THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WISDOM. 1: 13-15;2: 23-24. God did not make death, nor does God rejoice in the destruction of the living.

PSALM 30. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

2 CORINTHIANS. 8: 7,9, 13-15. Your abundance should supply the needs of others.

MARK. 5: 21-43. Your faith has saved you.

GOD'S WORD TODAY: The God of life and resurrection. The sick woman in today's Gospel is so convinced that Jesus not only can help but will help her that she fights her way through the crowds just to touch his cloak. She realizes not only the power Jesus possesses but the depth of his compassion and love for her. Jesus reveals a God who seeks not judgement or vengeance but restoration and healing. Our God is present, not in death and destruction, but in life and resurrection. Faith compels us not to mourn God's absence where he is not but to seek God and realize God's presence in compassion, forgiveness, and justice.

JESUS' EXAMPLE OF HELPING OTHERS:

In today's second reading Paul offers a wonderful argument to his converts at Corinth for seeking to help those in need. He is dealing with a practical problem, arranging a collection for the poor of the church of Jerusalem; but as he often does, he develops an important teaching about Jesus to make his point. After asking that they show their faith by generous gifts, he reminds them of the "gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9). In the Incarnation our Lord assumed human nature, certainly becoming poor for one who is God. The ultimate gracious act of this poverty was going to the cross with all its terrible sufferings. By this act of poverty we definitely become rich. Now our sins can be forgiven; we share in the very life of God through the sacraments; we can attain eternal salvation!

CARE AND EDUCATION FOR PRIESTS: We no longer have an envelope for this collection. So, the Second collection next week-end will be for the Care and Education of Priests.
