

JUNE 20, 2021

THE TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JOB. 38: 1, 8-11. The Lord said to Job: Who shut within doors the sea? And who said: Thus far shall you come but no farther!
PSALM 107. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
2 CORINTHIANS. 5: 14-17. Whoever is in Christ is a new creation.
MARK. 4: 35-41. Who is this whom even wind and sea obey?

GOD'S WORD TODAY: Making time for 'stillness.' The words Jesus addresses to the storm could just as well be addressed to us: Peace! Be Still! In our stormy whirlwind lives, we need to make time for peace, for stillness, for quiet, in order to hear the voice of the Spirit, to reset our compass as we navigate our small boats through life's stormy Galilee Sea, to check our bearings to make sure that we are living our lives in the hope and joy in which God created us to live them.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION:

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholic around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous!

THE WIND AND THE SEA:

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do. The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds. But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

FATHER’S DAY PRAYER

God our Father, you govern and protect all people And shepherd them with a Father’s love. You place a Father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection. May fathers everywhere be faithful to the examples shown in the Scriptures: Steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family, Caring for those in need. Give your wisdom to fathers that they encourage and guide their children. Keep them healthy that they may support their families. Guide every Father with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you. Amen.

FATHER’S DAY NOVENA INTENTIONS: During the month of June, we will be honoring our Living and Deceased Father’s in a Novena of masses. These envelopes are found in your packets.

MASS INTENTIONS 2022: The Mass Book for 2022 is now open and available to schedule Masses for your deceased loved ones. We are in need of Masses for this year and next year. Please consider Masses for your loved one’s intentions.

CHRISTMAS CASH NEWS: Tickets for the Christmas Cash Fundraiser can be purchased at the following locations: T & R Service Station, Sterling Pharmacy, Battenberg’s Furniture Store, the Rectory, or from any Stewardship Committee member. Each ticket cost $100 and can be paid in full or in monthly payments of $25. Our goal is to sell 500 tickets. Unfortunately, there will be no Christmas Cash Event this year for the prize drawing. The drawing for the prizes will be on Wednesday, Dec. 15, at the monthly Stewardship Committee Meeting. The drawing will be livestreamed on the Parish’s Facebook page. Thank you for your generosity and support!

SONNY SAYS: Bill had to approach the man he hoped would be his future father-in-law. He knew the old man was testy and somewhat of a tight-wad. But Bill figured out a tactful way to ask for the hand of his daughter. He told the old fellow: “Sir, I know a sure way for you to save money.”

QUO VADIS DAYS, 2021: Quo Vadis Days 2021 will be held June 20-22 at Marywood University, Scranton. This camp is for young Catholic men in Highschool (who were in 9th-12th grade during the 2020/2021 school year) to deepen their faith, learn more about all vocations, and better discern God’s call in their lives. The camp will feature dynamic talks, prayer, games, sports, activities, music and more. Participants will have the opportunity to meet with Bishop Bambera, priests, and seminarians of the Diocese of Scranton. Online registration is now open at vocations.dioceseofscranton.org. For more information call 570-207-1452.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION: You’re in the homestretch with your spiritually adopted baby. He is completely formed, and has been since 8 weeks. All he is doing now is gaining weight and making his mother uncomfortable with his size. Bet she’s not worried now. In a short time, her baby will be born. She has planned to bring her baby home or to place her baby for adoption. Either way, she knows she can receive the assistance she needs from the Catholic Church and from the crisis pregnancy centers. Your baby’s mother appreciates the prayers you have said for her and her baby throughout the pregnancy. It hasn’t been easy, but your prayers have given her grace to seek the help she needs.
