BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Faithful Departed

Question: Why do I have to pay for a Mass Intention?

Answer: Historically, the purpose of offering a Mass stipend for a particular Mass intention has been two fold. On the one hand, the money that the priest received for saying his daily Mass for a specific intention was essentially his source of income and sometimes still is. At the same time, by giving a stipend, the person requesting that a Mass be celebrated made a sacrificial offering of his own.

Nowadays priests aren't generally reliant on their daily Mass stipends to pay for their basic necessities, but the laws surrounding Mass stipends remain basically the same. The tradition is referred to in canon 946, which states that those members of the faithful who give Mass stipends are contributing to the good of the Church, for they share in the Church's concern for the support of its ministers.

Of major concern of the Church is that there be no appearance that Masses are being bought or sold. Canon 947 notes that even the semblance of trafficking or trading in Mass offerings is to be entirely avoided; and someone who traffics in Mass stipends for profit may actually be punished with censure (canon 1385). Because this matter directly affects the Most Holy Eucharist and also involves obligations of justice to the donors, even the slightest appearance of profit or somony must be avoided (Archdiocese of Portland, Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook 2018, 20.5.5)

November 24, 2019 Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe Insert

November 24th 2019—Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

“The rulers sneered ... the soldiers jeered ... one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus.” Is this the King of the Jews, the King of the Universe? If it is so, perhaps his kingdom is not at all what we would expect! In his letter to the laity, St. John Paul II spoke about how Christians share in the kingly mission of Christ. First, “they exercise their kingship as Christians, above all in the spiritual combat in which they seek to overcome in themselves the kingdom of sin.” In other words, before we give any thought to transforming society, we must first allow God to transform us. Through daily prayer, regular self-examination, and frequent confession, we can recognize our faults more readily and choose love instead!

Second, St. John Paul II writes that the laity “make[s] a gift of themselves so as to serve, in justice and in charity, Jesus who is himself present in all his brothers and sisters, above all in the very least.” Christ’s kingship, and our own participation in it, requires us to look beyond the privileged of society. It goes beyond networking and struggles of power. It goes with Jesus to the Cross!

Still, the kingship of Christ ought to effect society. “The lay faithful are called to restore to creation all its original value ... ordering creation to the authentic well-being of humanity.” Jesus does this in a radical way through his death and resurrection. We, too, are invited to bring new life to the world around us. This means holding the world and everything in it as sacred. It means advocating for civil policies that respect life and paying special care to the vulnerable and marginalized in every stage of life. It means being disciples of Jesus, inviting people into authentic love so that one day we will together “be with [him] in Paradise!”

FORMED Pick of the Week

With the Solemnity of Christ the King this week, we have the opportunity to contemplate the dichotomy of Jesus as both fully human and fully divine. Interested in deepening your understanding of the identity of Jesus Christ? Go to formed.org and watch Symbolon: Knowing the Faith, Episode 5 – Who is Jesus.

Christmas Bazaar

Time is running out to gather items for the Christmas Bazaar. If you do any fall cleaning remember that we could use items that have been gently used. We are way down in donations this year and need many, many more items. Please bring items to the office. If you have any questions, please contact Maureen Sloan at 503-397-4957.

This year, the Christmas Bazaar will allow outside vendors. The cost is $25 per table for parishioners and $30 for general public. Vendor applications can be found at <https://stfredericchurch.org/christmas-bazaar> or in the office.

Baked Goods

The Women’s Society needs people to make baked good for the Bake Sale part of the Christmas Bazaar. Please take a Christmas tin from the Vestibule and fill it with baked goods. Please return the tins with baked goods by Friday, December 6 by 3:00 p.m.

Thank you
