MESSAGE FROM THE DEACON

Today's gospel reminds me of a saying my grandma would say (in Czech). Loosely translated, she said, "Hey, on the outside. Phooey, on the inside!" She usually used it in reference to people who were trying to be someone they weren't. Which is what Jesus was addressing regarding the Pharisees in today's gospel.

The Pharisees were strict observers of tradition and the written law and were believed to have superior sanctity as a result. But Jesus saw them as hypocrites, because they missed the point of the Law of Moses. As stated in the first reading from Deuteronomy, the Law was given to prepare the Israelites to enter the land God was giving them. The Pharisees were not so pure in their intentions and used the law as a means to better themselves and not the necessarily the people as a whole.

Today's message is easy to see if you have worked a church picnic or other charity event as we have had this past week. It is good to see everyone working to make the event as successful as possible. Everyone's heart is in the right place, wanting to help the church or organization to achieve their financial or charity goal. No one is above another. Everyone is just trying to do their part to make the whole better.

We must make sure we are doing what we do for the right reason. Work done with a good heart and the right intentions yields good fruit.

In Christ, Deacon Tim
