Divine Worship

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1H states:

Churches and other Sacred Places

Section 1.34.1: Sacred places are those which are designated for divine worship or for the burial of the faithful by a dedication or a blessing which the liturgical books prescribe for this purpose.<sup>138</sup>

Section 1.34.2: While Catholic churches are reserved for Catholic worship, if priests, ministers, or communities not in full communion with the Catholic Church do not have a place or the liturgical objects necessary for celebrating worthily their religious ceremonies, the Archbishop will judge whether to allow them the use of a church or building and otherwise whether to lend them what may be necessary for their services, though not the sacred vessels

Sacred Objects

Section 1.35.1: Only those things which serve the exercise or promotion of worship, piety, or religion are permitted in a sacred place; anything not consonant with the holiness of the place is forbidden. In an individual case, however, the ordinary can permit other uses which are not contrary to the holiness of the place.<sup>139</sup>

Section 1.35.2: Sacred objects (such as chalices, patens, vestments, etc.), which are designated for divine worship by dedication or blessing, are to be treated reverently and are not to be employed for profane or inappropriate use even if they are owned by private persons.<sup>140</sup>

Provision for Holy Mass

Section 1.36.1: For the celebration of Holy Mass, the people of God normally are gathered together in a church or, if there is no church or if it is too small, then in another respectable place that is nonetheless worthy of so great a mystery. Churches, therefore, and other places should be suitable for carrying out the sacred action and for ensuring the active participation of the faithful. Sacred buildings and requisites for divine worship should, moreover, be truly worthy and beautiful and be signs and symbols of heavenly realities.<sup>141</sup>

<sup>138</sup> Codex Iuris Canonici (Code of Canon Law), can. 1205. Cf. Roman Pontifical, Dedication of a Church and an Altar, Passim; Roman Ritual, Book of Blessings, ch. 43.

<sup>140</sup> Codex Iuris Canonici (Code of Canon Law), can. 1171. Cf. Roman Pontifical, Dedication of a Church and an Altar, ch. 7; Roman Missal, Appendix IV; Roman Ritual, Book of Blessings, ch. 40.

Mark 12:41-44

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Every Family should try to sacrifice something no matter how small it is. Remember the story of the poor widow who was praised by Jesus because “She gave from her want, all that she had to live on.”

We are invited to prayerfully discern our own situation and the meaning of giving to support the ministries of our beloved St. Fredric Catholic Church. May God bless all of us.

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu
(Pastor)
