MASS INTENTIONS ($10.00 stipend)

Q: Can Mass Intentions be said for someone still alive?

A: The great Doctor of the Church, St. Anselm, declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after your death. The merit of the Masses we have offered for ourselves during life will obtain for us a higher degree of glory in Heaven, since we have made the meritorious sacrifice of offering the stipend for the Mass. After death, this is impossible.

Masses offered during our life will go before us, to either cancel our debt – whole or in part, of the punishment due for our sins; thus, it may greatly shorten our Purgatory.

Masses offered for us during our life can help us obtain the great grace of a happy and holy death. The most beautiful gift one can give to another person is a Spiritual Bouquet of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. No material gift can ever compare to or equal the Infinite Value of the Holy Mass.

Holy Sacrifice offered for hardened sinners and those who are dying are especially effective.

Masses may be offered in reparation for the outrages, offenses and blasphemies against Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and insults to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Masses may be offered in thanksgiving for our blessings, family, health and answer to prayers is very pleasing to the Most Blessed Trinity.

Masses for our departed loved ones and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a great act of charity, efficacious and meritorious.

Faithful Departed

November is a special month dedicated by the Church for the faithfully departed. Envelopes are available in the vestibule for those who wish to request a Mass. You can bring the request to the office Tuesday—Friday. Please do not put in the collection basket. Intentions are $10.

Divine Worship

Dear Parishioners,

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1D states:

Instituted Lectors

Section 1.19.1: “The office of the instituted lector is to proclaim the readings from Sacred Scripture, with the exception of the Gospel. He may also announce the intentions for the Prayer of the Faithful and, in the absence of a psalmist, proclaim the Psalm between the readings. In the celebration of Holy Mass, the lector has his own proper office, which he must exercise personally.”⁷⁰

Section 1.19.2: “A layman who is to be installed in the ministry of instituted lector on a stable basis must have completed his twenty-first year of age. The candidate must also possess the skills necessary for an effective proclamation of the Word, be a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church, be free of any canonical penalty, and live a life which befits the ministry to be undertaken.”⁷¹

Section 1.19.3: “In the dioceses of the United States of America, instituted lectors may wear the alb and cincture or other suitable vesture or other appropriate and dignified clothing.”

Readers

Section 1.20.1: “In the absence of instituted lectors, other suitable laypersons, chosen by the pastor of the church, may be called upon to carry out liturgical duties that are not proper to the priest or the deacon.⁷² These duties include proclaiming the readings from Sacred Scripture, and also, if no deacon is present, announcing the intentions of the Prayer of the Faithful. Such roles may be entrusted by a liturgical blessing or a temporary deputation.”

“And to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength and love your neighbor as yourself, is worth more than all the burnt offerings and scarifies” — Mark 12:23

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This week we are all invited by Jesus to ponder about the love we have for God and our neighbor. This is truly a good reflection on who we are as people who care about stewardship—To love God above all things; and second, to love our fellow human beings.
