THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading — The Lord GOD is my help; who will prove me wrong? (Isaiah 50:5-9a).

Psalm — I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living (Psalm 116).

Second Reading — Faith, if it does not have works, is dead (James 2:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus asked his disciples, “Who do you say that I am?” (Mark 8:27-35).

GOD’S WORD TODAY: We pray that we come to know who Jesus is and how he is calling us to enter into his ministry to bring life to our world. We pray that we might better understand what we need to die to, so that God’s reign might become more present in our world.

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP

BAMBERA: Let us join together in expressing our gratitude for the Knights of Columbus.

This past year, our Church had the honor of celebrating the beatification of Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney, who founded the Knights of Columbus to bring fraternal support, assistance and financial aid to those in need. The Knights of Columbus have energy and enthusiasm in continuing his legacy of serving others, especially those most in need and the vulnerable, and they offer a powerful witness to all in our communities.

Much of the great work of the Knights of Columbus is done for, or with, our parish communities. So often during the course of the past year and a half as we have confronted the consequences of the coronavirus in our lives, the Knights of Columbus were hard at work – helping to feed the hungry, to serve those struggling to make ends meet and to assist many of you in providing safe environments for the celebration of Mass. In the midst of all of these exceptional efforts, the Knights of Columbus have continued to promote efforts that deepen our respect for human life. The Knights have also continued to work tirelessly to support our diocesan vocation efforts by "adopting" seminarians and providing financial contributions to our Diocesan Vocation Endowment.
