Meeting called to order: Sandy

Opening Prayer & Scripture: Prayer led by Phyllis Diggins

Approval of June, 2019 Minutes: Minutes approved as amended.

1. Introductions and Conflict of Interest Policy:

- Returning and New PPC members were introduced.
- Conflict of Interest Policy was provided to all members, policy was discussed, and signed by all in attendance.

2. Pastor’s Report:

- Plans for work on the tabernacle at Church of the Assumption are continuing.
- Feedback from the Mass in the Park was positive. Threatening weather affected the number of people who attended this mass.
- The CMA goals for the coming year have not changed. Strategies for meeting our goals are being discussed in Stewardship meetings at Church of the Assumption.
- U.S. Bishop’s Letter Against Racism with Father Bob Werth – Father George encouraged parishioners to make time to come to as many of these sessions as possible. Four sessions will be held at Church of the Assumption and two sessions will be held at Church of the Resurrection.
- Mass times will continue as usual for the foreseeable future.
- Father George shared information about a video series: Amazing Parish / Stewardship. The first video of the series was viewed by the PPC. Topics addressed in the first video were Building Blocks of an Amazing Parish and Five Misconceptions of Parishes. A short discussion was held and Father George encouraged all present to go to the website – amazingparish.org

JOINT PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES

3. 2019 Regional Pastoral Council Forum: This will be held Monday, October 7. Interested PPC members were encouraged to let Sandy know so she could register them for the forum.

4. Other Topics discussed:
 - How to address COTA and COR on social media
 - Welcoming people in joy or sorrow and witnessing their stories
 - Number of ministries currently at COTA and COR

Next Meeting: Monday, October 14 , 2019 at COR at 7:00 p.m.

Closing Prayer: Phyllis Diggins led this prayer.

Respectively submitted,

Karen Parysek
