BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Faithful Departed

Question: Why do I have to pay for a Mass Intention?

Answer: Historically, the purpose of offering a Mass stipend for a particular Mass intention has been two fold. On the one hand, the money that the priest received for saying his daily Mass for a specific intention was essentially his source of income and sometimes still is. At the same time, by giving a stipend, the person requesting that a Mass be celebrated made a sacrificial offering of his own.

Nowadays priests aren't generally reliant on their daily Mass stipends to pay for their basic necessities, but the laws surrounding Mass stipends remain basically the same. The tradition is referred to in canon 946, which states that those members of the faithful who give Mass stipends are contributing to the good of the Church, for they share in the Church's concern for the support of its ministers.

Of major concern of the Church is that there be no appearance that Masses are being bought or sold. Canon 947 notes that even the semblance of trafficking or trading in Mass offerings is to be entirely avoided; and someone who traffics in Mass stipends for profit may actually be punished with censure (canon 1385). Because this matter directly affects the Most Holy Eucharist and also involves obligations of justice to the donors, even the slightest appearance of profit or somony must be avoided (Archdiocese of Portland, Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook 2018, 20.5.5)

November 17, 2019 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time Insert

November 17th, 2019—33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Where would you go if the world was ending? What would you do? The last decade has seen a rise in doomsday prepping, the marketing of survival techniques, and a sea of products designed for you to weather the apocalypse. “The days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another that will not be thrown down,” Jesus warns in today’s Gospel. On the one hand, he is referring to the literal downfall of the city of Jerusalem. Indeed, many of his prophecies here have come true over the last few millennium. Nations have indeed “rise[n] against nation[s],” kingdoms against kingdoms. Surf any world news website today alone, and you will see stories of “powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues.” Jesus’ advice to his disciples, however, isn’t to build a bunker. It’s to persevere in faith ... which won’t be easy.

“They will seize and persecute you ... you will be handed over ... you will be hated because of my name.” This warning, too, has come to pass in the Church throughout history in state-sponsored persecutions and martyrdoms. Jesus is the Messiah, but his first coming was not a coming of earthly victory. Any disciple of his can expect a challenge. The coming of Christ didn’t disrupt our free will. Evil still exists and sometimes even appears to triumph. This does not mean God has abandoned His people! Jesus reminds the disciples — and us — of his constant presence. “I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking.” In other Gospel passages, Jesus promises and sends the Holy Spirit upon his followers. The presence of God is real in our lives, no matter what trials come our way. It’s tempting to be distracted or dismayed by natural destruction and moral evil in the world. But the Church has weathered greater storms. The sacredness of the human person endures. We can have hope! This day and every day, we can persevere in hope and trust in God.

Christmas Bazaar

Time is running out to gather items for the Christmas Bazaar. If you do any fall cleaning remember that we could use items that have been gently used. We are way down in donations this year and need many, many more items. Please bring items to the office.

There is just one workshop left on Tuesday, November 19 at 10:00 a.m. If you have ideas, bring them. If anyone is interested in an evening workshop, please contact Maureen Sloan at 503-397-4957

This year, the Christmas Bazaar will allow outside vendors. The cost is $25 per table for parishioners and $30 for general public. Vendor applications can be found at <https://stfredericchurch.org/christmas-bazaar> or in the office.

Baked Goods

The Women’s Society needs people to make baked good for the Bake Sale part of the Christmas Bazaar. Please take a Christmas tin from the Vestibule and fill it with baked goods. The tins with baked goods need to be returned on Friday, December 6 by 3:00 p.m.
