MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: Can Mass Intentions be said for someone still alive?

A: The great Doctor of the Church, St. Anselm, declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after your death. The merit of the Masses we have offered for ourselves during life will obtain for us a higher degree of glory in Heaven, since we have made the meritorious sacrifice of offering the stipend for the Mass. After death, this is impossible.

Masses offered during our life will go before us, to either cancel our debt – whole or in part, of the punishment due for our sins; thus, it may greatly shorten our Purgatory.

Masses offered for us during our life can help us obtain the great grace of a happy and holy death. The most beautiful gift one can give to another person is a Spiritual Bouquet of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. No material gift can ever compare to or equal the Infinite Value of the Holy Mass.

Holy Sacrifice offered for hardened sinners and those who are dying are especially effective.

Masses may be offered in reparation for the outrages, offenses and blasphemies against Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and insults to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Masses may be offered in thanksgiving for our blessings, family, health and answer to prayers is very pleasing to the Most Blessed Trinity.

Masses for our departed loved ones and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a great act of charity, efficacious and meritorious.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1C and 1D states:

Section 1.16.5: "With the exception of instituted acolytes and lectors, whose case is governed by general law, and of extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, who in the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon are normally deputed by the Archbishop for a fixed period of time, other altar servers, readers, sacristans, musicians, and ushers, musicians, singers, and choir members whose service is not otherwise regulated by a contract of remuneration may usefully be appointed for a fixed term that is renewable. "

Instituted Acolytes

Section 1.17.1: "The office of the instituted acolyte is to serve at the altar and to assist the priest and deacon. In particular, it is his responsibility to prepare the altar and the sacred vessels. In the ministry of the altar, the acolyte has his own functions, which he must personally perform."<sup>55</sup>

Section 1.17.2: "A layman who is to be installed in the ministry of acolyte on a stable basis must have completed his twenty-first year of age. The candidate must also possess the skills necessary for an effective service at the altar, be a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church, be free of any canonical penalty, and live a life which befits the ministry to be undertaken."<sup>56</sup>
