Divine Worship

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1G states:

Priests

Section 1.29.1: In celebrating Holy Mass and in administering the Eucharist, priests are to wear the sacred vestments prescribed by the rubrics. The vestment proper to the priest celebrant at Holy Mass and other sacred actions directly connected with Mass, unless otherwise indicated, is the chasuble, worn over the priestly stole and on top of an alb.¹²⁵ Except in the case of concelebrants when there is an insufficient number of chasubles available, priests are never to celebrate Holy Mass without a chasuble.

Other Norms

Section 1.31.1: The cope is worn by a bishop, priest or deacon in processions and in other sacred actions, in keeping with the norms proper to each celebration.¹²⁸ In the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon, it is not to be worn by laypeople, including cantors

Section 1.31.2: The garment common to ministers of any rank is the alb, to be tied at the waist with a cincture unless it is made so as to fit without it. Before the alb is put on, should this not completely cover the ordinary clothing including a clerical collar at the neck, an amice should be worn.¹²⁹

Section 1.31.3: A cassock and surplice cannot be worn in place of an alb with a chasuble or dalmatic, or when the norms for a rite specify that a stole is to be worn over an alb (for example, when Confirmation or a funeral liturgy is celebrated apart from Mass).¹³⁰

Section 1.31.4: In the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon, it has been the custom and is preferred that seminarians wear the cassock and surplice in liturgical services, since they aspire to the clerical state.

Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18—Read this scripture again and again!

Dear Parishioners,

Lent is a time of prayer, fasting and good works. Stewardship makes our sacrificial offering selfless. We do not think about our own self but rather about others. Lent is a stewardship renewal time. Think about what you can do to make this Lenten time a special season of grace for you and for your family. Bring Christ in the lives of people around you. And, of course, let us pray for each other daily—40 days, very special days!
