Pastor’s Report:

1. St. Michael’s Update
 - The diocese wants to maintain a ministerial presence in the city.
 - The diocese is looking for alternate use proposals for the St. Michael’s campus.
 - At this time no further discussion or action is needed.

2. Church of the Resurrection Live Streaming
 - Live streaming is a “new normal” during the COVID pandemic. It is currently being used at COTA and implementing it at COR is the next goal.
 - COR has a system that is currently being underutilized. This system can be augmented to be able to live stream masses and other events.
 - Chris Cammilleri and Steve Smith will evaluate the system and let Father know the cost of additional equipment and software/internet access that will be needed.
 - The cost of this should be covered in COR’s capital improvement funds.
 - The PPC supports this effort and would like to see this in place before Christmas.

JOINT PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES

3. Christmas Mass Schedule – same number of masses will be held as last year.
 - Christmas Eve Masses:
 - 3:00 pm at COTA
 - 4:30 pm at COR
 - 6:00 pm at COTA
 - 8:00 pm at COR
 - 10:00 pm at COTA
 - Christmas Day Masses:
 - 8:30 am at COR
 - 10:00 am at COTA
 - Reservations will be needed for these masses.
 - These masses will not be streamed to other parts of the building as it has been in the past. Parishioners should plan to live stream from home if reservations are full.

Revive Parishes

- Maura Walsh reported in October that the Revive Parish program is free and highly recommends the program.
- At this meeting, the group viewed a video on Parish Renewal from this program.
- The PPC feels we should choose a section of all to view prior to the next meeting and then discuss and brainstorm it at the next meeting.
- It was decided to start with the Parish Renewal section, which has four chapters.

Next Meeting: Monday, December 14, 2020 via Zoom

Closing Prayer: Father George led us in the closing prayer.

The meeting was adjourned by Mark Warner at 8:08 pm.

Respectively submitted,
