

Fr. Ted's Corner

From the beginning of a letter to the Magnesians

By Saint Ignatius of Antioch, bishop and martyr

(Nn. 1,1—5, 2:Funk 1, 191-195)

We should then really live as Christians and not merely have the name; for many invoke the bishop's name but do everything apart from him. Such men, I think, do not have a good conscience, for they do not assemble lawfully as commanded.

All things have an end, and two things, life and death, are side by side set before us, and each man will go to his own place. Just as there are two coinages, one of God and the other of the world, each with its own image, so unbelievers bear the image of this world, and those who have faith with love bear the image of God the Father through Jesus Christ. Unless we are ready through his power to die in the likeness of his passion, his life is not in us.

The LORD is my shepherd I shall not want
 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake, even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, your rod and your staff they comfort me
