MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: The priest simultaneously said a Mass intention for the intention for which I gave a stipend and an intention for vocations. Is this allowed?

A: This is allowed. He may celebrate a regularly scheduled parish Mass for which a parishioner has provided an intention (and a stipend), but at the same time he may perhaps have in mind the intention of his elderly mother. In fact, he may have as many intentions as he likes while offering a Mass, so long as he has accepted a stipend for no more than one of them. While on the surface this may seem illogical, keep in mind that the spiritual value of a single Mass is infinite. The intention for which a stipend was offered is not somehow giving short-shrift if the celebrant offers that same Mass for other intentions as well.

As a rule, a priest may only offer one Mass per day, although there are occasions when he may be permitted to offer more than one Mass in a single day (canon 905.1). (This is why, when St. Frederic has a funeral scheduled, daily Mass is cancelled for the day. Anyone who wants to go to Mass that day is able to attend the funeral.) On Sundays and Holy Days, for example, a priest may celebrate as many as three Masses in one day (and possibly more in areas with a shortage of priests).

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1C and 1D states:

Section 1.16.2: “The lay faithful called to give assistance at liturgical celebrations should be well instructed and must be those whose Christian life, morals and fidelity to the Church’s Magisterium recommend them. It is fitting that such a person should have received a liturgical formation in accordance with his or her age, condition, state of life, and religious culture.”⁵²

Section 1.16.3: “Care should be taken to avoid obscuring the complementary relationship between the action of priests and deacons and that of laypersons, in such a way that the service of laypersons undergoes what might be called a certain ‘clericalization’, while the sacred ministers inappropriately assume those things that are proper to the life and activity of the lay faithful.”⁵³

Section 1.16.4: “For any kind of deputation or commissioning of laypersons among the faithful to various roles recognized by the Church, particular norms have been established appropriate to the different cases. For all cases, however, as for the ordained ministry, requisites of sensitivity to the Gospel and basic good sense apply and they include the principle that no office or function is to be bestowed for the purpose of doing honor to a private person or out of human respect. Nor should anyone be selected whose designation could cause consternation for the faithful.”⁵⁴

FORMED.org

Have you been to Formed.org recently? Why not try Bishop Fulton J. Sheen: Angels. In this compilation of three episodes from his classic television program, "Life is Worth Living," Bishop Fulton Sheen delivers his thoughts on various elements of the Catholic Faith with his ever-present humor, animated presentation, and captivating mode of speaking. In the first segment, "Angels," Bishop Sheen explicates the nature of angels and the meaningful role they play in our world. In the second, "The Touch of Your Hand," Bishop Sheen delves into the beautiful truth that through His love, God makes us lovable, and we can effect this same transformation in our neighbor. Lastly, in "Caring," Bishop Sheen insists on the need to love our visible neighbors, and through these caring acts, love our invisible God.
