Divine Worship

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1J states:

Preparation of the Gifts

Section 1.55.1: When the Prayer of the Faithful is completed, all sit, and the offertory chant begins.<sup>205</sup>

Section 1.54.2: The altar, which is the center of the whole Liturgy of the Eucharist, is prepared by the deacon, assisted by the acolyte or other lay minister, placing on it the corporal, purificator, Missal, pall, and chalice. If he is present, it is the deacon's place to take care of the sacred vessels himself.<sup>206</sup>

Section 1.54.3 It is preferred in the Archdiocese of Portland that the bread and wine to be consecrated are done so in the sacred vessels from which they will be distributed. This avoids the unnecessary division of the consecrated species into other vessels before the Communion Rite. This also avoids unduly prolonging the preparation of the altar.

Section 1.54.4 The offerings are then brought forward. The procession bringing the gifts is accompanied by the offertory chant, which continues at least until the gifts have been placed on the altar. The norms on the manner of singing are the same as for the entrance chant. Singing may always accompany the rite at the offertory, even when there is no procession with the gifts.<sup>207</sup>

Section 1.54.5 It is appropriate for the faithful's participation in the Mass to be expressed by the ritual presentation of the gifts of the bread and wine for the Holy Sacrifice, in the manner described in the Missal.<sup>208</sup>

Section 1.54.6 The bread and wine may be accompanied by other gifts for the relief of the needs of the Church and of the poor,<sup>209</sup> in the form of money or material goods. In the latter case, the quantity of material presented should be moderate and restricted in size, in such a way as to have a token value, leaving the rest of the intended gifts to be delivered outside of the celebration of Holy Mass. Care should be taken that whatever is carried in the offertory procession is strictly related to the sacred celebration and maintains its dignity. Items such as Christmas gifts for the celebrant, or the like, should be strictly excluded.

Section 1.54.7 The offerings are received by the priest, assisted by the deacon, acolyte, or other minister. The bread and wine for the Eucharist are carried to the altar, while other gifts are put in another appropriate place but not on the altar.<sup>210</sup>

‘Jacob then made this vow: “If God remains with me, to protect me on this journey I am making and to give me enough bread to eat and clothing to wear, and I come back safe to my father’s house, the Lord shall be my God. This stone that I have set up as a memorial stone shall be God’s abode. Of everything you give me, I will faithfully return a tenth part to you.”’ — Genesis 28:20-22

Dear Parishioners,

As you plan your summer vacation, we pray for your time and that you will have wonderful memories.

If you forget your envelope, please remember that you can give electronically through our website. Just click on “Giving” on the menu bar found on every page. You can also call the office for more information at 503-397-3323.

You have a blessed summer and may God bless you.

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu
(Pastor)

Christmas Bazaar

It is time to start gathering items for the Christmas Bazaar. If you do any spring cleaning remember that we could use items that have been gently used. Please bring items to the office.

We need Sure Jell, 1/2 pint jars, sugar, juices, and berries to make jams and jellies this fall. Please keep this in mind this summer when picking berries.

Thank you,
Women’s Society

St Frederic Garage Sale

Friday, August 9 & Saturday, August 10

9-2 p.m.

Please think of St. Frederic when donating items. We do not have space for clothing. Help is needed to sort and price on August 5—August 8.

FORMED.org Pick of the Week

In this week’s FORMED Pick, come to a deeper appreciation of the beauty and importance of the Mass. This week, watch The Elements of the Mass, which features 3–5 minute videos about different aspects of the liturgy.

FORMED.org is scheduled to end on July 24, 2019. Make sure to use it while you can. The renewal cost is $1850.00. For this reason, we will not be renewing our subscription. Individuals (or a group of individuals) can purchase a FORMED.org for $9.99 a month with an email and credit card. Consider this your Catholic Netflix online service.

Parish Picnic

Sunday, August 4

Mass at 11:00 a.m. at Columbia View Park

ADVERTISER OF THE WEEK!
