 parishes, 2050 small Christian Communities.

Money collected from this appeal will help:

- Provide education for seminarians. Due to limited resources the diocese does not have enough funds to pay the tuition of seminarian. Four men are expected to be ordained into the sacrament of priesthood in 2020.
- To construct one maternity waiting home. Most pregnant women died in their home because of failure to pay for treatment cost and poor medical care. The Diocese has begun the project to build waiting homes in some of the clinics to enable pregnant women to come to the clinics a few days before giving birth. In need of $40,000
- To construct two water wells to get clean water. The scarcity of water continues to be a gibe threat to most of the community most people still need to walk 12 miles to get water for their homes and the water still not clean. Previous donations has helped construct two water wells for some communities. To build the two additional wells will cost $15,000 each.
