Directives Regarding Liturgical Practices During the 2018 Flu Season:

Due to the severity of the flu season, the Archdiocese of Santa Fe will be taking the following steps in regards to the celebration of Mass:

*Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host, not the Chalice.

*During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.

*When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.

*Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution.

If it is easier, an anti-bacterial gel can be used.

*If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish.

It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill.

Please pray for all who have lost their lives as a result of the flu and may we do our part to prevent its spread. These directives will be revoked when the situation improves.

For more information, please contact Very Rev. John C. Daniel, V.G., Vicar for Clergy, Moderator of the Curia at 505.831.8158
