Divine Worship

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1J states:

Section 1.56.9: If several deacons are present, one of them may place incense in the thurible for the consecration and incense the host and the chalice as they are shown to the people. Incensation is an expression of reverence and of prayer, as signified in Sacred Scripture. Also, if incense is used, in the absence of a second deacon, a server incenses the host and the chalice when each is shown to the people after the consecration.<sup>226</sup>

Section 1.56.10: From the epiclesis until the priest shows the chalice, the deacon normally remains kneeling.<sup>227</sup> If the deacon is unable to kneel, he should remain standing.

Section 1.56.11: “At the final doxology of the Eucharistic Prayer, the deacon stands next to the priest, holding the chalice elevated while the priest elevates the paten with the host, until the people have responded with the acclamation, Amen.”<sup>228</sup>

Our Father

Section 1.57.1: In the recitation of the Our Father at Mass, there is no provision for omitting the prayer, “Deliver us, Lord, etc.” except at a wedding Mass. Therefore, any musical setting of the Lord’s Prayer that is used at Mass must provide for the doxology to be sung after the prayer has been sung.<sup>229</sup>

Section 1.57.2: During the Our Father, the Roman Missal instructs the priest to “extend his hands” assuming the Orans posture.<sup>230</sup> This posture is prescribed only for the priest and although it has been adopted by the faithful in some countries after the approval of the Holy See, in the United States it is still a posture assumed only by the priest.

Section 1.57.3: The faithful holding hands during the Our Father is another posture not envisioned or prescribed by the Roman Missal. While this has been adopted within families with small children it should not be considered a normal posture of the Sacred Liturgy. Indeed some may feel uncomfortable if this posture is imposed upon them.

"Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless." — Isaiah 58:7

Dear Friends,

We are invited by God to tithe to our church and the poor and homeless. Families can also share many activities in which the presence of Christ is felt. There are many ways also, you can involve yourself and your family to activities and ministries in your Church. Volunteer in religious education, singing in the choirs, youth ministry, reading the scriptures during the liturgy celebration, etc. Our Church is a family, and we share together the Holy Eucharist to show our communion for each other.

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu
(Pastor)

Attention Men

One of the biggest issues that destroys our own happiness, and rips apart marriages and families is pornography. It's estimated that 60-70% of men are engaging porn with some frequency. If this is an issue you or a loved one deals with, we have a powerful solution for you. It's called STRIVE and it's an ANONYMOUS 21-day challenge that men all around the world are taking to break free from pornography.

The normal cost is $49, but STRIVE is being provided for FREE for a limited time for all the men at our parish. All you need to do is sign-up at strive21.com and you can begin right away.

Special Thank You

Thank you to our St. Frederic Filipino Community for their fundraising breakfast. They raised $378.00 for St. Frederic Capital Campaign.

Junior High and High School Youth Group

We are working on our Junior High and High School Youth Group schedule that will start in September. We would like to separate the Junior High and High School Groups.
